A CHICKEN WING is the name of this hold applied by

Northern's Allen Bittinger against Warren Taliaferro of

third place in the 119-pound division and claim his spot on the

Husky Matmen Break Dry Spell With Strong Finish At State's

by Craig Speicher

After a 20-year relative "dry spell" for Garrett County at the annual State High School Wrestling Tournament, when it finally did rain, it poured, and Northern High School reaped a bumper crop March 2 and 3 at Western Maryland College in Westminster.

Northern matmen grabbed an individual state championship - the county's first - a second place finish and a third place finish, becoming the fifth highest scoring 1A/2A school at this year's state event, skyrocketing from a dismal 27th place school finish just last

A state runner-up last year, Blair Lee "Pete" Bittinger (135 pounds), scored four consecutive victories to fulfill his dream of becoming Northern's first state champion.

Tim Thomas (125) scored three straight wins before losing his fourth match, earning the third state runner-up finish in county history.

Bittinger's freshman brother, Allen Bittinger, produced strong evidence that he may become the most devastating Garrett County grappler ever, as he defeated four out of five 119-pound opponents to finish in third place.

Randy Dolan (152) also advanced Northern's cause by winning his preliminary match, before being subsequently eliminated with a painful shoulder injury.

Suddenly, winning at State seemed easy.

Easy it isn't: Northern's two other entries in the tourney, Ron Sines (145) and John Friend (275), dropped preliminary contests and did not advance.

But to comprehend what it means to win or lose at State. one must first understand the quality of the competition.

The top four wrestlers (from each weight class) in each of Maryland's four regions advance to State, and to say that the competition there is formidable is like saying

A good example of just how formidable was seen in the 130-pound weight class this year, which included Region II champion Robert Hough of Hereford; Aberdeen's Region II runner-up Jeff Franklin; Region III champion Nathan Ludke of Gwynn Park; and Parkside's Region IV champion Lefty Schul. The four had competed at different weight classes over the years before meeting in the same class this year at State.

Hough (season record of 29-1) was a state runner-up last year. Franklin (27-1), a state champion two years ago, was also a state runner-up last year. Ludke (28-0) was already a twotime state champion before this year's tournament. And Schul (26-0), a state runner-up two years ago, took third at State last year. Combined records: 110 wins, two defeats.

Formidable: which helps explain why there is no dishonor in losing at Westminster, where only one grappler out of every 16 can return home without incurring at least one defeat, and where, for the first time ever, a Garrett County matman this year triumphed un-

And challenging as it was, the 1990 State Tournament presented no serious threats to senior Blair Bittinger, unlike last year where he was pushed to his limits, losing in the final round and settling for the runner-up title.

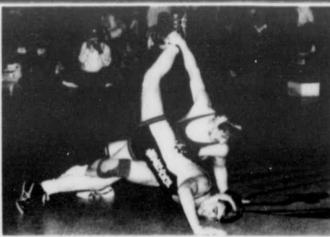

In preliminary action this year, the Region I 135-pound champion Bittinger faced Alan Grunder of Northeast Anne Arundel, whom Bittinger maneuvered as easily as a chef molding a hamburger patty, mashing him with a 17-0 technical fall.

In the quarter-finals, Jason Ricketts of Owings Mills became Bittinger's next victim, Next, Bittinger (24-2) faced The strategy succeeded as Manor, 3-1. probably his most challenging Bittinger again grabbed the champion Troy Charney (33-1) of Douglass. Bittinger took the lead with an effortless takedown and never lost it, finishing off Charney also 6-2.

With Charney's defeat, the state championship seemed assured for Bittinger, for in his next and final match, he opposed Smithsburg's Doug Batey, whom Bittinger had already mastered 13-4 the week before in Region I semi-final

A FALL GUY is what Northern High's Blair Bittinger made Northeast's Alan Grunder in a preliminary round of the Maryland State Tournament. Bittinger, who dominated Grunder, 17-0, to record a technical fall, went on to win the state championship in the 135-pound division. It was the first-ever state wrestling championship by a Garrett County wrestler. Below. Bittinger stands at the highest point on the victory stand.

For the grand finale, Bittinger faced Westmar's Region I runner-up Dave Hartman, yet another senior, who had decisioned Bittinger 2-1 in the Region I semi-final round just a week earlier. The match was one of the most intensely fought as 27 points were scored, with Bittinger winning 15-12 in overtime. The win was his fourth in five contests, made all the more astonishing by the fact that Bittinger had already lost nine times this year in milder competition before State. Apparently, he is improving

Martin's Upset By Westvaco In League Playoffs

It is tough to beat a good team three times in one season as second seed and three-time defending champion Martin's Auto Glass found out in semifinal action of the Mt. Top Basketball League playoffs. Third-seeded Westvaco jumped out to a early 14-point first-half lead and never allowed Martin's closer than seven points on their way to a 114-95 win. This will be the first time in eight years that Martin's will not be in the championship

It took a major effort by Bill Braithwaite, a sometimes overlooked member of Westvaco, to carry his team past Martin's. The six-foot Braithwaite hit five three-pointers, had four baskets off offensive rebounds, and went six for six from the charity stripe as he tallied 35 points. Teammate Jeff Beavers contributed 25 points.

Martin's effort took a major turn for the worse when point guard Pete Brosnihan picked up his third personal foul with 10 seconds left in the first half and then his fourth foul at the 17:45 mark of the second half. When Brosnihan went out with his fourth foul, Martin's had managed to cut the lead to eight points, 65-57. When Brosnihan came back four and a half minutes later, the score was 81-66 and Westvaco was never again threatened.

A summary of the frustration for Martin's occurred with two minutes left in the game when Tony Doerr and Dennis Gibson combined to miss five layups or tip-ins in a row before Westvaco got the rebound and went back up court. Gibson and Poke Winters both scored 25 points to lead Martin's and Tom Stem added 21.

In the other semifinal, first seeded A&A Realty easily handled fifth seeded Buffalo Coal, 111-80. A&A jumped out to a 16-point halftime lead (53-37) and then outscored Buffalo 13-4 to start the second half to seal the victory. Kevin Liller poured in 31 points to lead A&A and his Buffalo was led by Bryan Wilt with 25 points and Jim Freeman with 24. A&A Realty and Westvaco will play tonight for the Mt. Top Basketball League Championship. A&A won the previous two meetings between the two teams by the score of 99-81 and 108-102. The game will be played at GCC at 8 p.m. There

QUARTERFINALS Fifth-seeded Buffalo Coal pulled off a mild upset to start the quarterfinal round when they knocked off fourth-seeded Video Connection, 88-79. Jim Freeman exploded for 35 points, including 20 in the second half, to lead Buffalo. Tom Panther's 22 points and Bryan Wilt's 21 points were also major contributors in the Buffalo attack, as the trio combined for 78 of the teams 88 points. Video's Brad Yoder was high scorer for

First-seeded A&A Realty reached the semifinals with a 101-79 trouncing of eighthseeded Deep Creek Pharmacy. The Pharmacy, down by only five points at halftime (43-38), saw A&A explode for a 17-4 run to start the second half and put the game out of reach early. Steve Liller poured in 31 points to lead A&A and his brother, Kevin, added 23. Mike Fazen baker was high scorer for Deep Creek Pharmacy with 23.

Realtor Raft Race Winners Are Announced

The members of the Garrett County Board of Realtors have announced the results of the "Realtor Raft Race," one of the events of the 1990 Winterfest at Wisp Resort, McHenry.

The top five raft winners were: first place, Century 21 "Yellow Jackets," second place, A&A Realty/BH&G "Kanes Mutany," third place, Deep Creek Realty "Rambo II," fourth place, Century 21 "Raft Riders," and fifth place, A&A Realty/BH&G "A & Arabs." A new winner of this year's race was Garrettland Realty "Housekeepers" for the fastest raft.

After the race, a party was held in the Bavarian Room, at the Wisp, with live entertainment provided by Wisp ski instructors Dieter and Ludwig, with Australian and American songs. Pizza, cold cuts, vegetables, and refreshments were provided. Video replays and awards to the raft winners were presented at this time.

Physical Fitness Commission Seeks Award Nominees

The Maryland Commission on Physical Fitness of the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is currently seeking nominations for individuals and organizations throughout Maryland who have made outstanding contributions in the area of physical fitness.

Nominees will be eligible to receive the Hall of Fame Award and the Fitness Citation for 1990. Recipients of these awards, established in 1980 by the Physical Fitness Commission, will be announced at the beginning of the summer.

The deadline for submitting nominations is April 15, 1990. Nominees must be Maryland residents.

For nomination applications, persons may call (301) 764-2965 or contact the Maryland Commission on Physical Fitness, 4201 Patterson Avenue, Baltimore, MD, 21215-2299.

Senior Division Finals Slated: A&A Vs. Coors

Number four seeded State Farm nearly captured a berth in the finals of the Oakland Senior Basketball Division, but fell short with seconds to play against the aggressive A&A Realty defense, 63-61. Jim Browning played his best of the year and contributed 24 points, while Carl Fike, who jetted in from Florida, earned MVP honors for his defensive leadership and courage.

State Farm was paced by former Bruce High Bulldog Gary Newcomb and Rob Michael with 22 and 17 points, respectively. Monty Pagenhardt, former Bridgewater College standout, was outstanding on defense and was also an offensive force.

The second game saw Coors defeat Garrett Construction, 86-58. Garrett was led by Eric Wotring with 21 points. The game was close despite the final score. Dave Bosley finished the year as the leading three-point shooter with nine points while brother, Dan Bosley, gathered 19 points to lead the Coors team.

The final game will be played at 6 p.m. this Monday at Southern Middle pairing A&A against Coors. The two teams split earlier in the seaons, leading up to the best matchup to date in the finals in the three-year history of the Senior Division. Coors will be gunning for its third title in as many years.

Lakers Win Three, Lose Five In Baseball Action On The Road

After ripping Chesapeake College in a doubleheader Friday at Wye Mills, 15-0 and 23-3, the Garrett Community College baseball team went on to record only one more win in six games this week, as the Lakers record fell fo 3-6.

Coach Lawrence Nesselrodt's squad dropped a pair of games to Anne Arundel CC on Saturday, 10-2 and 7-0, in Arnold; split a Sunday twinbill with host Frederick CC, winning the first contest, 12-1, and dropping the nightcap, 5-4; and then dropped two close games to Allegany Community College yesterday in Cumberland, 5-3 and 6-4. The Lakers will play a pair of games at Charles CC in LaPlata on Saturday before spending next week playing several games in Florida.

The highlight of the sweep over Chesapeake was a no hitter tossed by freshman Eric Chapman, of Charlottsville, Va., who fanned nine batters and walked only two to record his first win.

Offensively, the Lakers rapped 13 hits in the five-inning contest, as Tony Warner drove in five runs with a double and a single, plus scored three times. Mike Boyle added three singles, Dwayne Woodring hit a pair of singles for three RBI, and Buddy Leichliter smacked a homer and a single. The second contest was much closer through the first five innings, as the Lakers were down 1-0 after two. Back-to-back homers by Chad McCullough and Leichliter in the sixth inning, however, broke things wide open for the Lakers, who went on to score 10 runs in the seventh. Starter Mark Rohrbaugh. who pitched the first five innings and worked out of a jam in the fifth, was relieved by Steve Uicic in the sixth.

Laker pitchers Carmen Moon and Bucky Riggleman were tagged with 12 hits in the opening game against Anne Arundel, and in the nightcap the Anne Arundel pitcher allowed only two GCC hits, a double by by Irvin Johnson. Tony Angelor pitched an impressive game for the Lakers in their win over Frederick on Sunday, as he scattered four hits and struck out seven batters to record his first victory. GCC took a 1-0 lead in the first Frederick tied it a 1-1 in the second, but the Lakers took the lead for good with two runs in the third on a steal by Warner and a Frederick error.

Leading Garrett's hitting were Pat Staley with a triple and a double, D.G. Largent with a double and a single, and Mc-Cullough with a three-run double. Warner scored three times.

Errors and wild pitching by the Lakers in the first two innings of the nightcap led to four Cougar runs. Garrett knotted the score at 4-4 in the third, but the Cougars recorded their winning run in the bottom of the fourth. The Lakers left what would have been their winning runs stranded at second base in the sixth and on first and second in the seventh.

In the first game against ACC on Wednesday, the Lakers fell behind 2-0 in the second inning when Todd Nagy tripled and scored on a grounder by Tom Estep. Ben Farmer followed with a walk, and Dana Rice rapped a triple to plate Farmer.

The Lakers came back with a run in the third when Chris Warner's sacrifice. They tied it ahead run. at 2-2 in the fourth when Mcand came home on a double by Mick Bayle.

ACC went on top for good in the fifth by scoring runs on singles by Glenn Davis and Eric Wagner.

A solo homer by McCullough in the sixth made it 4-3, but the Trojans added an insurance run in the same inning when Ken Mallory scored on a hit by Rice.

Eric Chapman and Riggleman combined on the mound to give up just six hits, but Chapman took the loss. Bill Williams and Jim Beck vielded just four hits, as Williams was credited with the win.

It appeared as though the ACC undefeated streak would end at nine games when the Lakers built a 4-0 lead in first five innings of the second game. But the Trojans came back to score five runs in the bottom of the fifth and add one more in the sixth to up their record to 10-0.

The Board has received a letter from James Spear, announcing his resignation from the Youghiogheny River Local Advisory Board.

The next meeting of the Youghiogheny River Local Advisory Board will be held Thursday, May 10.

MEETING

Officials from the Department of Natural Resources held a public meeting on Friday for a review of the recreational capacity study, which was conducted by Pennsylvania State University.

John Wilson, Department of Natural Resources, said that approximately 17 persons attended the meeting. Out of the ten outfitters currently permitted to run commercial whitewater rafting trips on the Youghiogheny River, only three had representatives attending the meeting.

Officials from Pennsylvania State University reviewed the hydrological, economic impact and visitors' surveys sections of the study.

"As a member of the Oakland Senior Center staff, I would like to thank all the people who help me to make a better place for the seniors to come and eat together. From time to time, I see new faces and welcome them to the program. I enjoy my work very much and hope I can help improve the Center. Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday we serve very good meals for all our people. They enjoy them very, very much. We get very good response from all the folks. March 11-17 was designated as "Hire the Older Worker Week" and I'm proud to be a part of it too. Thanks to all." Lonnie Rodeheaver, Kitchen Assistant, Oakland Center

"I am enjoying working with the Garrett County senior citizens and the many activities we share throughout the year." Jane Sickeler, Center Coordinator, Oakland and Accident

"I started working with senior citizens in Bloomington in 1978. They have become like part of my family in the last 12 years. I am site manager for the hot meals program which is centered at Bull's Restaurant and also do transportation. Although sometimes frustrating, it has been a happy experience for me working with these people. I am looking forward to more time with my friends on the job or not." Lena Broadwater, Site Manager,

"I am employed as Activities Programmer at the Oakland Center. This has been very rewarding. Our motto is: 'We may not see eye to eye, but try to see heart to heart." Lorene Dodge, Activities Programmer, Oakland Center

"I enjoy my work which gets me out of the house and helps keep me active. I've gotten acquainted with seniors whom I did not know and learned to love them with hugs and embraces. I enjoy recognizing their birthdays if they are present. It makes them happy to know someone cares." Melda Bittinger, Kitchen Manager, Flowery Vale Center

'Cooking has always been my hobby, so I enjoy cooking for the seniors. Eating good food together makes for happier seniors." Arveta McCrum, Cook, Oakland Center

Lake Office Seeks Input On Peak Lake Use

The Lake Management Office is currently soliciting public comment on the issue of peak boating use on Deep Creek Lake. The Department of Natural Resources Management Plan for the lake provided for an evaluation of methods for reducing the number of boats on the lake when peak use is attained.

"By consulting with, and encouraging members of the general public, property owners, and local businesses to provide their input on this issue, the Lake Management Office hopes to receive ideas and recommendations on addressing peak use," stated a Lake Office spokesman.

The Carrying Capacity Study for Deep Creek Lake, which was completed in October of 1988, indicated that boat usage is approaching maximum recommended levels during peak use weekends and holidays. The Lake Management Office intends to evaluate suggested methods of addressing this program should peak use levels occur. "In doing this, it will be possible to maintain an acceptable level of use consistent with a safe and quality recreational experience," spokesman said.

Interested individuals may respond in writing by addressng their comments to Lake Manager, Deep Creek Lake NRMA, Route 2, Box 69C, Swanton, MD 21561.

Local Head Start Program Seeking Fall Enrollees

The Garrett County Head Start Program is currently recruiting three and four-yearold children for enrollment in September, 1990.

Head Start is a pre-school child development program for children from families who fall within federal income eligibility guidelines. The program has six major components: education, health, nutrition, parent involvement, social services and handicap. According to a Head Start spokesman, the program is designed to meet each child's individual need. Every child receives a variety of learning experiences to foster intellectual, social and emotional growth. Children participate in indoor and outdoor play and are introduced to concepts of words and numbers. They are also encouraged to express their feelings and develop selfconfidence and the ability to get along with others.

Children with handicapping conditions participate with other enrolled children and receive all the same services, plus services for their individual special needs, the spokesman

Head Start also provides each child with comprehensive health and nutritional services. Children are served two hot meals every day in order to meet at least two-thirds of their daily nutritional requirements.

The spokesman said that parents are the most important influence on a child's development and an essential part of every Head Start project is the involvement of parents in all aspects of the program. Many parents volunteer in the classroom and participate in decision-making and in training sessions provided by Head Start. They learn about educational activities that can be implemented at home.

One hundred and twenty-two children are presently enrolled in the Head Start Program. Centers are located in Crellin, Oakland, Jennings, Accident, Kitzmiller and Dennett Road. Applications are accepted in May for the fall term. Applications are available at any center, at the Community Action Office at 360 W. Liberty Street, or at the Head Start Office at 221 S. Third Street in Oakland.

Parents are requested to bring verification of family income, parents' social security numbers, and their child's birth certificate when applying. For more information, persons may contact the Head Start Office at 334-5856.

Casselman Lumber Receives Award For Top Sales

Wood-Mode Cabinetry, Kreamer, Pa., recently announced that Casselman Lumber, Grantsville, has earned membership in their Silver Star Sales Club for outstanding sales in 1989. Established in 1942, Wood-Mode has become the nation's largest manufacturer of custom cabinetry for kitchens, baths and all rooms of the house.

David Maust, owner of Casselman Lumber, was informed that he and his staff placed in the top 35 percent of all Wood-Mode retail dealers nationwide. In addition to the Silver Star Award, the staff of Casselman's will be accompanying other dealers of their caliber on a Bahama Cruise in the spring as guests of Wood-Mode Cabinetry.

Heart Sunday is March 18, a day that wraps up the annual Heart Fund Drive, according to Francis Grimm, local chair-

Division, American Heart

Grimm said that all Heart Fund volunteers will be concluding their solicitations for donations this weekend and will turn in their collections Sunday afternoon at the Thayer Center branch of First United National Bank & Trust, Oakland, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. He added that other persons and/or businesses who wish to donate to the Heart Fund are during those hours. About half as much hot water is used in the shower as in the recycle the solid waste stream. Two years ago, Donna began collecting and recycling aluminum cans. Now she is also recycling any aluminum material, along with all metal cans and containers. Last summer she started recycling glass as well. She also recycles all of her newpapers (separating the black and white newsprint from color) and separates any clean paper to use as note-paper from paper that has had food contact. Because the problem of recycling plastics has yet to be satisfactorily resolved, Donna tears off the tops of plastic containers and stuffs other plastic materials inside, so she can at least reduce the space taken up by this material. Some of her "trash" is utilized in craft projects. She has also revived the art of composting. Her recycling system is simple: she just uses different bags for different materials. She has even been progressive enough to write to a major publishing company suggesting they cut down on their policy of multiple mailings and that they offer less "self-serving" magazine publications and more that promote environmentalist issues. She is shown contributing to the recycling effort which is fast becoming a community-wide effort. Donna resides in Country Club Acres with her husband, William, and their 10-year-old son, Bobby.

NBC's 'Phantom' explores relationships

Charles Dance plays title role

By Mary Ann Townsend Despite being called "the British Robert Redford." Charles Dance stars in the title role this week in NBC's levish production of The Fhantom Of The Opera.

Airing Sunday and Monday, March 18 and 19. The Phantom Of The Opera is based on the 1907 novel by Gaston Leroux about the Gothic romance between a mysterious phantom who lives in the passageways far beneath the Paris Opera House and the beautiful young singer with whom he falls in love

This version of the tale explores reasons behind the relationships between the phantom and the young singer (Teri Polo) and between the phantom and the theater manager who is his link to the outside world (Burt Lancaster)

It also draws the phantom not as a maniacal killer, but as a recluse determined to continue his existence below the opera house, no matter what the cost.

Filming on location at the actual Paris Opera House lent an authentic eeriness to the NBC miniseries. There actually is a series of labyrinthine cellars beneath the opera that lead to a mysterious subterranean lake. where the phantom lives in the NBC production. The climactic final scene was actually filmed on the roof of the Paris Opera House, 100 feet above the streets and 10 stories above the stage.

Dance, too, brings an eeriness to the miniseries. Since the phantom's face is never revealed to the audience, the actor had to rely heavily on body language to portray the intense emotions his character experiences.

"When you work with masks, your body, not just your face, mirrors our souls," Dance explained. "Actions can be as indicative as facial movement—this is an angry action, that is a melancholy one. The simple way you hold your head conveys a great deal of expression.

Charles Dance and Teri Polo star in Phantom Of The Opera, a romantic four-hour miniseries based on Gaston Leroux's classic tale of horror and passion, about the masked figure who haunts the Paris Opera House. It will be telecast on NBC Sunday and Monday nights.

In fact, exhibiting emotion while concealed behind a mask was not as difficult for Dance as another aspect of the role. "Learning bits of opera to successfully lip-sync was by far the most difficult

Documentary's omission raises questions about the Oscars

By Steven Alan McGaw Last week I signed off by congratulating all the Oscar nominees and it was sincere. Moreover, there were several nominations that really pleased me, like those for Dead Poets Society and the nod to Marlon Brando for his electric performance in A Dry White Season. But, just like last year, one category stands out for a glaring omission, for failing to even nominate the work that, in some ways, would seem a certain winner. Most interesting is that it's the same category as last year; that is, sident Roger Smith? In any of course, the slot for Best Documentary Feature.

'Gunsmoke II' rekindles Matt's one-time romance

Michael Learned

plays former love By Mary Ann Townsend Four-time Emmy Award winner Michael Learned costars with James Arness in Gunsmoke II: The Last Apache, set to air Sunday, March 18, on CBS. The movie is a continuation of an episode which guest-starred Learned years ago. Arness reprises the role he held from 1955 to 1975 as Dodge City Marshal Matt Dillon in the two-hour movie. As Dillon, he learns that a one-time romance with Learned's character resulted in a daughter, who has now been kidnapped during an Indian raid. "It's kind of a double love story," Learned said. While she writes to Matt Dillon to help save her ranch from Indian raids, the daughter, Beth, played by Amy Stock-Poynton, has been kidnapped by a renegade

Apache who has fallen in love with her. Filmed in remote West

Texas, Gunsmoke II: The Last Apache also gave Learned a chance to play a wrangler, an occupation about which the actress had fantasized when she was a child. Since the filming of Gunsmoke II ended just before Christmas, Learned, probably best known for her role as matriarch Olivia Walton in The Waltons, has been preparing for her stage performance as a spy in a play called Hap Good.

"Now I'm doing spies and counter spies," Learned said, taking time out from a recent rehearsal. "I don't know what's happened. I've become middle aged and now I get to do cowboys and spies. I played an older mother when I was young, and now that I'm older I'm playing all these fun parts.'

James Arness recreates his role as Marshal Matt Dillon in Gunsmoke II: The Last Apache, to be telecast Sunday on CBS. Michael Learned co-stars.

'Max Dugan' a tale of family love

By Steven Alan McGaw First off, a message to D.M. Robinson of Lincoln, N.H. My sources indicate that Two For The Road (featuring, as Robinson puts it, "the incomparable and incredible Audrey Hepburn") is available on video, but I can't, on the other hand, find the name of the distributor. I suggest checking at the biggest video outlet in your area and seeing if they can give you the address of a video collectors society, or a catalog from which the stores themselves order tapes. Can anybody out there help? I'd appreciate

Max Dugan Returns (1983) It's surprising that I like this film because a.) I'm not a big Neil Simon fan and b.) I don't care for Marsha Mason. But this winning little comedy overcame those obstacles and made me a fan. Jason Robards is terrific as wily old Max, a con man who returns after a lifetime's absence to mend fences with his embittered, widowed daughter (Mason) and to meet his grandson, Matthew Broderick. Mason resists Robards' overtures and wants him to leave, but two factors enable him to stay: a.) a huge satchel filled with cash and b.) he's dying of cancer. Mason relents and the trio begin to be a family. Unfortunately, Dugan's presence has attracted the attention of Mason's new beau, a cop played by Donald Sutherland. (One of the film's highlights, in fact, is watching Mason, a schoolteacher, try to explain her sudden wealth of clothes, cash and a new Mercedes to the suspicious suitor.) Max Dugan Returns is no classic, but a charming, warm comedy with a good message inside. Give it a chance.

TNT film fills in gaps of kidnapping in Israel

By Shelia Odak

Most people believe that following one's own conscience is the correct thing to do. But, what if doing so means betraying your country and putting your own life at risk? That is what Mordechai Vanunu faced when he decided to tell the world about the arsenal of nuclear weapons that Israel was producing. His story is presented in the TNT movie Secret Weapon, premiering Monday, March 19.

The report broke on Oct. 5,

1986, when The Sunday Times of London printed the story that Israel's development and production of nuclear weapons had greatly exceeded what anyone had previously thought. The source behind the story was Vanunu, who had worked as a technician at the secret nuclear research facility at the Dimona nuclear plant. Only days before the story hit the streets. Vanunu disappeared from England. Speculation ran high that he had been kidnapped and returned to Israel, but no proof to support that accusation could be found. Then on Nov. 9, Israel admitted to having him, but denied that he had been kidnapped. As he was being taken to stand trial. Vanunu held his hand to the window of the van that was taking him away. On it he had written details of his kidnapping, which took place in Rome. He was tried and convicted of espionage he remains today Not many details of Vanunu's story are known other than those, and the fact that he was turned in by a female agent working for the mysterious Mossad operation. Producer/writer Nick Evans wanted to flesh out that part of the story and researched this agency, which is considered by Israel to be a state secret. Through his work he developed a storyline in which a husband and wife team from Mossad are sent to capture Vanunu. The wife is ordered to seduce him and turn him over to Mossad operatives in Rome. Vanunu, in truth a very naive man, trusts her and falls in love with her. She ultimately carries out her assignment and betrays him. Karen Allen stars in Secrei Weapon as the seductive agent, and Griffin Dunne plays the Israeli technician Vanunu.

Above all in making this film, Evans did not want to make judgments on either side. "It's a poignant and very exciting story," he said, "which has at its heart the clash of two equally valid sets of moral principles. On the one hand, there's the and treason, and sentenced morality of Mordechai to 18 years in prison, where Vanunu, who believed that Israel's secret manufacture of nuclear bombs was wrong And on the other hand. there's the morality of the state of Israel, whose belief that the Holocaust, or anything approaching it, shall never be allowed to happen again, and that all steps necessary must be taken to protect the state of Israel."

THE CHOICE March 18, 1990

Background Scripture: John 11:47:53, Devotional Reading: John 17:1-11

It would be interesting for each of us to attempt to re-write the story of Jesus' betraval and arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane. Some of us, the "macho" wing, that is, would probably follow Peter's attack on the high priest's slave with each of the disciples brandishing a sword and defending their Master with a vigorous attack, either routing or killing the arresting party. Another variation would have Peter striking out, not at the slave of the high priest, but Judas. If anyone suffered for this terrible deed, surely it should have been him. Another scenario someone might suggest would have Jesus denying that he was the one they sought, slipping away from his captors so that he could continue to preach the Gospel. This would appeal to those who believe that martyrdom is often a wasted expenditure of life. Then too, Jesus might have met his foes with a withering denunciation. They might arrest him, but not before he had made a ringing defense of his innocence.

CHOICES NOT TAKEN

Those are just some of the ways in which any of us might have reacted in that situation. But Jesus did not choose any of these scenarios. He did not hide, but said forthrightly: "Whom do you seek?" When they said, "Jesus of Nazareth," he replied without evasion: "I am he." And when they seemed uncertain or unable to make the next move, it is Jesus who moves them off deadcenter: "I told you that I am he; so, if you seek me, let these men

Now the question that always divides Christians is whether Jesus sought martyrdom, or simply accepted it. Did Jesus want to go to the cross, or did he merely accept the cross rather than deny the gospel? Did Jesus have to go to the cross, or could he have chosen not to? I truly believe Jesus did have a choice. I believe he chose freely and his choice was to remain faithful to that for which God had sent him. Jesus did not want to die, I am convinced, but even more than that, he did not want to fail in this mission which God had given him. Accepting death was preferable to accepting defeat

END OR BEGINNING So. Jesus did not lie, cheat or steal to get out of his dilemma He did not "sneak away to fight true to his calling as the Christ. to pay that price, the gospel did not die on Calvary, but was resurrected with him. What seemed the beginning.

But there are also times when we must say to ourselves, "This far, but no further." And when that happens, it must never be because the choice was forced on us, but because, like Jesus, we would rather bear the pain and win the crown.

Often, we are confronted with the same kinds of choices. We can take a stand for the right, or we can find a way of avoiding the choice. Sometimes, like Jesus, we have to have the courage to stand up and be counted, even if the count is a palty "one." That's not easy, I know. There have been times when I have rationalized that it would be better to keep my mouth shut then to open it and get in trouble. And sometimes that is good advice: unlike Don Quixote, we cannot joust with every

By Paula Vincent The lyrics for "Amazing Grace" were written in the 18th century by an English slave ship captain turned country preacher, who came to faith after surviving a storm at sea. John Newton's hymn made its way to America in the 19th century and was sung throughout the South by both masters and their slaves. Today, it is sung in a wide range of styles by a galaxy of performers. Moyers: Amazing In Grace. Bill Movers explores the roots of this universal hymn, and performers ranging from Jessye Norman, Judy Collins, Johnny Cash and Jean Ritchie to the Boys Choir of Harlem sing the hymn and talk about what it means to them. The 90-minute special airs Monday. 12:00 am G Grand Ole Opry 7:30 pm (3) This Week In Country Music This series Live Backstage Keith Bilbrey takes viewers backstage for interviews and features. covers a week of country music news Lorianne Crook Charlie MOVIE: Orca, the Killer

Actress did play two characters By Candace Havens Dear Candace: I am writing to ask a question on two soaps, All My Children and One Life To Live. Is the woman who plays Opal Gardner the same one who played Ursela on OLTL? I need to know if they are two different people. My friends say they are the same person I say they're not. Thanks. -Barbara, Truman, Ark. Dear Barbara: Sorry, but you are wrong. The actress portrayed both roles. Dear Candace: I am upset about the new Margo on As The World Turns. No one can take Margo's place. The new Lilly on ATWT spoils everything. The old Lilly was my favorite. -B. Longstreth, Claire, Mich

Dear Candace: I tell you, if Vicki on One Life To Live doesn't make up her mind, I'd be glad to bop her on the head so she can be clear about her feelings for Roger Gordon I'm sick of her crying "Oh Clint, I only love you." Did you see the show where she was dreaming about Roger? Doesn't that tell her anything? I hate Clint for being so pushy, but after all. Vicki did lie about her relationship with Roger. Clint is hurt and leaning toward Gabrielle's mom Vicki better quit giving everyone else advice and worry about herself. Thanks for letting me air my piece. -Patricia Menard, Cen-

BUSINESS OF BANKING — Students from Northern and Southern High Schools were shown through Garrett National Bank recently. The business and marketing classes of Donetta Nice, Southern High School, and Ann Sallie, Northern High School, were given the tour on the ''Business of Banking" program, which included an outline of "What We Look For In New Employees," by George Evans, vice president. A video tape on training new employees was then shown by Wayne R. Johnson, compliance and training officer; and the students were shown through the teller windows, new account desks and the loan department. Explanations on bookkeeping, accounting, check processing, proofing and the computer room as they relate to banking were also given to the students. Visits were also made to central file and the mortgage departments. Mrs. Jo Ann Vent, job placement teacher for the Garrett County Board of Education, and Wayne Johnson coordinated the program. "We're very proud and pleased to have the opportunity to share information with our students," said Milford E. Beckman, president of Garrett National Bank. In the above photo, Wayne Smith, loan officer, explains to students from Southern High School how the loan office operates. Pictured above, left to right, are: Donetta Nice, teacher; Pam Wilburn, Lee Ann Schmidt, Marcia Sisler, Jodi Hershberger, Sandy Patton and Wayne Smith. #### Stroke Club To Meet This Friday In Cumberland

Terry Wolfe, chairman of the Allegany County Stroke Club, has announced that the next meeting of the Club will be held at 1 p.m. this Friday, March 16, at the Continuing Education Building, Allegany Community College, Cumberland. The room number will be posted in the

as guest speaker. The guest speaker for the February meeting was Janice McKenzie at the Home Health Care Department, Sacred Heart Hospital, who discussed the kinds of services available and the criteria for obtaining services for special care of homebound patients. Since its organization in 1984, the Home Health Care office has provided registered nurses, counselling, personal care, and physical, occupational, and hearing and speech therapy.

Members attending the February meeting were given draft copies of the proposed bylaws of the Allegany County Stroke Club. Anyone who received a copy at that meeting should review the contents and bring the copy to the March 16 meeting for discussion and voting by the membership.

The membership voted to have the April 20 meeting at the Holiday Inn, Cumberland. Luncheon will be served, and reservations are required. Information may be obtained from Terry Wolfe at 301-729-1640

Membership in the Allegany County Stroke Club is open to anyone in the Tri-State area who has suffered a stroke or other disability, caregivers, volunteer workers and drivers, or anyone who is interested in learning more about preventing strokes and how to detect an oncoming stroke. All meetings and social activities are open to the general public.

The Club's Outreach Program for new stroke patients and their caregivers enables Club members to visit hospitals and homes upon request. Anyone suffering a stroke or caring for a stroke victim is invited to call Wolfe at the above telephone number to have a

Scout Leader Training Slated

Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold Cub Scout Leader Basic and Advanced Training on Saturday, March 24, at LaVale United Methodist Church, National Highway, La-

Basic Training will be offered from 9 to 11:30 a.m. for all leaders unable to attend the fall course. Included will be information for den leaders, cubmasters, committee chairs or members.

Advanced training, which will be offered from 1 to 4:15 p.m., will include in-depth sessions on ceremonies, publicity, outdoor programs, crafts, advancement, religious emblems, and a special session on Cub day camp and Webelos camp preparations. "Advanced training. or Pow-wow, is an excellent opportunity for leaders to hone their scouting skills, get new ideas to take back to their dens and packs, and have a great time sharing experiences with other Scouters," stated a Council spokesman.

Each unit is asked to coordinate signing up their leaders and to send a single registration form to the Council Service Center by March 21. There is no charge be for this training.

Health Screening Bill Introduced By Sen. Mikulski

Senator Barbara Mikulski, D-MD, has introduced the Breast and Cervical Cancer Mortality Prevention Act of 1990. This bill would establish a program to states for preventive health screening. The bill allows states to provide pap smear and mammogram information about these services along with training for health professionals.

This legislation gives priority to low-income women and requires that 60 percent of the money be used for the actual provision of screenings. #### MDT Initiates Safety Program Concerning Trucks

The Maryland Department of Transportation's Drive to Survive program is focused on large commercial motor vehicles in a statewide campaign featuring tips on sharing the highway with large trucks. The campaign is one of seven major elements of the Drive to Survive program designed to heighten public awareness of highway safety.

'The message we are trying to convey is to drive together, especially in the urban areas where there's congestion," said Richard H. Trainor, secretary of the Maryland Department of Transportation. Appearing on Maryland State Police Radio Program, a weekly public service radio broadcast, Secretary Trainor called on motorists to exercise common courtesy while driving. "The main thing is to be considerate and polite," Trainor added.

The Maryland Department of Transportation has released a announcements featuring highway safety messages on truck safety and sharing the road. The campaign also features information on the commercial driver's license (CDL) which provides a single uniform licensing system for drivers of trucks and buses. The CDL provides tougher penalties for drunk or drugged drivers.

"The standards for drinking are considerably lower (for truck drivers) including mandatory suspension and revocation," stated Trainor. "If you are stopped (for drunk driving) you're going to wind up losing your license," he added.

A recent study of alcohol involvement in nine separate fatal truck accidents in Maryland revealed alcohol as a factor in one-third of the heavy truck crashes. The study, conducted by the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB), listed any drug of abuse as a factor in five of the nine fatal truck collisions studied. Maryland was one of the eight states listed in the NTSB study.

The Maryland State Police Radio Program is a weekly pubservice radio broadcast carried on approximately 50 series of public service radio stations in Maryland and

Linemen Safety Concern Of PE

A lineman's safety is a top concern when Potomac Edison employees climb wooden poles to work on utility lines, so it is very important that signs, posters and banners not be nailed or stapled onto poles. Metal tacks and staples remain in the pole long after signs are "Signs placed on a utility pole are a safety hazard to our linemen. If a lineman's climbing tool is damaged by a metal object left in the pole, he is at a higher risk of cutting out or falling," she said.

Mrs. Neff adds that Potomac Edison linemen must work in all types of weather, day and night, so it is vital that their climbing hooks can dig into solid wood while ascending a pole. Nails and staples can also season. He is currently working on this coming season's original offering "There's a Dragon in my Dungeon" and its seven characters. Snelson is creator and director of the "Only Small Players" Puppet Theatre.

Snelson noted that FSU Dean of Arts and Humanities Dr. Philip Allen was asked to enter the puppets in the competition for costuming for Maryland State Arts Council-supported productions. (CST is funded in part by the MSAC.) "After Dr. Allen submitted the entry application, judges came to FSU to see the puppets firsthand," said Snelson, who had prepared a display of the puppets. And, the puppets, which are hand and rod held and nearly 22 inches tall, sold themselves. The FSU duo recently attended a luncheon honoring the "Threads on

Even though he can't pinpoint does, however, credit FSU professor emeritus Dr. Dorothy Howard as being an early influence in the love of puppetry. Each puppet is designed for a particular script or purpose, explained the Garrett County resident, who also created the puppets for FSU's madrigal celebration this past December and CST's inaugural season. After forming a mental image, the craftsman takes to the designing table and sketches out the character. The actual puppet-building process begins with the carving of the head from flotation foam and covering it with a material known as celastic. After the eyes and mouth are added (some of which are movable), the carving is covered in specially-dyed skin-colored fleece - the same type the muppets are made of. Snelson added the costumes are designed exclusively for the characters and are made from a variety of materials and accessories. However Snelson's job isn't finished when the puppets are complete. Next comes training the actors in the art of puppeteering. "I usually have to teach them (the actors) two things first, to 'go up their arm' (project their voice upward) and second, to listen in character," commented the veteran

Garrett County troopers made 18 speeding arrests for the same three-day period, said police at the McHenry barrack. Officers wrote 23 other citations and 23 warning tickets.

During the first three days of the strict enforcement efforts, Maryland State Police issued a total of 1,770 tickets for speeds above the 55 mile per hour speed limit. The intensive speed enforcement program entitled Clickit and Ticket is aimed at motorists exceeding Maryland's 55 mile per hour speed limit.

'Clickit and Ticket has ulted in a dramatic increase in public awareness of the benefits of controlling speeds on our highways," said Colonel Elmer H. Tippett, superintendent, Maryland State Police. "Although average speeds on the metropolitan interstate highways appear to be lower, enforcement will remain strict and aggressive throughout the state," Colonel Tippett added.

The program, which is open to the public free of charge, will be presented by Dr. Betty Favre, professor of English at Frostburg State University, and George McDowell, director of the Learning Enhancement Assistance Program at Garrett Comunity College, both local performing artists and life-long devotees of musical theater. Favre and McDowell, pictured above, teamed up once before to create Cumberland's bicentennial pageant, "Gateway to the Promised Land," a "full-scale musical extravanganza style," according to McDowell.

In their program next week they will use a lively, conversational style and video-supported delivery to trace the evolution and development of American musical theater through five concept periods Using an historical approach, the team will show video clips from the most influential musicals to demonstrate these concepts. #### VA Increases Interest Rate On Home Loans

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) raised its maximum home loan interest rate from 9.5 percent to 10 percent, on Friday, February 23.

The higher rate is a response to current demands of the financial markets for higher yields on long-term investments. The VA reaction will continue to permit funds to be available to veterans.

The last change in the VA interest rate occurred July 17, 1989, when it went down from 10 percent to 9.5 percent.

Also effective February 23, the VA increased by one-half percentage point the maximum rates by Graduated Payment Mortgages to 10.25 percent, home improvement loans to 11.5 percent, manufactured home loans to 12.5 percent, manufactured home lot-only loans to 12 percent, and manufactured home and lot loans to 12 percent.

In the federal fiscal year that ended October 1, 1989, the VA guaranteed more than 188,000 home loans amounting to a total of $14.4 billion.

Legion One Of Three Sponsors Of Student Loans

A national non-profit organization, a major bank, and one of country's leading processors and guarantors of education loans are teaming up to offer a unique way to assist ing with decisions on how to finance their education.

The American Legion has joined INB National Bank and United Student Aid Funds, Inc., to launch The American Legion/Option 4 Loan Program, a $5 million education loan fund to provide supplemental financial assistance for higher education.

The new loan fund becomes a completely new financial resource that is in addition to the variety of financial assistance sources listed in "Need A Lift." a publication of The American Legion Education Assistance Program. The booklet, now in its 40th printing, provides a "one-stop shop" of detailed information on colleges and universities across the country. The date includes lists of scholarships, grants and benefits from government, organizations and private sources, career development information and an application for a computer assisted electronic scholarship search. National College Services, Ltd., in cooperation with the Legion, provides the computer search for a minimal cost of $13 including postage and handling.

Education loans under The American Legion/Option Four Loan Program are available to students enrolled or accepted at traditional four-year education institutions and junior colleges.

A qualified applicant may borrow from $2,000 to $10,000 per academic year for a maximum of five years. The American Legion/Option Four loan Program is basically a commercial signature loan. The amount which may be borrowed depends on the applicant's credit worthiness and the financial need, which is the cost of education minus any financial aid previously awarded.

The advantage of The American Legion/Option Four Loan program is that borrowers may take up to 15 years to repay and may choose between two repayment plans - a standard repayment plan or a deferred principal repayment plan. Generally, repayments begins within 45 days of disbursement. With the latter plan, borrowers may defer principal payments and make interest-only payments while the students are in school. American Legion/Option Four Loans are variable interest rate loans, and the rate may not exceed 18 percent.

INB National Bank, of Indianapolis, has established a $5

GCC STUDENTS MAKE "NAPIER'S BONES" — In addition to learning the information usually communicated in the classroom setting, students in Dr. Nancy Priselec's Algebra II class at Garrett Community College learn critical thinking and problem solving skills. As a project for this class, students individually researched the life of mathematician John Napier to determine that one of his

history of mathematics. Each student then built a project and demonstrated manipulation of the

Bachelor Auction Raises $1,000 For Heart Assoc.

Over $1,000 was recently raised at the Wisp Resort Hotel's first annual "Valentine Bachelor Auction" fundraiser which was held to benefit the American Heart Association, Western Maryland Division.

According to Cindy Blochies, chairperson of the auction, the event was a huge success.

"Since this was the first time for the event, we did not know what to expect," said Blochies. "But luckily, it turned out great. The success was primarily due to the wonderful job the bachelors did and their extraordinary date packages."

Participating bachelors included David Griffith, Scott Lohr, Mark Myers, Scott Ditto, Bill Myers. Chip Fredrick. Dean Lytle, Brooks Hamilton, Dale Sarver, Dean Marsico, Paul Warnick, Jimmy Flanigan, Clete Landefeld, Alan Zais, Doug Lyons, Matt Scheffel, and Bjorn Shogren.

"We're very proud of the contributions of the bidders in the audience and the bachelors," said Karen Giffin, development specialist for the American Heart Association. "Also to be commended are Cindy Blochies, Janet Atkinson and the employees of the Wisp Resort Hotel who made the event fun and worthwhile.'

Giffin added that the event "ran very smoothly" because of the entertainment of Jack Jones, who served as the com-

March Of Dimes Council Convenes

The Community Council of the Allegany/Garrett Division of the March of Dimes met recently at the Office in Cumberland. Members present were: Debbie Boord, Pat Natale, Eugene Davis, Willard Kitzmiller, R. Margaret Hamilton, Jim Kreiling, J.R. Robey and Dr. Leroy Kohler, with staff member, Trish Morgan.

Thirteen schools in the Division will be taking part in the Reading Champions program. Trophies, plaques and medals will be given to schools and individuals under specific criteria.

The Council's Special Ambassador, April Horner, 10, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Horner, were introduced.

The goal for the Mothers March was surpassed with 200 plus kits still to be returned. The coin canister program was also successful.

A TeamWalk Breakfast was held at the Holiday Inn, Cumberland, for those businesses interested in having teams for the WalkAmerica event to be held April 28 along the C&O Canal

Plans for the Celebrity Serve, under Dianne Failinger's direction, are underway. It will be held at Gunter Hall in Frostburg on Saturday, May 12.

Area Agency On Aging Announces Raffle Winners

The Garrett County Area Agency on Aging announced the five winners of the "Dinner for Two" raffle recently sponsored by the Agency to raise funds for the Senior "Eating Together" Nutrition Program. The drawing was held March 12.

Area Agency on Aging's Senior Nutrition Program provides meals to seniors at sites located throughout the county and the winners hailed from almost as many locations. Huey Nelson, a resident of Bayard, W.Va., was the winner of two dinners at Stray Cat Cafe in McHenry. Fannie Green, Swanton, was the winner of two dinners at Deer Park Inn, Deer Park. Will O' the Wisp, Four Seasons, will be providing two dinners for Mike Frazee, Friendsville. Charles Hullett, Grantsville, will be dining at Red Run Inn, Deep Creek Lake, and Charles Pattison, Bloomington, won "dinner for two" at Silver Inn, Deep Creek Lake.

Glen Alexander, a senior participant at Flowery Vale Senior Center, was awarded $25 for having the highest raffle ticket sales after selling 100 tickets.

The Area Agency on Aging noted its appreciation to Deer Park Inn, Four Seasons, Will O' the Wisp, Red Run Inn, Silver Tree, and Stray Cat Cafe for their donating the dinner certificates. "Without the assistance of area businesses, fewer senior citizens would benefit from AAA nutrition services," stated an Agency spokesman.

A total of $1,065 was raised from the raffle, which will enable the Agency to provide an additional 857 meals for senior citizens of Garrett County.

NHS "Contractors" Construct House

by Candy Strawser, tudent, N.H.S.

It all started in the 1982-83 school year when the carpentry and residential wiring classes of Northern High School decided to build houses and sell them to the public.

This year they are building a house that is 24 by 50 feet. They started construction around the 31st of August, 1989, and expect to finish by April 1, 1990.

The house has three bedrooms, a kitchen, living room, dining area with ceiling fan, a laundry room and two bathrooms: one in the master bedroom and one off the halfway. This house also has a lot of closets which are wired so that when the doors are opened the light comes on automatically. an intercom system, and an attic over the entire house, as well as quality carpeting. This year's house is 10' longer than last year's and is 240 square feet larger in area. It has a foyer, more closet space, and two bathrooms, compared

There will be a 30" range in the kitchen, but no other appliances are included. Laundry hook-ups are provided.

The walls are insulated with fiberglass, R-mx 1" thick on the inside. The R-value of the ceiling is 31.45, the walls, 23.93, and the doors, 10.80. The windows are thermo-pane and the house is heated with baseboard electric heat

The carpentry and residential wiring classes are expecting to get bids of around $30,000 for this year's house

If you would like to see this home, you may come to the school during regular school hours. The home can be set on almost any kind of foundation. The teachers assisting the students are Jeff Montgomery, carpentry, and Tony Talerico, residential wiring

If you are looking for good builders, or would like to make a bid on this year's house, you may contact Jeff Montgomery at Northern High School between 8:30 a.m. and 3:15 p.m. Monday through Friday

Rev. Ken-Greene To Be Speaker At St. Paul's

Rev. Isaac Ken-Greene from Sierra Leone, West Africa, will be the missioner for the New World Mission to be held at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Oakland, Sunday, March 25, through Thursday, March 29

Rev. Ken-Greene is an assowhich has a membership of University of Sierra Leone, and a 13-year-old daughter, Irina, in her first form of secondar,

Sierra Leone is a small country on the west coast of Africa. Its name is derived from the rugged mountains known as "mountains of the lions," so named, some say, because the sound of thunder rolling through the mountains during the many storms is like the roar of the mighty lion whose shape the mountain range resembles

It was founded in 1787 by English philanthropists as a settlement for escaped and freed Negro slaves. The coastal area became a British crown colony in 1808 and the interior was proclaimed a protectorate in 1896. In 1961 the colony and protectorate merged and Sierra Leone became the third British colony in West Africa to become independent. The country is more than twice the size of Maryland, with comparably the same amount of people, and slightly smaller than the state of South Carolina. Freetown, the capital, has what is said to be one of the finest natural harbors in Africa. The per capita income is $250 as compared to the per capita income of Maryland which is $19,847 (1988). Its economy is basically agricultural with rice the main crop. It is the world's fifth largest producer of industrial diamonds and the sixth largest producer of gem

The present government is a republic with the president elected to a five-year term by the House of Representatives. The language is English. Most Sierra Leoneans follow animistic beliefs, although there are also many Muslims. Christians comprise about 10 percent of the population. The West Africa Central Conference of the United Methodist Church has 61,000 members in the country.

Rev. Ken-Greene, among other foreign missioners, is being brought to this country by the General Board of Discipleship of the United Methodist Church and will be sponsored in this area by the Southern Garrett Parish, comprised of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, where most services will be held, Swanton/Kitzmiller, Bethel, Crellin and Gormania. The first service of this event will be on Sunday morning at 10:45 at St. Paul's. Details on other events will be publicized next week. The public is invited to attend any and all of these sessions. A nursery will be provided for younger children.

Ski For Heart Realizes $1,500 For Association

The American Heart Association, Western Maryland Division, realized over $1,500 in income from the 130 skiers who participated in the "Fifth Annual Ski for Heart" event at the Wisp Resort, McHenry.

The event, co-sponsored by the Wisp Resort and Rudy's Ski Shop, is held annually to educate individuals on the cardiovascular benefits of skiing and to help fund AHA's research, education and community programs.

"We're proud of the contributions of the skiers and their sponsors, and the hard work of the members of the Ski for Heart Committee," said Karen Giffin, development specialist for the American Heart Association. "We would especially like to thank program directors for the Wisp, Don Thorn and Larry Smith, who helped the event run smoothly that day. Also, we would like to express our gratitude to the Allegany Ski Club that kicked the event off with a $100 contribution."

Gaylord Brooks, Ski for Heart committee member and event participant, was the top money raiser with $350. He won the grand prize, a Wisp Resort season ski pass for the next winter. Giffin asked, "We'll soon be gearing up for next year's Ski for Heart, and we welcome individuals to join the event's planning committee."

Giffin noted that the American Heart Association

Chesapeake Bay

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced that more than 8,000 volunteers have participated in the state's Chesapeake Cleanup Campaign since its inception in 1988. This campaign, which matches groups and organizations with statewide Chesapeake Bay cleanup projects, has released it first Report To The Community

"We cannot thank these volunteers enough," Governor Schaefer said. "While the state spends more than $100 million a year to clean up the Chesapeake Bay, money alone would not accomplish this enormous task. Every citizen in Maryland should follow the example of these special individuals and get involved."

The Chesapeake Cleanup Campaign Report To The Community highlights projects in 23 counties and Baltimore City, involving more than 500 civic organizations and 8,445 volunteers. These projects, organized by the 24 local Chesapeake Cleanup coordinators, include tree plantings, stream cleanups, water quality monitoring, habitat enhancement, and trash

4-H groups, Girl and Boy Scouts, churches, schools, community associations, Isaak Walton League, Jaycees, and many other organizations have dedicated their time and energy to help the bay. The report salutes dedicated volunteers and provides details on each type of cleanup project. For a copy of the Report To The Community, persons may call (301) 225-4550. This report also includes the names and phone numbers of local coordinators in each community.

Low-Interest Energy Loan Funds Available

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced that the Department of Housing and Community Development has $3.2 million available in lowinterest loans through the Community Energy Loan Program (CELP)

"The CELP program is one of the most creative financial packages designed to help those institutions that have the greatest need to conserve energy," the governor said.

"The program will enable institutions and local iurisdictions to direct more of its limited income to programs serving people rather than to energy costs," he added.

CELP was established in 1989 by the General Assembly and schools, hospitals, local governments and non-profit groups. CELP projects will enable these organizations to become more energy efficient through physical improvements to their facilities. The program is funded with federal Petroleum Violation Escrow Funds and administered by the Community Assistance Administration through the Maryland Energy Office.

The funds must be used for energy efficiency improvements. These improvements must save energy and be performed on a building owned by the applicant. The project building must include heating and/or cooling systems. The improvement project must have a payback period of not more than seven years.

A maximum loan of $100,000 will be available and repayable in semi-annual installments beginning with the second year of the loan.

A particular feature of these loans concerns schools and hospitals. Each year, 25 percent of available funds will be reserved for use by eligible schools and hospitals.

For an application or more information regarding the program, persons may contact: P.J. Townsend, Program Manager, Maryland Energy Office, Community Assistance Administration, 45 Calvert Street, Annapolis, MD 21401; telephone (301) 974-2190.

Progress Report

On Bay Clean-Up

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced the next actions Maryland will take to restore the Chesapeake Bay. These next steps will accelerate the bay cleanup effort and accomplish many of the goals set forth in the 1987 Chesapeake Bay Agreement. Maryland's new Chesapeake Bay initiatives focus on boater discharge, pesticide use, enforcement activities, highway construction, and partnerships with the private sector. "These initiatives are very important. While we have made great strides this year cleaning up the bay, it is critical that we move immediately on them, especially because there is so much more to do," Governor Schaefer said.

The five goals of Maryland's bay initiatives are: ·Eliminate boater discharge

.Help the farmer and consumer determine which pesticides pose the least environmental risk

 Step up water quality enforcement •Reduce runoff from highway

.Work with the Maryland Chamber of Commerce to reduce urban non-point source pollution. To accomplish these goals, Governor Schaefer has set forth an action plan outlining the steps to be taken for each initiative. In brief, they are: •Boat Discharge - Increase number of pumpout stations; eliminate fees at state facilities; launch second pumpout boat; and initiate "Pump, Don't Dump" public education campaign. ·Pesticides Use - Form pesticides council; issue pesticides usage report; train and certify applicators; and expand integrated pesticide management program

•Enforcement Activities -Increase compliance of major sewage treatment plants and industries; step up enforcement and reporting; begin preventive monitoring; and recognize good

·Highway Construction -Initiate new "Incentive and Disincentive" program in highway contracts: enhance stream protection program to include pretesting, monitoring, and clean up; and increase sediment patrol

·Partnership with Maryland Chamber of Commerce -Experts to focus on paved surfaces like parking lots, malls and roof tops; develop innovative, cost-efficient pollution reduction techniques; and conduct pilot program

•Partnership with Industry -Executive fellow program with Maryland Department of the Environment. ·Partnership with One Million Marylanders - Citizen action with the Chesapeake Cleanup Campaign and Earth Day activities

Governor Schaefer has alerted Environmental Protection Agency Administrator William K. Reilly, chairman of the Chesapeake Bay Executive Council of Marvland's next steps to restore the Bay. Maryland's bay initiatives meet the goals Administrator Reilly recommended be accomplished in 1990. In addition, Governor Schaefer met recently with various environmental leaders to discuss these Bay initiatives.

REAL ESTATE

BY ROBERT HUEBNER DEEP CREEK REALTY

END POCKETBOOK PAIN!

How important do you think it is to price your home correctly once you've decided to sell? Are you aware that overpricing can be painful to your pocketbook? Sure, it's simple an overpriced home rarely sells.

Here are some of the best reasons for heeding the advice of a real estate professional regarding price. First, overpricing a home discourages buyers from even making an offer. They feel that, even if the offer is accepted, they haven't gained anything more than a fair price.

Overpricing also attracts the wrong prospects. If you've priced your $169,000 home at $200,000, you'll be attracting buyers who expect to see $200,000 worth of home. When they don't, they'll be disappointed. And you'll lose your desired advertising response too, since the $169,000 buyers won't even call. Another casualty of overpricing will be other real estate agents. Keep in mind that they know and understand pricing because of daily contact with sellers. Once they realize your home is overpriced, it may not be shown as much. And, furthermore, it

sell the competition (others houses like yours that are priced fairly). Finally, if a buyer is located, the lender may reject the

Harveys To Celebrate 40th Event

Randall and Josephine Harvey, Deer Park, will observe their 40th wedding anniversary on March 25, with an open house reception at Lakeside Assembly of God Church, along U.S. Route 219, from two to five p.m. The open house is being hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Harvey.

The couple was married on March 25, 1950, at the Evangelical United Brethren Chdurch in Fairmont, W.Va., by the Rev. Robert Evans.

Randall is the son of the late Hobart and Rosa (Glotfelty) Harvey. Josephine is the daughter of the late Howard and Bertha (Kitzmiller) Pigott.

The couple owns and operates a dairy farm on the Sand Flat Road. They are the parents of one son, Randall Ernest (Randy), who also resides in Deer Park and farms with his father. They also have two grandsons and one granddaughter.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend. The family requests that gifts be omitted.

ST. JOHN'S WOMEN MEET St. John's Women of the ELCA met February 15 at the church with six members present. Nickey O'Brien lead the program, "Gifted with Friendship." By examining the relationships between Ruth and Naomi, Elizabeth and Mary, and Mary and Mary Magdalene, a Biblical basis for friendships between women was established.

Carol Peck opened the busi-ness meeting. The first project of the year will be to support the Lutheran Home in Kane, Pa. A list of needed items will be distributed to members as well as being posted on the church's bulletin board. The next meering will be

March 15, with Olive Groves W.Va. leading the program. ZION'S WOMEN MEET

Zion's Women of the ELCA met in the church on March 6. with Pastor Louise Knotts and three members.

Leota Baker lead a Bible study on the book of Ruth covering the theme, "Companions in need, Compassion indeed and Bread for the Journey." Beginning with a glance of homelife in Israel during the period of the Judges, the study traced the life of Ruth and her loyalty and unselfishness and her place in the lineage of David. Pastor Knotts lead the group in singing. Judy Stanton presided over the business meeting. The Spring Assembly of the Monongahela Valley Mountain Cluster will be held on April 21 at St. John's Lutheran Church. Red House. Other correspondence included the synodical unit newsletter, "Lutheran Lines," and a letter from the synodical unit concerning "Fair Share" travel expenses to the Synodical assembly in August. The project list for the Lutheran Home in Kane, Pa., was discussed and the suggestion was offered that the project be opened to the congregation for donations for articles needed by the home. Sixteen lap robes and 18 chair pads have been made by several members of the group and will be sent to the Good Samaritan Home in Franklin,

Angie Maust Is GCC Student

Angie Maust, a resident of Accident, has been named Student of the Week at Garrett Community college.

Ms. Maust first became a student at GCC in the fall of 1986 when her mother convinced her to take a class with her. "I thoroughly enjoyed it," she said, "and have been taking classes ever since, with my mother and my sister, Jencene.'

Painting was one of the first classes she took and she has been doing oil paintings, particularly of people, since then. She also enjoys writing and is currently taking a creative writing course. She plans to become a counseling psychologist when she completes her education.

Last spring, Angie, her mother, and sister were among the 37 charter members inducted into the GCC chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honorary society, making it "a family affair."

In addition to taking classes, painting, and writing, Ms. Maust works part-time at the Goodwill Mennoite Home as a cook and is active in the Cherry Glade Mennonite Church young

Goldstein Seeks

Many Owners Of Unclaimed Funds

It just might be the largest lost and found list in the history of Maryland according to State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein. 'We're advertising the names of 24,054 Marylanders who lost track of their money or valuables. The ads will appear in newspapers across the state in the next two weeks," he said.

Ads carrying 33 of those names due property worth $7,497.07 appear in The Republican today and will also run in the March 22 issue.

names we ever advertised to reach apparent owners of unclaimed funds. The individuals whose names we are advertising are due unclaimed funds worth about $18.5 million from banks or other businesses," Goldstein said. "These names were reported to us in the past year."

Financial institutions, insurance companies and corporations are required to report bank accounts, contents of safe deposit boxes, wages, insurance benefits, stock dividends and other funds to the State Comptroller's Office if they remain unclaimed for five years or more. "We advertise the names of the apparent rightful owners in the county of their last known address," Goldstein

"However, Maryland's law is custodial, meaning that there is no time limit under which the property or its monetary equivalent may be claimed," he

The unclaimed property doesn't include real estate or boats or cars. Banks accounts and contents of safe deposit boxes make up most of the unclaimed funds in the current ad.

"The contents of safe deposit boxes listed in the current ads include everything from a baby diaper and gold bracelets to old silver dollars and coin collections," Goldstein said, adding, "If you see your name in the current list, follow the instructions that appear at the top of the ad to learn how to claim your funds."

Friendsville Man Critically Burned By Power Lines

A Friendsville resident remains in "critical" condition this morning at West Penn Hospital Burn Center in Pittsburgh after sustaining severe burns to an estimated 46 percent of his body in an accident that occurred last Thursday.

Raymond L. Devine, owner of Raymond Devine Construction Company, Bear Creek Road, was working on a roof in Markleysburg, Pa., when he came in contact with high voltage power lines overhead at about 5 p.m. He was flown to West Penn by a HealthNet helicopter and admitted to the burn center intensive care unit.

Although hospital officials still have Devine listed in "critical" condition as of this morning, his wife, Tina, stated that he is "stable and recover-

Glendale Road when she lost control of the vehicle on the snow-covered roadway. Her Pontiac 6000 spun around 360 degrees, crossed the center of the road, continuing off the road, eventually striking a fence, then coming to rest after striking a tree.

Fousek was treated and released at the hospital.

No charges were filed by investigating officer Tfc. J.K. Moore, following the 9:30 a.m.

JUST OUT FOR A SPIN on a horse-drawn skid is this unidentified local farmer and his young farm hand. The pair were spotted hauling brush on the skid earlier, but it was believed that exercise and training for the work horses were the owner's major concerns. The fine summer-like weather for such activities enjoyed last week was rudely interrupted Monday with a blast of snow and sub-freezing temperatures. Although it was predicted the storm might dump as much as six inches on the Mountaintop, only about two were received. Today's temperatures are expected to be near 60; however, the five-day forecast is calling for colder conditions and snow once again on Sunday and Monday. Photo by Craig Phillips.

GCC Board Of Trustees Meets To Discuss Recycling, Adventure Sports

RECYCLING

Garrett Community College feels that as an education facility it should be in the forefront of the recycling efforts going on across the United States. Therefore, GCC staff has looked into various ideas and solutions to recycling waste generated by the college.

Aluminum cans are a significant part of waste being generated by the college. However, the cans are already being recycled by staff members, almost on a daily basis, eliminating the need to find a place for storage. Cardboard and computer paper are two items which the college will now begin to recycle. The college looked into recycling glass bottles, but so few are produced that it is not feasible to consider. Cardboard will be stored on pallets somewhere at the college and waste computer paper will be stored in boxes in the office where the waste is generated. As a box becomes full, they will be collected and stored with the cardboard or taken directly to the recycling

"We should be the leaders in recycling and in educating people about recycling," said Dr. Stephen Herman, president of GCC. "If we don't do something, we might run ourselves out of the globe.'

An estimated 106 citizens turned out for a public hearing Oakland Mayor and Town Council to hear concerns and answer questions regarding the capital cost billing for the Oakland Wastewater Treatment and Collector Facilities.

As a result of the public hearing, the decision was made to extend the due date for all bills for the Oakland Sewer Authority initial capital cost billing to April 19. The original due date was April 9.

Oakland was placed under consent order in 1984 to construct a sewer system for the town. Construction began on the sewer system in 1987 and due to delays and unforeseen problems, the local share of the cost of constructing a sewer had climbed from $1,100,000 to $2,809,614

Eight Persons Indicted By Grand Jury

The March term of the Garrett County Grand Jury convened March 12 and 13, indicting eight persons on various charges.

Gary Leon Durst, 37. Accident, was indicted on five counts including second degree sexual offense, third degree sexual offense, fourth degree sexual offense, child abuse, and liability assault and battery.

Durst was arrested by the Garrett County Sheriff's Department and arraigned before the court March 14. Chief Judge Fred A. Thayer set Durst's bail at $10,000 at that time. A condition of the bail is that Durst have no contact with the alleged victim.

various incidents that allegedly occurred from June to November 1989 involving a female child.

In an unrelated case, two separate indictments were returned against Shirley Ann Jarusek, 25, McHenry, both involving drug-related charges.

Jarusek was indicted on charges of distribution of cocaine, possession of cocaine, distribution of marijuana and possession of marijuana. She was arrested on a warrant and arraigned before the court on March 14. Thaver set bail at $10,000 and ordered that the bail be continued from District Court. Jarusek was later released from police custody.

Selective Enthusiasm . . .

As anyone who follows our letters to the editor column knows, there has been considerable response to two letters of criticism of some Northern High School coaches, particularly the boys' varsity basketball coach, Dave Bender. We have received numerous letters in support of Coach Bender - long letters, from readers as far away as Flintstone and Frostburg, Ohio and Alabama, and, yes, even France! We haven't received so many letters about one issue since the crisis involving the local youth football league last fall; which brings us to the point of this column today.

First of all, we want to emphasize how pleased we are that so many people did respond to both of the above-mentioned situations. In particular, we were thrilled to see such support and credit for Coach Bender, which we believe he deserves. It was obvious that the writers of the letters spent considerable time composing their thoughts, for the majority of the letters made good points and were extremely well-written.

Secondly, with our closing point today we do not want to give the impression that we do not think that such issues as these are not important or are unworthy of receiving such attention. Indeed, it is great that so many people are concerned about the welfare of our young people in relation to sports and athletics.

The point we wish to make, we present in the form of a question: where is all of that same response, that same enthusiasm, that same research, that same involvement, that same voicing of opinion concerning many other major problems of society today? Drug abuse, AIDS, poverty, environmental issues, illiteracy, political corruption, crime, teen pregnancy, education,...the list goes on.

Perhaps if one could somehow attach a football or a basketball to each of the nation's ills, there would be an outpouring of concern and progress like we have never seen.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: I was quite angry and dismayed by the letters regarding the Northern basketball team in recent issues of your paper, however, now I see it as a too evident problem in contemporary American society: selfishness and needless gossip whispered without a thought to talents and their consequent the consequences on the com- integration and contribution to munity, the school, and most importantly on the young people who will now have to support a false stigma of being "losers," as if they had all been branded with an "L" on their forehead for having committed the crime of growing up. First of all, even though I am now far from the hills of Deep Creek Lake, I don't believe I've ever heard of a Stan Wallace in the seventeen years I've lived there, so I find myself wondering why he concerns himself with the smallest of secondary school basketball levels in the country. In any event, I love Garrett County. It's nice to find some sanity and people who simile when they say hello after a year in Washington. It's nice. it's pleasant, and if all Mr. Wallace can do is find nasty pettiness there, I recommend to him to go home. But that is not what upset me; one comes to expect certain behavior. What did upset me was a problem that, having known and fought it as a player and team captain, does more to disconcert a good team's harmony, to confuse growing young people, and even to ruin certain player's futures at a university more than anything else: parent intervention and influence in a domain where they are ignorant and devoid of skill, such as the basketball

To the Editor: For some time the Garrett Property Owners Association has been concerned about misuse of public (State) land by kayakers and rafters in the Sang Run area. A field, once productive farmland and the location of Indian Burials, is used as a staging area for Youghiogheny whitewater boating. Being in a wet low level floodplane area it often becomes a muddy quagmire from vehicular traffic. In addition, without sanitary facilities and no control over its use for camping and other un munity blight. To prevent misuse of the land, the Natural Lands Trust, Inc. of Philadelphia, former owners of the property, prepared a plan, complete, with professional drawings and specifications, to provide proper parking, sanitary, and other facilities for the boaters. Before the Trust plan was approved it sold the property to the State of Maryland.

activities, it has become a com-

Since the State has not taken any action to correct misuse of the land before and since acquiring ownership, the Garrett Property Owners Association submitted an updated version of the Trust plan to DNR for approval. The DNR reply ignored the request for approval. It stated it was working on a "strategy" for the area. It is requested the following letter in response to the DNR non-approval be printed in your next issue of The Republican.

Michael J. Nelson Assistant Secretary, DNR Dear Secretary Nelson:

Your reply of March 7, 1990. to our proposal application was most disappointing to say the least. Your reply indicates you either did not read, review, or understand our proposal even though we spent considerable time, effort, and money to be sure it was thoroughly prepared and complied with every requirement of Maryland law and regulation. As required, we would like to know why our proposal application was not brought before the Youghiogheny Local Advistory Board for their review and recommen-

First of all, our proposal was to prevent further desecration of public property which you have allowed to occur over the years in violation of the Maryland Scenic and Wild Rivers Act and implementing regulations While kayakers and rafters would benefit from properly prepared parking areas and sanitary facilities, our primary concern was the misuse of public property and the elimination of a community blight. It is difficult to understand how you can so strictly enforce compliance with regulations by private landowners and then shut your eyes to your own violations. To refresh your memory, COMAR 08-1514 specifically states your Department's regulations apply to public lands located in the Youghiogheny Scenic Corridor.

Second, our proposal was not whimsically prepared. It has been five years in the making. It was first started by the National Lands Trust, Inc. of Philadelphia, when they purchased the property in 1985. Appropriate professional engineering services were employed in its preparation to assure adherence to proper land management principles to include archeological excavations in the area prescribed for parking. After they failed in getting your cooperation on the proposal, the property was sold to the State. Now, for the reasons stated above, our organization is pursuing the proposal. When you mention the development of a "strategy" for protecting the archeological site, it is evident you do not realize you are respon abuse now being committed to an Indian burial ground. The protection of this Indian burial ground was a prime consideration in our proposal.

Since the responsibility for the Youghiogheny Scenic Corridor was assigned to your Department, you have had thirteen years to develop your "strategy." You have also had thirteen years to prepare the corridor management plan and identification of the scenic corridor boundaries as required by the Scenic and Wild Rivers Act. Neither has been accomplished. Should not your 'strategy" be one of action?

Isn't it time for action? With all due respect for your high position in our State government, we must mention the property in question belongs to the people and you in your high position are to serve the best interests of the people and not the other way around. It appears you may be beset with the bureaucratic malady of self interest perpetuation of assigned tasks into perpetuity, never to be completed.

Your reply ends with the statement, "If your organization would like to provide assistance contact . . . " We ask what more can we possibly do? In compliance with your regulations we have sent you a proposal and plan complete with professionally prepared drawings and specifications which were approved by our county officials and the soil conservation district, all of which you chose to ignore.

We also recycle paper in a creative fashion. Our paper trash (that would normally end up in the land-fill) is shredded and bagged, and a local dairy farmer uses it for bedding in his milking barns. Using shredded paper for dairy herd bedding is a nationwide trend according to local farmers. Most offices and businesses throw away thousands of pounds of paper each year that could be reused in this innovative way.

If you have a small recycling effort going, make a resolution to expand it. If your office has no recycling going, make a resolution to begin now. All it takes is a little effort.

Recycling makes "eents".

The task at hand is to write this weekly column. It is Tuesday evening and I usually start gathering thoughts for this effort sometime over the weekend.

However, this weekend found me with no thoughts - at least none which seemed appropriate for this column.

Then I thought, "Maybe I could ask Pam to switch weeks with me." (No. I've done that before.) Or, "Maybe Don would let me sit this one out." (Most likely he would, but it would probably be nobler not to ask.)

So, if you're into stream of consciousness, you might find this worthy of a glance or two

It's one of those times, you see, when I find myself virtually without direction. Uncentered. Unbalanced. On shaky ground. Dizzy. As John Sebastion used to sing, "Did you ever have to make up your mind?'

It's not that I have an unusually high number of decisions to make this week. It's that I'm having an unusually difficult time making decisions about even the simplest things.

Example: This weekend, my parents called and invited me to go along with them to my brother's house to watch home videos. My response went something like this, "Uh, well, I dunno. Uh. When are you leaving? How long will you be staying. Uh, well. O.K.

"No. On second thought, I've got a lot to do. No. Thanks, anyway. I think I'll just stay home.

Five minutes later, I called them back and said I'd go. Maybe it's the unseasonal weather.

Maybe it's the full moon. Uh, well, I dunno, maybe it's neither.

"No, but I can."

Or maybe it has something to do with it taking forty years to figure out "me" and suddenly realizing I had forty years to make up for in figuring out the rest of the world. Not that I haven't been trying to do both all that time. See what I mean? Nothing definitive happening here, folks. Can you say schizophrenic, Sherry?

This incredible sense of calm keeps gnawing away at me! Equally powerful forces are calling me to either solve all the problems of the world, be they local, state, national or international, or to run swiftly to my isolated country home never to be seen or heard from again. Am I a worthwhile individual? Do I really have something to say? Am I too preachy? Do my thoughts provoke or am I stating the obvious? Too soft? Too hard? Of course, in the end, as always, I will discover that I'm this sometimes and it's alright, and I'm that sometimes and that's

But for right now, I'm in an either/or, all/nothing, black/white state of mind.

Ah! I get it! I'm a human being! (With hormonal imbalances.)

the State Mental Health and Mental Hygiene Department you say! Oh, Good Grief, spare me that please!

Why is it like "Hitler's Nazi Camp" to try to get an appointment on Tuesday with the Commissioners, the one day in the week they are supposed to be available all day to the taxpayers? Maybe it ought to be rembered by all, that the majority of taxpayers are not in the development of millions of dollars in Real Estate or we don't own the coal mines, but that we are people and we have people problems which are not being addressed by the present commissioners. I was amazed to read of the uproar over the sports issue at Northern. If it had been an 'intellectual pursuit issue" I could understand it!

I have an issue of Garrett County Social Services Adoption Procedures! How, with all the people wanting to adopt children into a wholesome home atmosphere, could we allow adoption in an incredibly immoral, on-going dysfunctional situation, which has produced endless heartaches and costs to Garrett County taxpayers. When will the taxpayers, the State of Maryland and all the elected officials realize we have some very serious deficiencies in Garrett County which cry for correction?

Since this newspaper has so graciously allowed me to read about the pros and cons of my coaching abilities for the past four weeks, I would finally like to make a few comments of my

First, I vehemently disagree with and would like to readily contest, point by point, most of the criticisms hurled my way by Stan Wallace and his disgruntled friends. I will not, however, belabor the points made by other writers concerning style and strategy of basketball under the variety of conditions that exist in high school athletics. I will concede that fast-paced basketball is more fun to watch, play, and coach, than a deliberate, patterned style of play. However, I firmly believe that if you wish to be competitive, your "style" of offense must be predicated on an ability to play reasonably effective defense. If you can't stop teams defensively, you better make offense a part of your de-

Nothing would please me more than to develop a team that plays great pressure defense, forces turnovers, and distributes shots frequently and among varied players. This is, and has been, a goal of our program and I am disappointed that a few vocal, pen-crazed, indiscriminate "fans" were unable to see the progress we have attempted to make in that direction.

Secondly, despite the fact that personally discouraged supportive letter writers, I profoundly agree with the majority of statements made on behalf of the coaching staff at NHS and believe that the vast majority of players, parents, and sup porters understand the obstacles and difficulties in developing successful, competitive interscholastic athletics in a rural, spread-out community such as Northern Garrett County. However, I must take issue with the unintended suggestion that the student athletes and parents in general of Northern Garrett County are somehow innately inferior to those in other counties. Granted, the inevitable cyclical nature of genetic athletic advantage (size and speed) affect the ability of a small school to be consistently successful more so than larger schools. I do believe we have the talent base to be competitive at NHS year in and year out. I also believe that the quality of life here, the strong moral and ethical values ingrained in the people who live, work, and raise children here, and the willingness of Garrett

A&A Realty Wins Mt. Top Title

A&A Realty, behind a secondhalf display that would rival the best, blew open what was a tight struggle and went on to crush third-seeded Westvaco, 112-86, to win the Mt. Top Basketball League championship. Firstseeded A&A was down at halftime 41-39, only to outscore went on a 25-9 run as their Westvaco 73-45 in the second half to clinch the crown.

The first half was a classic defensive struggle that saw four lead changes and 12 ties. A&A effectively shut off the Westvaco fastbreak by releasing two and sometimes three players back to cover the break. Westvaco, on the other hand, was able to shut down A&A's outside game and make them work inside for their points. Steve Liller's 16 points and Ken Niner's 13 points picked up the

The second half started out just like the first half, as the two teams exchanged the lead three times, Westvaco held to a threepoint lead at the 16-minute mark, but this is when the wheels fell off Westvaco's cart. Over the next six minutes, A&A sticky man-to-man defense repeatedly held Westvaco to only one shot each time up the court.

Westvaco called a time-out at this point; but, it was to no avail as A&A outscored Westvaco 20-7 over the following four minutes to put the game out of reach at 90-64. This added up to a unsurmountable 45-16 run by A&A over a 10-minute span.

"Greg Shockey played a great floor game for us tonight," Steve Liller said after the game. Shockey held Jeff Beavers to 17 points on the night

I am proud of all the coaching staffs at NHS for their commitment to teach these lessons. I am proud of all the student athletes of NHS who have the courage to get in the race. I am proud of the parents who make great sacrifices to give their child the opportunity and encouragement to stay in the race. I am particularly proud of the seniors of this year's basketball team and my assistant coach who made a tremendous commitment to our cause, who believed in our goals, and who, according to my definition of success, are winners! I am convinced that men's basketball and football at NHS fell on "hard times" in the second half of the 80's, not because of a lack of talent or because of a lack of quality coaching, but mostly because these two sports have, more than ever before, required a nearly yearround commitment from relatively large groups of student athletes in order to be competitive. I feel confident in saying that both the basket hall and football staffs at NHS have gone beyond the call of duty in working to provide the facilities and opportunities for the student athletes of NHS to make the necessary commitment to be successful

I personally invite Mr. Wallace and genuinely interested parties to join us in our efforts. To get where we all would like to go, we need more coaches willing to commit time and energy, and we need more parents and players to make a year-round commitment to improve their skills. #### Axle Load Limit Bills Don't Fare Well In Assembly

District 1-A Delegate George C. Edwards announced this week that, although House Bill 317, concerning the enforcement of axle load limits, did not pass, House Bill 318, regarding axle load limit tolerance, is now in the Senate, after having been passed with amendments by the House. Edwards stated, "We thought we had an agreement" on HB 317 but, he said, the Maryland State Police did not support the bill. However, he noted that the Garrett and Allegany County delegations, sponsors of the bill, were still trying to amend the language so that the issue could be included in the state budget. The bill would have allowed "the operator of a vehicle that is in violation of certain axle load limits a certain period of time to bring the vehicle into compliance by shifting the distribution of the load ....

HB 318 would have allowed a 10 percent variance on axle load limits but was also not supported by the Maryland State Police, as well as the Maryland Department of Transportation. Edwards noted that the bill was passed after the variance was amended to five percent. This, he said, "was better than nothing.

In other news from the legislator, three coal tax bills sponsored by the Garrett and Allegany delegations, were passed but, according to Edwards, were meshed into one bill. House Bills 567, 605 and 724 pertained to the reporting of coal taxes by a county to the General Assembly, the payment of interest and penalties on the late payment of coal taxes and a requirement that coal severance taxes and surcharges and any penalty and interest be paid at the same time. Edwards also announced that House Bills 1266 and 1267, sponsored solely by him, had passed

Bear Damage Compensation Bill Killed

District 1-A Delegate George C. Edwards this week reported that a bill he sponsored to compensate farmers for damage to crops by black bears was killed in committee by a 15-9 vote, even after attempts to amend the bill were offered.

House Bill 1396, designed to compensate farmers for crop damage over $200 would have been funded by a proposed 25-cent increase in hunting license fees. Edwards stated that his effort to get the bill passed by offering to amend the increase to 10 cents per license was rejected by the House Environmental Matters Commit-

Also offered, he said, was a three-year sunset clause that would automatically take the law out of existence in three years. This proposed amendment was also rejected.

While Edwards was unable to hear first-hand the reasoning behind the bill's rejection, he explained that he was informed that, not only did some committee members - mostly from urban areas - oppose an increase in licensing fees, but they also feared setting a precedent that might then set off a call for compensation from damage by

Edwards' argument to this concern was that 1) there is currently a hunting season for deer to control the population and an allowance for farmers to crops and 2)that farmers are compensated for deer damage by being allowed to keep the

Edwards noted that the bill provoked some "lively discussion" by the committee.

Abortion Bill Filibuster In Eighth Day

As a compromise on the abortion issue reportedly remains out of reach on the Senate floor, a filibuster has reached its eighth day in the Maryland General Assembly.

The bill in question, advocated by pro-choice proponents, is one that would allow abortion to remain widely available in Maryland with few restrictions until the time in pregnancy when the fetus is able to live outside the womb.

Those restrictions are that parents must be notified, in many cases, before a minor could have an abortion performed and abortion would be allowed in cases where the mother's life or health is at risk even after the time viablity outside the womb. Exceptions would also be made if the fetus shows severe abnormalities.

Abortion opponents have reportedly been talking nonstop since last Thursday in order to block passage of the bill, which requires a two-thirds majority vote. Legislators who oppose the bill have reportedly stated they will continue the filibuster until the bill is either killed or the Senate agrees to a compromise that would allow the question to go to referendum, thus allowing the voters to decide the issue.

Governor Submits $5.8 Million Supplemental Budget For Education

State School Superintendent less than five years. Inmates Joseph L. Shilling said Monday who successfully complete the that Governor William Donald Schaefer will include $5.8 million in a supplemental budget for education programs ranging from preschool for disadvantaged four-year-old children to dropout prevention programs.

The superintendent praised the governor for providing the additional support for "disadvantaged young people who have the greatest need and can benefit the most from extra support." He said most of the programs are designed to prevent the development of more serious problems.

The governor's supplemental budget calls for expanding the following programs:

Extended Elementary Education Program: $3 million. At a budget of $6.6 million for the 1989-90 school year, the program serves 5,000 children in 132 schools in 21 of Maryland's school districts. The additional funds would allow expanding the program to 7,000 children in 181 sites. Research shows the program's long-term benefits in terms of preparing disadvantaged children for success in school.

Maryland's Tomorrow: $1.8 million. This school dropout prevention program, operated by the public schools in conjunction with local business and industry, combines intensive basic skills instruction, mentors serving as positive role models, and work experience to keep young people in school. Students in the program last year were 45 percent less likely to drop out of school than similar students not in the program. The additional funds would expand the program to serve 2,500 additional ninth graders considered at risk of dropping out. Currently, 5,000 students are in the program in

76 schools College Bound Foundation: $500,000. The program, affiliated with the Greater Baltimore Committee, helps students from low-income families in Baltimore City prepare for college through counseling, referral services and reimbursement for fees for college applications and required tests. It also provides limited tuition assistance. Fifty-four students were served dren from troubled families in Prince George's County. The state funds would supplement the program currently funded by the Annie E. Casey Foundation.

School for the Blind: $100,000. The additional funds for this state-aided Baltimore County facility would support salary increases for support staff (house parents, child care aides, and others) to bring their salaries closer to prevailing rates in the area. The school serves 204 mostly multiplehandicapped children and ten spot is the club card. When cards were invented, the club was a murder weapon. In those days there were no revolvers or machine guns. Therefore, the club card stands for murder. The jack represents the lustful libertine who lives on the gains of prostitutes. It represents the moral leper. There is a game of cards called "the brothel game" in which the players use the secret obscene language of the cards and converse with each other by merely dropping a wicked. The queen card represents the Virgin Mary, the mother of our Lord. In the secrets of cards she is called the mother of harlots. The joker in card language represents our Lord Jesus Christ. Joker means fool. As if this is not bad enough yet, the secret language of a deck of cards goes even further and declares that Jesus (the joker) is the offspring

Friendsville

The Mayor and Town Council of Friendsville met Tuesday evening to discuss a new application for construction and an ordinance concerning skateboarding.

CONSTRUCTION

James Torrington, Permits and Inspections Officer for the Garrett County Office of Planning and Zoning, presented a new application for construction to the Mayor and Town Council at Mayor Spencer

Schlosnagle's request. "It's basically a new form for building and zoning application permits," said Mayor Schlosnagle. "Anytime a new establishment is to be built in the town, a person has to fill out building and application permits. This is basically a check-off list, to be taken to the tax assessment and health department offices, and if necessary the sediment per $100. erosion/water department and the roads department. These departments will give their approval before construction normally picked up by trash starts to make sure that all requirements of the state are and the date will be announced.

SKATEBOARDING

Ordinance No. 1990-1, Skateboarding, was read Tuesday evening. The ordinance will forbid skateboarding within the corporate limits of Friendsville and any person caught skateboarding within the limits will be penalized.

"We're doing this for the safety of the kids," explained Mayor Schlosnagle. "We've looked into putting ramps in the community park, but we are unable to obtain insurance. Unfortunately, it is just not feasible, at this time, for the town to do anything."

The second reading of the ordinance will be April 2 and then the ordinance must be published two times in the county

VEGETABLE RICE

1 cup brown rice 1/2 lb. Chinese cabbage (bok choy)

2 tablespoons oil 2 cups chicken broth Dash of soy sauce

Trim off the cabbage's root end, wash stalks thoroughly. Cut stalks crosswise into 1-inch pieces. Heat a heavy saucepan over high heat until hot, add the oil and swirl for 30 seconds. Add the cabbage and stir rapidly to coat with oil, continue about 1 minute, until the green leaves are bright. Then add rice, broth and soy sauce. When water boils, let it bubble for 4-5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Turn heat to lowest possible level, cover tightly, and let the rice steam in this manner for approximately 35-40 minutes. Serves 4 to 6. Extra soy sauce may be added after cooking to taste.

RICE PILAF

1/4 teaspoon lemon juice

3 tablespoons tomato paste 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

½ cup orange juice 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind serving. Makes about 4 cups.

Dash of salt and pepper (to taste)

2 cups chicken bouillon or broth 1 cup brown rice (uncooked) Mix all ingredients, bring to boil, stir. Cover pot and simmer until nearly cooked (30 minutes). Let covered pot stand (off heat) for 10-15 minutes before

PUMPKIN BREAD

3/3 cup brown sugar

1/4 cup margarine 2 eggs

1 cup cooked pumpkin 1/4 cup skim milk

2 cups whole wheat flour

2 teaspoons baking powder

3/4 teaspoon ginger

1/4 teaspoon baking soda

1/4 teaspoon ground cloves 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Cream brown sugar and margarine. Add eggs, then pumpkin and milk, beat well. Sift dry ingredients together and stir in. Beat 1 minute with electric mixer. Turn into greased 5"x9" loaf pan. Bake at 350° for 55-60 minutes. Makes 1 loaf.

KIDNEY BEAN AND RICE CASSEROLE

3/4 cup chopped onion

½ cup celery

2 cloves garlic 1 tablespoon margarine

11/2 cups cooked kidney beans (1/2 cup dry or 16 oz.

2 cups cooked brown rice

2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley (11/2 teaspoons dried) 1/8 teaspoon pepper

Cook onion, celery and garlic in fat until tender. Remove garlic. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer together for about 5 minutes to blend flavors. Makes 4-6 servings (about 4½ cups).

BANANA BRAN MUFFINS

14 cups whole wheat flour 1/4 cup sugar

3 teaspoons baking powder

11/2 cups whole bran cereal or bran 3/4 cup skim milk

1 cup mashed ripe banana (2 medium-size)

1 egg

4 cup oil Preheat oven to hot (400°). Grease 12 muffin-pan cups or use paper muffin cups to avoid more fat. Sift flour, sugar and baking powder into a bowl, stir in any particles of bran remaining in sifter. Combine bran, milk and banana in a medium-size bowl, let stand a few minutes for bran to soften. Beat in egg and oil. Stir in flour mixture just until flour is moistened. Divide mixture among prepared muffin cups. Bake for 25 minutes or until muffins are golden brown. Remove from pan to wire rack, cool slightly. Makes 12 muffins.

LENTIL LOAF

1 cup cooked lentils (or beans)

1/2-3/4 cup chopped celery

1 13-ounce can evaporated skim milk

34 cup wheat bran 34 cup cornflakes or bread crumbs

1 medium onion, chopped

1/2-3/4 teaspoon sage (dried)

3 tablespoons oil

Preheat oven to 350°F. Mix all ingredients together thoroughly. Place in an oiled 9"x5"x3" loaf pan and bake for 45 minutes. Lentil loaf is so moist that it needs no gravy or sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

HEARTY LENTIL SOUP

11/2 cups lentils 2 cups chicken or beef bouillon

4 cups water

1 cup chopped onion 1 cup diced celery

1 cup sliced carrots ½ cup chopped cabbage (optional)

1 cup grated potato

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg 1/2-3/4 teaspoon thyme

Salt and pepper to taste Wash and drain lentils. In 4-quart pan, bring water to boil. Add all ingredients, except salt and pepper. Cover and simmer slowly about 45 minutes until lentils and vegetables are tender. Stir

RED-COOKED TOFU WITH

occasionally. Season to taste with salt and pepper before serving. Makes about 9 cups (6 servings).

BROCCOLI AND MUSHROOMS

4 quarter-size slices peeled ginger root

4 scallions, each cut into 4 pieces

2 tablespoons oil

5 tablespoons soy sauce 2¼ cups hot beef broth

2 cups tofu, cut into 1-inch cubes 1-2 tablespoons sugar

1 teaspoon Five Spice Powder*

2-3 cups broccoli

11/2-2 cups mushrooms

Cut broccoli florets into uniformly sized, bite-size pieces. Cut off tough bottom ends of broccoli stems, then slice or peel off outer surface of remaining broccoli stem to form a rectangular block. Cut into diagonal slices about 4-inch thick. Cut large mushrooms in half to produce uniformly sized pieces. Heat a heavy stewing pot over high heat until hot, add oil and swirl for 30 seconds. Add the ginger and scallions, give them a fast stir and add the tofu. followed by the soy sauce, sugar and spice powder. Stir to color the tofu evenly. Then add the broth and stir. When it boils again, adjust heat to maintain a gentle, steady simmering. Add mushrooms, cover and simmer for 20 minutes, turning tofu occasionally. After 20 minutes, add the broccoli florets and stem slices. Simmer another 10 minutes. Then uncover, turn heat high and let the mixture bubble for a minute or so to thicken the sauce, stirring gently. Makes 5-7 cups (serves 4). (If desired, dry sherry can be substituted for 1/4 cup of the beef broth). The proportions of tofu and vegetables in this dish can be adjusted to suit personal tastes. Cubed pork or chicken also may be added to the recipe.
*Five Spice Powder can be found in Oriental food

TOMATO-BASIL SALAD

4 medium tomatoes 1 small red onion

1/4-1/3 cup red wine vinegar 1/4 cup fresh basil (2 teaspoons dried)

Freshly ground pepper to taste

Slice tomatoes and onion thinly, mix with basil. Pour vinegar over the salad, add pepper if desired. Let marinate at least 1/2 hour, preferably 1-2 hours. Add more pepper to taste when serving. Serves 4-5.

WINTER SQUASH WITH LEMON CHICKEN

3 tablespoons vegetable oil

2 tablespoons cornstarch

1 tablespoon vinegar (Optional: 3 tablespoons dry sherry)

1 egg white

11/2 lb skinned and boned chicken breast 4 winter squash (acorn or other)

1/4 cup chicken broth 1/4 cup lemon juice

2 tablespoons soy sauce

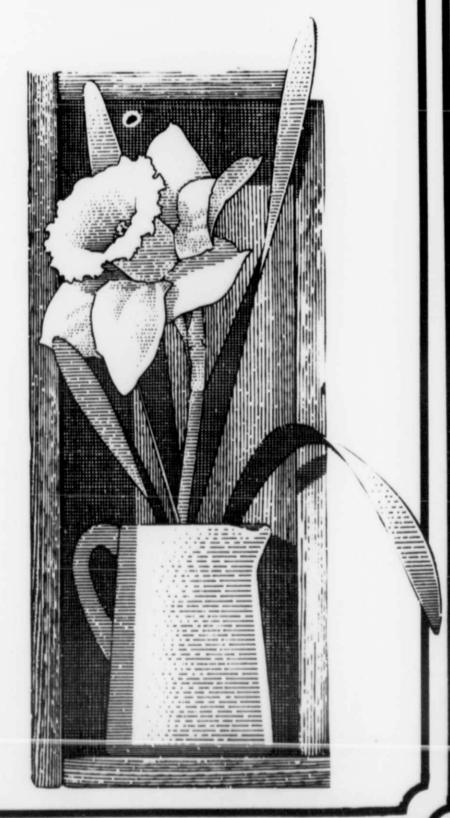

2 teaspoons sugar 1/3 cup scallions, thinly sliced

2 tablespoons fresh ginger, minced

2-3 teaspoons garlic, minced 2-4 cups frozen peas (thawed) In a ceramic or glass bowl, combine 11/2 teaspoons of the oil, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, vinegar and 1 tablespoon sherry or water, beat until smooth. Add egg white and stir until it is broken up. Cut chicken into 11/4 by 1/4-inch pieces, coat with the mixture and let marinate together, covered, for 1 hour. In a saucepan, boil 1 quart water, add 11/2 teaspoons oil and the chicken mixture, and cook over high heat, stirring for 30 seconds until chickens turns white. Drain the chicken, transfer to a bowl and cover it. Cut winter squash in half, remove seeds, and steam until tender (about 15 minutes). Let cool, and hollow out shells with a melon ball cutter. Reserve squash shells and keep warm and covered. In a bowl, combine broth, lemon juice, soy sauce, sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch and 2 tablespoons sherry. In wok or large skillet, heat scallions, ginger and garlic, stir-fry for 1 minute. Add squash balls and continue cooking 3 minutes more, then add chicken and thawed peas. Stir broth mixture, add to pan and cook 3 minutes or until chicken is heated through. Divide the mixture among the squash shells. Serves 8.

HOW DO YOU SAY: "I AM NOT!"? March 25, 1990

Background Scripture: John 18: 15-27 Devotional Reading: Romans 7:15-25a

The maid's question was direct:

"Are not you also one of this

was no less emphatic and direct:

"I am not." Peter would not later be able to say that he didn't understand the question or that his reply had been misunderstood. It was a clearcut case of denial on his part. What could have made him give such an answer in light of his earlier pledge in the upper room: "Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you" (13:47). Had he not meant this yow? I think he was quite sincere at that moment. He said it and he meant it. But in the courtyard of Annas, his fear was greater than his loyal-

THREE DENIALS

Can you not understand how Peter felt? Have you never made a vow which you didn't keep? Have you never backed down on good intentions because you were afraid? I have, and for pretty much the ame reason that Peter did. I was afraid. Afraid of what? Afraid of being thought different from other people. Afraid of being thought weak or not a "regular fellow," or even unsophisticated. Yes, at times in my life, I have to practice in secret what I didn't want anyone to know publicly. I like to tell myself that, if I had been there with Peter, I wouldn't have said "I am not," but who knows what one will say until we

Jesus had foretold Peter's lapse of loyalty that night in the Upper Room. "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the cock will not crow til you have denied me three times" (13: 38). And that's exactly what happened at the house of Annas. Can you imagine how remorseful Peter must have felt shortly thereafter? Despite his protestations of loyalty, he had betrayed the Master,

But there is a big difference between Judas and Peter. Peter was redeemed, while Judas wasn't. Terrible as Peter's denial was, God was able to free Peter from his guilt and the disciple became God's great apostle. On the contrary. Judas never recovered from his own treachery. Was it because God could not forgive Judas? No, I think it was because Judas could not forgive himself Something in his nature kept him from seeking Jesus' forgiveness

But the important question is

If Peter had been my trusted would have forgiven him. Yet, because Jesus was willing to redeem Peter, he saved a life that would have been otherwise lost to the church. There can be life after we've said, "I am not."

Upcoming Oscar ceremonies prompt annual wish list

By Steven Alan McGaw It's Oscar week and time again for me to make my picks, not that they'll influence the actual winners. Bear in mind, like last year, these are not predictions; the following are my choices.

Bryant Gumbel enjoying double duty on the links

By Jeff Thompson Since January's Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, Bryant Gumbel has been pulling double duty for NBC. He has been both anchoring NBC News' Today, as well as hosting the network's professional golf coverage.

Apparently, he's enjoying the added duties. An avid golfer with a 13 handicap, Gumbel was pleased to join NBC's coverage team. "For about 12 years now golf has been my passion and I play as often as I can," he said. "The chance to get involved with NBC's golf telecasts is very attractive, and I'm excited about it."

Gumbel even has his own pro-am tourney which he does in conjunction with Walt Disney World for the benefit of the United Negro College Fund. The anchor of Today since January 1982. Gumbel began his NBC career in 1975 as host of the NFL pre-game show and hosted NBC Sports' coverage of Major League Baseball and the NCAA Baskethall Championship. He also served as primetime host of NBC's Emmy-winning coverage of the Games of the XXIV Olympiad in Seoul.

CABLE OVERVIEW

Oscar predictions, viewings on agenda for cable stations

By Shelia Odak Once again it is Academy Award week, and all Hollywood hearts are thumping in anticipation of bringing home that Oscar gold. For lucky enough to be nominated, or even invited to the

those of us who weren't event, we can experience its before, during and after phases Start with the before. The USA Network on Sunday, March 25, will present the Hollywood Insider Academy Awards Special. This will give the inevitable predictions that all of us are so fond of making. Just for the record, my personal favorites are: Born On The Fourth Of July for Best Movie (but I wouldn't be surprised to see Driving Miss Daisy win); Tom Cruise for Best Actor in Born On The Fourth Of July: Jessica Tandy for Best Actress in Driving Miss Daisy: Martin Landau for Best Supporting Actor in Crimes and Misdemeanors and, as for Best Supporting Actress, your guess is as good as mine. Actually better, since this category is totally up in the air for me.

Then of course comes the big night on the ABC network. This presents a chance to see how well all the predictions will come out. If by the 27th you still want more hoopla, turn to The Movie Channel for Sort Of The Oscars: The Winners

If that proves to be too intense for you, turn over to HBO and settle back for a couple of one-night stands with some hot new comedians. One Night Stand: Ritch Shydner on March 28 and 30 offers this comedian's redneck observations on the on-going battle between the "Change can be for the better." Jane Curtin hopes that's the message viewers will take away from Common Ground, the dramatic miniseries airing this week on CBS. "It's the story of people who are very upset and very angry because they are afraid of change, afraid of the unknown, I hope people will see the series and realize that change does not have to be frightening." Curtin explained.

tried to stay close to the book's content and to Santiago's dialogue, but he made several diversions regarding other characters. A couple of tourists who were given small mention in the original Hemingway work were expanded, and Santiago's daughter is introduced. Flashbacks to Santiago's younger days are also interspersed. "I thought it was very difficult to spend two hours with a man in a boat and a fish, and that we should get to know Santiago." Hirson said. "It allows the audience to participate in feelings that people on the shore have about this man.

Anthony Quinn stars as Santiago, a Cuban fisherman who battles a giant marlin in Ernest Hemingway's The Old Man And The Sea, Sunday on NBC.

HOROSCOPE

March 25 through March 31

ARIES (March 21 - April 19) By keeping your thoughts to yourself you may learn a great lesson needed for understanding others. Long-term goals are reached, but you may have more than you can handle.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20) A renewed feeling of self-confidence will overtake you this week. Pay off debts as much as possible. The faster you do so, the faster you can get on with your life. GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) This is a very social week for Geminis. Love relationships take a new and exciting direction. It is imperative that you do not pre-judge someone you are about to meet. CANCER (June 21 - July 22) You will accomplish much if you lay out a plan and follow it closely. This is a great week to start some type of physical activity, anything that gets your heart pumping. LEO (July 23 - August 22)

It is time to get off your high horse and show those around you just how broadminded you really can be. Something concealed from you in the past will be revealed.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22) Someone close to you will try to undermine your good deeds. Shrug off direct criticisms and move ahead, there is no reason for wallowing in the past.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22) This is a good week for spending time with relatives and friends. These people will reinforce the feeling of security you need. A wise investment brings you good fortune. SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21) Your romance sector is very busy this week. You will win a dispute that you didn't think possible. Take it easy with physical activity this week or risk injury.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21) There is a person interested in you that is too shy to speak up. Wise up and take notice. This person could bring you happiness unimagined. Think of it as a challenge.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19) Be ready for anything this week. Things could go all your way or none at all. Everything depends on you being up to speed when faced with a certain challenge.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18) An informal dinner party will be soothing. It is important that you get yourself and your wardrobe together because a job opportunity will most likely surface soon

PISCES (February 19 - March 20) You need to make a firm financial commitment to save money. Your chances for a great social life will improve over the coming weeks. Think twice about switching jobs.

Anything can happen at Academy Awards

Oscar show to air Monday on ABC By Mary Ann Townsend The happy and sad faces of the drama masks are certainly befitting to the Academy Awards, where anything can happen, and most likely will. The awards, signifying exceldisappointments. This year's Oscars, airing Monday, March 26, on ABC and hosted by Billy Crystal, will undoubtedly do the same. In anticipation, here's a look at past accomplishments and surprises.

Many movies and actors have been the bridesmaids. but never the brides, so to speak. They garnered numerous nominations, but went home empty handed. The most nominated nonwinning movies are 1977's The Turning Point and 1985's The Color Purple. which both received 11 nominations. Peter O'Toole and Richard Burton take the cake for not taking home an Academy Award. Both have received seven nominations. but no statuette.

Votes are cast by members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Twice there have been tiesone time each for the Best Actor and Best Actress categories. In 1931-'32, Wallace Beery's performance in The Champ tied with Frederic March's in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Katharine Hepburn's third winning performance, in The Lion in Winter, received as many votes as Barbra Streisand's film debut in Funny Girl in 1968.

Lung Association Seeks Funds For Asthma Camp

Business executive and civic leaders in Allegany and Garrett counties will soon be receiving a request for financial support of the Asthma Day Camp at Camp Bobcat on the campus of Frostburg State University. This is the second year for the local Camp, which is a program of the American Lung Association of Maryland, Memorial Hospital and Medical Center of Cumberland, and Camp Bobcat

Twenty-five children with asthma, ages 6-10, from Allegany and Garrett counties and neighboring Pennsylvania and West Virginia will attend this special edition of Camp Bobcat from June 18-29.

Glen Besa, of the ALAM's Cumberland office, stressed that all funds raised go to support the Association's Asthma Camps. "We will be writing area businesses and civic groups requesting their assistance. As it costs the Association $130 to send a child to camp, we are suggesting that amount as a contribution," he Linda Trimble, a respiratory therapist with Memorial Hosdirector, noted that childhoold asthma is a leading cause of school absences and of emergency room visits by children. She noted, "The camping experience is more than a good to teach our campers methods medical care.

Roberts and Raines had spent the day in Garrett County looking at examples of multiple-use management on private woodland for a new program called "Forest Stewardship." The Forest Stewardship Program is designed to give recognition to private landowners who are applying environmental and economic resource management principles to benefit current and future landowners, and the public.

The Garrett Forestry Board received $2,000 to sponsor school reforestation projects. Seven schools in the county submitted plans for inclusion in this project. The school reforestation project is designed to encourage or promote an awareness of trees, and the benefits they provide.

The Governor's Conference on Forestry, scheduled for May 21 and 22, will greatly influence forestry in Maryland through the year 2020, according to a Board spokesman. The Garrett Forestry Board voted unanimously to donate $100 to funding this conference.

Poison Prevention Week Underway

Governor William Donald Schaefer has proclaimed March 18-24 "Poison Prevention Week" in Maryland. The week is sponsored by the Maryland Poison Center (MPC), which is a division of the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy and is designated as the state's official poison center.

"Accidential poisonings are preventable if Marylanders make sure their homes are poison-proof," said the governor. "We need to be aware that there are things we use around the house every day that can be dangerous to children," he said. Although labeling requirements and education programs have had some effect in reducing the number of childhood ingestions, significant numbers of children are still being poisoned by accidentially ingesting household products. According to the Maryland Poison Center, at least 21,000 children under age five were exposed to potentially poisonous substances in 1988.

The Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH) encourages Maryland citizens to observe "Poison Prevention Week."

"It only takes a little time to poison-proof your home," said David L. Resh Jr., director of DHMH Office of Food Protection and Consumer Health Services. "One accidental poisoning for any child is one too many," he added.

Rocco J. Gabriele has annou; nced a dramatic dedeaths for the State of Maryland in 1989. According to Gabriele, 80 persons died in fire-related incidents during the past year in Maryland, as compared with 129 for 1988. Thirtyeight percent reduction in fire deaths is the largest single reduction in fire deaths ever recorded in the state since records had been kept pertaining to fire death statistics.

Statistics collected by the Office of the Fire Marshal revealed that careless smoking or misuse of smoking materials was once again the leading cause of fires in which deaths occurred. There were 24 deaths reported as a result of careless smoking or thirty percent of the total 80 fatalities. Arson was the Maryland State Fire Marshal next leading cause for fire deaths with 9 recorded for a total of 11.3% of the total fire crease in the number of fire deaths. Unattended cooking and electrical fires were the third leading causes for fire deaths in 1989. These respective casual factors led to 8 fatalities each throughout Maryland.

A survey of fire deaths in Maryland indicated the majority of deaths occurred in homes and apartments. Of the 80 fire fatalities recorded in 1989, 58 occurred in either homes or apartments.

The bedroom was the leading area of origin for fire deaths with 22 fatalities recorded in the bedroom area for a total of 27.5% of the total fire deaths. The living room areas was the second leading area of origin with 13 fire fatalities recorded for a total of 16.2% of the total fire deaths.

Lions Present "Quest" Film To Education Board

A video film entitled "Quest - It Works!" produced at Northern and Southern middle schools was shown to Garrett County Board of Education members recently by Lions District 22-W drug awareness co-chairman, Gerry Beachy, also a member of the Grantsville Lions Club.

The film was made to show the effectiveness of a Lionssponsored program called Skills for Quest -Adolescents." The program was begun by District Governor Tom Jefts and the Lions of District 22-W, which reaches from Garrett County to beyond Westminster and Gaithersburg. The program was also begun in the Allegany County Middle schools at the same time.

Nearly $27,000 was raised by local Lions Clubs, other District 22-W clubs, and local businesses to pay to train 15 teachers and counselors, and to purchase school materials including student and parent workbooks, teacher manuals, and student textbooks. Since its start in 1987, nearly 1,300 students each year in the three target grades, 6-8, are taught the Quest program. Every sixth grade taught the program in family books must be purchased each

Works!" shows candid interviews of students, parents and teachers who have been involved with the program over the past three years. Quest is not totally a drug program, according to Beachy. Instead, it takes a positive approach to teach 10-14 year-olds to develop skills, including decision making, communication, and dealing effectively with peer pressure in order to say "no" to alcohol and other drugs. The program is a combined effort of Lions Clubs International and Quest International. Since its start in 1984, more than 12,000 communities and schools throughout the world have participated in "Skills for Adolescents."

Another Lions program, "Skills for Growing," is a program for elementary grades that brings together parents, educators, and community leaders to teach basic life skills within a caring and supportive environment. It teaches skills that lead to self-discipline, responsibility, good judgment, and the ability to get along with others, Beachy said. A grant has been requested by the Garrett County schools to help fund this new program which requires that three

Performed by the national touring company, the Alpha Omega Players, Leslie Steven's bubbly comedy tells the story of a "helpless heroine" who has the quirky desire to shed her clothes every time she has a sip of champagne. In an effort to keep the problem "in the family," the heroine's fiance gets the help of his single psychiatrist uncle, who finds an unexpected cure for the lady's

The buffet dinner will feature carved top round of beef, seafood creole, fluffy rice, peas with mushrooms, spinach and mushroom salad with vinaigrette, fruit cup, shoo fly pie, rolls and butter and refreshments.

Because of limited seating, reservations are required and may be made for both the dinner and show or simply the play performance. The "playonly" ticket also includes afterdinner coffee or tea and dessert. Doors will open for the performances at approximately 7:45 p.m., with seating on a first-come, first-served basis. The reservation deadline is April 3. There is also a reduced ticket price for FSU full-time students. For information and/or reservations, persons may contact the FSU Lane Center at 689-4151.

Potomac Edison Inspecting Lines Via Helicopters

Potomac Edison is conducting special vegetation inspections using helicopters this month as part of the company's ongoing maintenance program.

Helicopter flights began March 17 and will be completed throughout Allegany and Garrett counties in Maryland and parts of Mineral and Hampshire counties in West Virginia. Crews will be scouting the transmission system to look for maintenance needs and to check equipment.

During summer storms, trees and faulty hardware can cause power outages. Strong winds and lighting can stress equipment. These inspections ensure that equipment can withstand

Art Exhibit By Famous Latinos In GCC Gallery

Currently on exhibit in the Bausch and Lomb Art Gallery at Garrett Community College are 23 artworks by several internationally-known Latin artists. The show is part of the Latino exhibition that had been at the Roper Gallery of Frostburg State University last month. It is the first Latin art exhibition ever organized in Maryland.

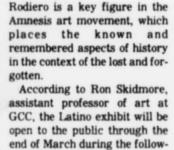

The show exhibits two remarkable Cuban women painters from Florida - Maria Castagliola and Maria Sonia Martin. Both are associated by critics with new-age aesthetica which portrays spiritual and religious subjects.

Also included in the show are the works of the new wave abstract figurative artist Peter Gaztambide, the post-modern new generation artist Jose Marin, renowned photographer J. Tomas Lopez from St.

Petersburg Junior College, and the prestigious painter Tomas Marias, whose large murals in Havana were ordered whitewashed by the Dictator Fidel Castro. In April, the exhibition will travel to the University of Maryland at College Park.

About Three Weeks Left In Filing Season: Many File Unnecessarily

With the April 16th filing leadline only about three weeks away, Maryland State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein said his office has received more than 900,000 state income tax returns out of the 2.1 million expected An average of 30,000 eturns are arriving in Annaplis each day. "While personal exemptions continue to cause some errors by taxpayers, we are also receiving thousands of forms from individuals who aren't even required to file a Maryland income tax return," ne said. The comptroller noted that his office has mailed over 600,000 refund checks so far. 'That's well ahead of last year's pace, and the checks are averaging $284 - also higher refund of taxes withheld. than at this time last year," he

About 80,000 errors have been spotted on tax returns filed so far, including more than 17,000 returns which were filed unnecessarily. "They were filed by individuals whose gross income was below the ing the wrong exemption minimum amount required to file. If you're single and under 65, you don't have to file a Maryland return unless you earned $5,100 or more last year or you're filing to get a refund for taxes withheld from your pay." he said.

Goldstein said the filing requirements also apply to dependent taxpayers individuals such as students who are claimed as a dependent on someone else's federal return. "Even though you may have to file a federal return as a dependent taxpayer because of the amount or kind of your income, that does not necessarily mean you have to file a Maryland return," he said. Students and other dependent taxpayers do not have to file a state return unless their income was at least $5,100 for 1989

He reminded taxpayers that married couples who are both 65 or older are not required to file unless their gross income was $10,400 or more, in 1989.

'Please check the filing levels in Instruction 1 of the Maryland tax packet to see if you are required to file at all,' Goldstein said, "Remember, you should file if you are due a regardless of your income."

State auditors also noticed that nearly 25,000 returns reviewed so far contain mistakes in the calculation of personal exemptions and incorrect use of the tax table.

'Many taxpayers are enteramounts. You are allowed the same number of exemptions on your Maryland return as you claimed on your federal return, but the dollar amounts are different," Goldstein said.

He noted that all state income taxpayers (except dependent taxpayers) may claim a personal exemption of $1,100 on the 1989 Maryland income tax return now being filed. Tax payers 65 or older or blind may also claim an additional

Display Opens At Herrington Manor

A new display depicting the history of Herrington Manor and Swallow Falls state parks is now open to the public at the Herrington Manor Park Office from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily. The Civilian Conservation Corps, Camp S-59, was established at Swallow Falls State Park in 1934 and remained active until 1942. During that eight-year period, CCC workers completed numerous conservation projects and built most of the facilities used today in both parks. The display features photographs and information about the CCC camp, the men who lived and worked there, and their projects.

Governor Seeks More Funds To Remove Asbestos

Governor William Donald Schaefer included an additional $1 million for asbestos abatement in state-owned buildings in his supplemental budget submitted March 5. Governor Schaefer's original budget request earmarked $3 million for asbestos related projects. "We have to make sure that people who live, work and study in state-owned facilities are not exposed to asbestos hazards." said Governor Schaefer. "This extra money will allow us to move ahead with high-priority asbestos projects." the Asbestos Oversight Committee (AOC), created by Governor Schaefer's executive order in 1987, oversees the management of asbestos in state-owned buildings. Chaired by Maryland Secretary of the Environment Martin W. Walsh Jr., the AOC directs funding to those buildings with damaged. hazardous asbestos. The committee also ensures that proper training and maintenance measures are taken to manage undamaged asbestos in place.

Asbestos in good condition is maintained in place by specially trained personnel, and removed only when planned renovation or demolition activities would disturb it.

Over the past two years the AOC has allocated $6.3 million dollars for asbestos abatement; 19 projects have been completed and 24 more are in the

been dealing with the problem around nylon mesh guards to of deer and rabbits browsing on newly planted seedlings. They have surrounded their seedlings with wire fencing and plastic mesh materials and have applied deer repellents of all types - with marginal success.

Now there is a new tool foresters can use in their fight against animal browsing. Called a tree shelter, this antibrowsing device has greatly improved planting prospects in problem areas.

The tree shelter is a transparent, corrugated polypropylene tube that is placed around each seedling at time of planting. An ultraviolet light inhibitor is added to the polypropylene to prevent it from breaking down too rapidly when exposed to sunlight. Present season, compared with unproformulations make the shelters tected seedlings, which grew stable for five to seven years; six inches to one foot. This difafter that, they disintegrate.

For years, foresters have wrapped polyethylene sleeves create a "greenhouse" environment for individual plants.

The shelter is available in cubes or tubes, cut in four, five or six-foot lengths. A wooden stake - preferably 2" by 2" by the appropriate height - must be located next to the shelter for support.

Besides preventing animal browsing, the shelter allows foresters to quickly locate seedlings in weedy areas and apply herbicides without harming the young trees. It also promotes early seedling growth.

DRUG AWARENESS LESSON - Chief Deputy Harland Tichnell, of the Garrett County Sheriff's Department, recently visited the fourth and fifth grade classrooms of Mrs. Anna Buckingham, Mrs. Maxine Miller, and Mrs. Rosanne Sherwood at Accident Elementary School. Tichnell spoke on the effects of illegal drugs, the laws of Maryland, and the consequences of those caught using drugs illegally. He brought with him examples of confiscated drug paraphernalia. Following his presentation was a question/answer session and discussion. Literature on drugs and safety was given by the Garrett County Sheriff's Department for classroom use. #### AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF OAKLAND

I would like to congratulate Oakland Mayor Asa McCain and Council Members Mary Lou Stemple, Peggy Jamison and Dr. Andrew Mance on their victories at the polls Monday. I wish for them every possible success in the weeks and months ahead.

Also in order is my sincere and genuine thanks to the caring people who came to the polls Monday to express a slightly different point of view. I am both warmed and touched by your efforts.

With regards to the political significance of the number of votes cast in the Mayor's race, I do not feel competent to comment and will leave that to the conjecture and speculation of others. I do, however, feel qualified to comment on the Mayor's campaign strategy of deliberately withholding the sewer bills until AFTER the election. OUTSTANDING!

Many, many thanks, congratulations, and much good luck to all of you.

WEPCO Holds Annual Banquet, Celebrates 40th

WEPCO Credit Union, based in Bloomington, held its annual banquet recently at Victory Post 155, American Legion, in Westernport, an event that was attended by over 200 members and guests. James Weasenforth, WEPCO president, gave the welcome and introduced various guests, including Melvin Foley, Frederick Imhoff, and Leroy Imperio, past presidents.

Recognition was also extended to past managers, directors, various committee members, and the present manager, Rick Warnick, and his staff.

Also recognized was David H. Lucas, loan manager, who in just one year has been responsible for a drop in loan delinquency from 2.63 to .79 percent.

The invocation was given by Rev. Ann Vincent, pastor of the Westernport United Methodist

Having been chartered in 1950, this year's banquet was in celebration of the 40th anniversary of the company, which started out worth approximately $100 and is now worth an estimated $32 million.

The guest speaker was John Eckes, of the Maryland Credit Union League staff, who spoke on taxation in general and credit unions in particular. He urged members to contact their elected officials and let them know they do not want the taxation that has been threatening credit unions since last year

New Posting Law Benefit For Landowners

The Maryland State Legislature recently passed a new law that will make the posting of private lands against trespassing easier and cheaper. This is good news for many landowners. "Instead of having to post, maintain and replace signs destroyed or damaged by vandals, landowners will have the option of marking their property with

Forestry/Loggers Field Day Plans Being Finalized

The planning committee for the Maryland Forestry/Loggers Field Day, scheduled for June 15-16 at the Garrett County Fair Grounds in McHenry, met last Thursday at the Grantsville Holiday Inn to continue making plans for the event. Tom Tyler, president of the Maryland Forests Association, Jack Brodie, past president, and Fred Johnson, executive board member, traveled from the Eastern Shore to attend the meeting.

According to a committee spokesman, the Forestry/Logger Field Day is designed to provide education and information for landowners, loggers, and the citizens of Maryland. increasing their awareness of natural resources and the management of these resources. Approximately 60 exhibitors, plus 90 information, education, and craft groups, have been contacted about participating in the event

'Our forests are one of our greatest natural resources and the management of these forest resources has a very great impact on Garrett County," the spokesman said. "The management of these resources is also very controversial, with conservation groups and preservation groups at odds over the management of these resources.

"The greatest threat facing our forests today is not the forest industry, but the loss of forest land to other land uses such as development," he said, adding that it's estimated that, statewide, Maryland is losing over 6,000 acres of its forest land base each year.

3.100 Inquiries

Maryland State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein said the Unclaimed Property Section of his office received more than 3,000 telephone calls and 80 written inquiries last week as a result of advertising 24,050 names of apparent rightful owners of unclaimed bank accounts or other unclaimed funds. It was the largest number of names ever advertised by the Comptroller's Office.

a bank account has no activity for a period of five years, the financial institution must report it to his office and the owner's name is advertisted in the county of last known address. "That's why it's important to make a minimal deposit or withdrawal to each account you have at least once a year,' Goldstein said.

If the funds remain unclaimed, the money is transferred to the state. "However, that doesn't mean the money is lost to its rightful owner," Goldstein said. "Under Maryland's custodial law, the rightful owner or legitimate heir can claim the funds at any time in the future.'

Thank you for coming out and supporting the candidates. Sixty-seven percent of the registered voters waging a slander type campaign and I was confident that voters were not interested in such tactics. Thank you for proving me right.

I do feel I should respond to the letter.

- 1. I announced in a recent Oakland update what the sewer costs would be. They are still the same. This past year the tax rate remained the same, and a 5% early payment discount was instituted which enables you to save.
- When I became mayor, I found out from Hub that one of the previous council members had committed the council to the choice of the sewer superintendent in a compromise over the selection of the water superintendent. I honored that obligation. I also believe in promoting from within an organization. Three members of the previous council tried to convince me that the selection was wrong because the person would not certify. I had faith in him and was proven correct when he passed the certification test with a B grade on the first attempt. He is now fully licensed and qualified.

As for hiring Maryland Environmental Services (MES) to begin operating the sewer plant, hind sight is 20/20 and we made the right choice. We chose MES for three reasons:

- A. The new plant was innovative, in that, it produces no dangerous sludge and uses no fish killing chlorine. We wanted the experience and expertise of MES's statewide staff to get the plant off to a good start.
- B. They were willing to train our local employees.

C. They were going to help with the collector system.

The lower local offer was only to operate the plant. MES's actual charge was $31,645.42, not nearly $60,000 as reported by my opponent.

- If you follow town government, you would know that the current council voted to withdraw the proposed Charter changes so that there could be more public input.
- 4. All the cash flow and credit problems existed when I became Mayor in April, 1988. They were left over from the 1987-1988 fiscal year when Mr. Seifert was President of the Council. Now, according to our auditor, we are in the best financial standing in recent years.
- 5. At Mr. Seifert's request, an opinion on the matter of conflict of interest was sought from the State Attorney General. That opinion was that state and federal guidelines took precedent over local and there was no conflict.
- 6. You will have to ask those who left, why they did. I only know the reason they

Programs For Developmentally Disabled Funded

The waiting list for disabled services will be reduced thanks to $4.25-million in supplemental funds proposed by Governor William Donald Schaefer for the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH).

Governor Schaefer has proposed the additional spending to the DHMH Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) to help reduce and keep clients off the waiting list. Of that total, $1.1-million is to be used to keep 150 clients off the waiting list by maintaining them in supported employment programs through the Transitional Youth Initiative. The remaining $3.1-million will be used to find emergency residential placements for 100 clients now on the waiting list.

"I'm pleased that Governor Schaefer has been able to include funds in the supplemental budget for DDA," said Adele Wilzack, R.N., M.S., secretary of DHMH. "However, as the governor has stated much more could have been done had the legislature approved his hole," said Wilzack. "That would have raised the money needed to begin helping the 6,000 disabled in this state who are still waiting for services," she added.

To illustrate emergency residential placement, in early 1988, the DDA received an emergency referral from the Anne Arundel Association for Retarded Citizens (AAARC) regarding two severely-to-profoundly retarded brothers. These two men, ages 47 and 39, had been cared for all their June, the job support provided years by their mother and stepfather. Neither had attended any day programs nor had ever been enrolled in schools.

The mother died in late September 1988, leaving the step-father as the sole caregiver. His deteriorating health prompted his contact with AAARC.

The brothers were temporarily housed at a state residential facility in January 1989 as efforts by the DDA continued to obtain a communitybased residence. In early October of last year, the two brothers were transferred to an alternative living unit (a residence of three clients or less) in Anne Arundel County.

They are still living at this residence and attending a local day program. The step-father has expressed his pleasure with the quality of life, care and programming his step-sons are now receiving.

An example of the Transitioning Youth Initiative follows. A 21-year-old woman with moderate mental retardation will leave the educational system when she graduates this June. She has a young child and lives with her medically frail grandmother. The grandmother also acts as the primary caregiver of the woman's two brothers and two sisters.

The young woman has been attending a special school in Prince George's County which has a job support program that has allowed her to work in the community for the past year and a half in a secretarial support position with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. She works approximately 30 hours a week and earns slightly above minimum wage.

With her graduation this

IT'S NOT ON THE MAP!

Have you ever heard of that mythical paradise called Utopia? It's a place where everything is perfect, isn't it? Mankind has conducted a search for it since the beginning of time, yet all in vain.

You may want to remember that next time you're ready to buy a home. Do you know why? Because there is also no perfect home.

When you decide to buy that next home, you'll need to make a list of all the features and amenities you would like to find in a home. List the number of rooms, baths, bedrooms, etc. Then add the extra touches you'd like such as a fireplace, trees, swimming pool, utility room, garage, large lot and others.

Write down the style home you desire, the size and the expected price range. And don't forget about location, schools, and shopping

By now, you've probably described your very own Utopia. And, since it is highly unlikely that such a place exists, you now have one more task to accomplish. Go back through your list and decide on which features you are willing to compromise. That's right - COMPRO-MISE! Which items are you willing to give up in order to have the ones which are most important to you? Once you've separated the two, you're ready to begin house hunting in earnest. Good Luck!

Understanding real estate dilemmas and their solutions is our business, and we'll happily share our knowledge with you. Why not give us a call at 387-5303 or drop by our office at McHenry Plaza.

Accident Fifth Graders Involved In Extensive Study of Print Journalism

Students in Maxine K. Miller's fifth grade class at Accident Elementary School have been studying journalism and learning the importance of freedom of the press as they have been writing articles on school and classroom events throughout the year.

Each month the students have selected and prepared their articles for a newsletter called Class News. The newsletter has included interviews, editorials, letters to the editor, historical research articles, and current events reporting. Some of the students have even typed their own articles and prepared artwork for the publication.

Mrs. Miller said that this student-created publication has been distributed by the students to their parents in order to: provide a meaningful outlet for written communication; enable students to learn organizational, grammatical, and punctuation skills in context; and enhance communication of school and classroom events between the school and parents.

Upon receiving a copy of Class News from Mrs. Miller's students, Donald W. Sincell, editor of The Republican, offered to visit the students to share information regarding newspapers and journalism. He visited the class in November and shared copies of past issues emphasize the importance of of The Republican, as well as information, with the class. Scavenger hunt participants each received a poster, and all Newspaper in Education Week participants received a certificate signed by their teacher, principal Robert Wilson, and Newspaper in Education Week chairperson for the Western Maryland Reading Council, Ms. Deborah Pappas.

Census Forms In The Mail

While the old saying is that only two things in life are certain - death and taxes - all Marylanders can add a third item to that list in 1990 - a census form from the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Between now and the end of March, more than 1.7 million Maryland homes will be receiving either a short form or a long form of the census questionnaire. Nationally, more than 100 million households will receive

Some Marylanders To Receive Long Census Form

When forms from the U.S. Bureau of the Census start arriving in Maryland households later this month, approximately 300,000 families will receive a small surprise when they discover their form is longer than their neighbor's

In order to obtain more accurate data, the Bureau of the Census uses both a shortform and a long-form questionnaire. The short form contains 14 questions, seven each regarding population and housing, and takes about 14 minutes to complete. The long form, on the other hand contains all of the questions on the short form and an additional 18

DHMH To Offer New Treatment For Schizophrenics

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH) has received a proposed $1-million supplemental budget appropriation from Governor William Donald Schaefer to begin treatment of approximately 260 schizophrenic patients currently hospitalized in state mental hospitals with Clozapine, a new drug that offers significant benefits over drugs currently in use.

"We're pleased Governor Schaefer has been able to provide funding for this new treatment program which we feel offers new hope for the seriously mentally ill now living in state institutions," said Adele Wilzack, R.N., M.S., secretary of DHMH. "Studies have shown Clozapine works for many patients who don't respond to other medications," said Wilzack. "In fact, we feel treatment with this drug might help some of our patients enough to allow them to leave the hospital," she added.

The DHMH will make the drug available to the most severely disabled patients with the greatest potential to benefit from this new treatment.

In order to maintain patient safety, the DHMH's plan for the use of Clozapine includes mechanisms to assure that only appropriate patients receive the drug. The drug's use will be discontinued in those patients to whom it has been found ineffec-

Clozapine rarely results in side effects that many of the drugs currently in use cause such as tremors, muscular rigidity, restlessness, involuntary movements and an expressionless appearance, according to the Department. In fact, Clozapine appears to be able to suppress or reverse many of the permanent involuntary abnormal movements that result from the prolonged use of these other drugs. Clozapine does have some drawback, the Department noted. The drug can cause a serious reduction in or the elimination of the white blood cells in one to two percent of patients. This side effect is promptly discontinued.

No fatalities have occurred in the United States as a result of a lowered white blood cell count. This is due mainly to Sandoz Pharmaceuticals, the manufacturer, setting up a system of regular weekly blood testing for patients receiving the drug. A BLOSSOMING ALTERNATIVE - Although Maryland florists purchase $100 million of floricultural products annually, three-fourths of these products are imported. Dr. Will Healy, shown here with a clerk at Behnke Nurseries in Beltsville, believes Maryland farmers can obtain supplemental income by filling this supply niche. Healy, a University of Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station horticulturist, has field-tested and evaluated more than 150 cut flower cultivars since 1987. #### Cut Flower Market Could Provide Agricultural Alternative In Maryland

Cut flowers have become farmers. popular items to be purchased by travelers at roadside stands and tail-gate markets across Maryland. The populous Washington, D.C., to Boston, Mass., corridor is the largest market for fresh cut flowers in the United States. This geographic and demographic advantage makes growing cut flowers an attractive possible income supplement for Maryland of horticulture at the University in September, 1990.

"Maryland florists purchase more than $100 million of floricultural products each year but less than 25 percent of those products are raised in Maryland," said Dr. Will Healy. "The majority of cut flowers sold in this area are imported from the Caribbean region and South America.

HEAD START SEEKS ENROLLEES

The Garrett County Head Start Program is currently recruiting three and four-year-old children for enrollment

Head Start is a pre-school child development program for children from families who fall within federal income

Head Start has six major components: education, health, nutrition, parent involvement, social services and handicap. The education program is designed to meet each child's individual need. Every child receives a variety of learning experiences to foster intellectual, social and emotional growth. Children participate in indoor and outdoor play and are introduced to concepts of words and numbers. They are also encouraged to express their feelings and develop self-confidence and the ability to get along with

plus services for their individual special needs. Head Start provides each child with comprehensive health and nutritional services. Children are served two hot meals every day in order to meet at least two-thirds of their daily nutritional requirements. Parents are the most important influence on a child's development and an essential part of every Head Start project is the involvement of parents in all aspects of the program. Many parents volunteer in the classroom, participate in decision making and in training sessions provided by Head Start. They learn about educational activities that can be implemented at home.

One hundred and twenty-two children are presently enrolled in the Head Start Program. Centers are located in Crellin, Oakland, Jennings, Accident, Kitzmiller and Den-

Applications are accepted in May for the fall term. If you are interested, now is the time to apply. Applications are available at any center, at the Community Action Office at 300 W. Liberty Street, or at the Head Start Office at 221 S.

Third Street in Oakland, Maryland. Parents are requested to bring verification of family income, parents' social security numbers, and their child's birth certificate when applying. For more information, contact the Head Start Office at 334-5856.

Farming In Maryland ..... Bernice Kepple, Farm Editor of Maryland at College Park. said that cut flowers are high value crops that can be grown in conjunction with other traditionally produced, direct market crops

"During the last several years, about 40 Maryland farmers have planted more than 25 acres of cut flowers,' said Healy. "They have earned more than $500,000 in sales from these plantings.

Since 1987, more than 150 annual and perennial cultivars have been field tested and evaluated by Healy under Maryland growing conditions. These tests have resulted in production methods for several species, such as asters and zinnias, that are being raised by Maryland farmers.

Healy is now studying Alstroemeria (Peruvian lily), an imported cut flower that is one of the top 10 sellers in the United States. Growers can generate up to $20 per square foot of sales, he said. But local growers can't maintain yearround Alstroemeria flowering because Maryland summers are too warm. The high soil temperatures normally inhibit the development of roots for nutrient storage. Like all photosynthetic plants, Alstroemeria produces carbohydrates, chiefly sugar, using carbon dioxide, water and energy from sunlight. Previous work has indicated that precise control of the division of these carbohydrates between floral shoots and storage roots may be a key element in understanding and controlling year-round before flowering can occur suggests that Alstroemeria could be profitably grown in Maryland," Healy said. "But only if storage root development can be manipulated to occur at high soil temperatures." Healy continues developing field cut flower production practices that require minimal amounts of labor and pesticide applications, concentrating on asters, snapdragons and Celosia, as well as larkspur and other members of the Delphinium genus. He also focuses on water, nutrient and pesticide management. Precise water application is critical to maximizing stem elongation of developing flowers," Healy said. 'This is important, since cut flowers are sold based on stem length." Working with researchers at the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station's Salisbury and Upper Marlboro facilities, Healy conducts herbicide trials to determine the best weed and insect control methods. This portion of his project aims to minimize pesticide applications through the use of targeted spraying and beneficial insect predators. One final production-related effort involves evaluating peak harvesting times using a heat unit technique. This method measures the number of degree days - a unit based on the standard average daily temperature - that pass before flowering occurs.

"Once peak flowering dates are known," Healy said,

"growers can develop a marketing strategy that allows them to offer cut flowers throughout the growing

Organic Growers Look For Growth In The 1990s

Perhaps no segment of Maryland agriculture more nearly typifies this year's National Agriculture Week theme involving "Tradition and Change" than does the state's organic food industry.

Organic growers say their farming methods represent a move toward traditional cultural methods which do not rely on commercial chemicals.

And they forecast that they will be growing a larger seg ment of tomorrow's food, as more consumers demand organically produced fresh and processed food products. They also are trying to interest more farmers in becoming suppliers to the expanding market for organic foods. Some trends in Maryland appear to validate their claims: *A 13-store supermarket chain added an organic produce section to its stores in 1987. Sales from this section now account for as much as three percent of store business. And a spokesperson thinks that such sales could triple with a consistent supply of organic produce in sufficient quantity. *The Maryland Organic Food and Farming Association was organized in late 1989 to "The apparent prerequisite represent organic growers, for storage root development sellers, buyers and distributors over non-organic food items in some stores. •Retailers, brokers and processors of organically grown produce in the Baltimore-Washington, D.C., area agree that the biggest single problem with handling organic food items is maintaining sufficient supply from local sources to meet market demand. Similar trends are under way in many other sections of the United States. A driving force behind consumer demand for organically grown produce is an ever-increasing public concern over food safety. Each series of "chemical scare" news stories adds to the number of people seeking to avoid food produced with agricultural chemicals.

Organic growers say they are responding to these consumers by giving them what they want. Another boost for the organic food movement is coming from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, which recently began allocating resources to study

Md. Pest Control Firm Is Fined.

License Suspended

The Maryland Department of Agriculture has announced that pesticide applicator William Schlotzhauer and his company, Del-Mar-Va Exterminating Service, Inc., have agreed to pay a civil penalty of $10,000 for violating the state pesticide law and regulations.

The violations included failure of the company to maintain required liability insurance, making faulty or negligent pesticide applications and product disposal, and inadequate pesticide application record keeping.

"I compliment the Maryland An increasing number of Department of Agriculture staff state's pesticide regulations," said Governor William Donald

> Under the consent agreement between Schlotzhauer and the department, Schlotzhauer's pesticide applicator certificate has been suspended for one year, with all but 60 days of the suspension stayed. Also, the firm's pesticide business license is suspended for one year, but the entire suspension is stayed. However, both Schlotzhauer and Del-Mar-Va Exterminating Services, Inc., are placed on probation for one year and their suspensions would become effective if, during the period of probation, either Schlotzhauer or the pest control business is found guilty of violating certain provisions of the pesticide regulations.

> 'We in the Department of Agriculture take seriously our responsibilities to enforce the provisions of the Pesticide Applicator's Law and regulations in order to protect the health and safety of all Marylanders," said Secretary of Agriculture Wayne A: Cawley

> The Maryland Department of Agriculture's Pesticide Regulation Section certifies commercial or private pesticide applicators, licenses pest control businesses, inspects pest control operations and investigates pesticide misuse and consumer concerns. #### Maryland Joins Canada To Discuss Crop Insurance

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Wayne A. Cawley Jr. announced that a Saskatchewan-Maryland Conference for the Improvement of Agricultural Crop Insurance will be held in Saskatchewan, Canada, April 2 and 3. It is the first ever joint conference on crop insurance involving Canada and the United States.

"I am pleased that my department has helped to support these important meetings which will address the relationships between crop insurance and farm management decisions," Cawley said.

"We have invited speakers from all over the world who are experts in the area of agricultural insurance. And, in Maryland, we have the support of Governor William Donald Schaefer who is committed to reforming U.S. Federal Crop Insurance," said Cawley,

The purpose of the conference is to present the results of a joint research effort by the University of Maryland and the University of Saskatchewan to examine agricultural crop insurance programs and their impact upon the agricultural sectors in Canada and the United States. In addition, research conducted in Israel and Australia also will be evaluated.

"Interest in the conference has increased since the announcement by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to totally eliminate all agriculture insurance programs. I expect the meeting will produce lively discussions," said conference coordinator Dr. Darrell Hueth of the University of Maryland.

The conference is being sponsored by the government of Saskatchewan's Agriculture Development Fund, the Maryland Department of Agriculture, the University of Maryland's Department of Agricultural Economics, Cooperative Extension Service, and Agricultural Experiment Station and the University of # Being Celebrated This Week In Md.

This week, March 18 through 24, has been officially proclaimed National Agriculture Week. Tuesday, March 20, was National Agriculture Day, with its theme - "Honoring America's Providers, Tradition and Change." The observances are intended to remind consumers of the role that U.S. farmers play in assuring an adequate and safe food supply at reasonable cost. Maryland legislators received a preview of Ag Week during the annual legislators' dinner on February 1, when Maryland Agriculture Week, Inc., an organization supported by a wide array of agricultural organizations and agribusinesses, sponsored the

This umbrella organization provided financial assistance to the University of Maryland Cooperative Extension Service and the Maryland Department of Agriculture for producing educational materials to help support the annual events.

These events include displays and demonstrations at malls and markets; old-fashioned farm tours and horse-drawn wagon rides at Oxon Hill Farm, a 485-acre National Park site overlooking the Potomac River in Maryland near Washington, D.C.; the University of Maryland Ag Alumni faculty-student awards dinner; the National Agriculture Day reception on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.; and, coming up on Saturday, March 24, Ag Week open house at the Maryland Department of Agriculture headquarters, and the "Maryland With Pride" 10-K run starting at 9 a.m. in front of MDA headquarters.

Kicking off the Annapolis event will be the "Maryland With Pride" 10-kilometer run, starting at 9 a.m. in front of the MDA headquarters building. Some 500 runners are expected to compete over the 6.2-mile course. Annapolis Striders, inc., is co-sponsoring the event.

Other activities on tap for the 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. open house include country music, farm and craft demonstrations, a farm animal petting zoo, educational displays and announcement of winners in a farm coloring contest. The latter event is being run in conjunction with Capital-Gazette Newspapers.

Food demonstrations and sampling also will be conducted.

Several of the MDA laboratories will be open so that visitors may view regulatory and research work being done in such areas as plant protection, gypsy moth and mosquito control, seed testing and turf production.

The department's Weights and Measures section will present demonstrations to acquaint the public with its important consumer protection work.

"Our work involves support of traditional agriculture through the use of modern technology. At the same time, we are engaged in unconventional programs like aquaculture to assist new methods of produc-

Wye Angus Sale Set For March 26

Wye Angus beef cattle will go to the auction block at the 12th annual sale set for noon on March 26

The University of Maryland's Agricultural Experiment Station is offering 38 yearling bulls at this year's auction. The upcoming sale includes only bulls because 60 bred cows were sold last October 16 at a special Wye herd reduction sale.

Last year's annual sale, held April 3, brought $141,150 for 43 yearling bulls, four cows and eight heifers. The average price for bulls at the April 3 sale was $1,852; for cows, $5,475; and for calves, $4,950

The Wye Angus herd was donated to the University of Maryland Foundation in 1978 by Arthur Houghton. Named for Houghton's Wye Plantation, the herd is managed by the Agricultural Experiment Station at the Wye Research and Education Center in Queen Anne's

The center is located seven on Maryland's Eastern Shore, or 31/2 miles south of U.S. Highway 50, on Carmichael-Wye Neck Road.

Md. To Provide Technical Help To Soviet Armenia

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced the final agreement on a new joint agricultural research project between the University of Maryland, Maryland Department of Agriculture, and the Soviet Union to provide technical assistance on soil erosion projects in Armenia.

As part of the project, technical experts from the United States will visit Armenia this summer to collect soil samples, study erosion mapping, and the use of soils in environmental planning in the areas of Yerevan and Kiev.

"The people of Armenia have suffered tremendously because of the 1989 earthquake. This project will help demonstrate America's continuing commitment to the Armenians,"

Governor Schaefer said. United States institutions participating are the Soil Conservation Service, Cooperative State Research Service, Agricultural Research Service, and the University of Maryland.

Trend Shows More Consumers Buying Direct From Producers

Many Maryland agricultural products are moving along a more direct route to consumers these days, thanks to a boom in farmers' markets and establishments of a regional market complex which features wholesale auction sales. At the same time, they are finding new export channels. Statistics from 1989 show 32 retail farmers' markets operating in 17 Maryland counties and in Baltimore; 13 wineries selling directly to consumers; 30 grape growers selling directly to the public; about 50 pick-your-own fruit and vegetable farm operations; more than 100 farmer-operated roadside markets; at least 61 Christmas tree growers; and dozens of other operations involving direct farm sales of things like nursery products, turigrass and meat. Reversing a trend which saw wholesale auction markets pass from the Maryland scene in the 1960s and 1970s, a successful wholesale produce auction market was established last year as part of the Southern Maryland Farmers' Market complex at Cheltanham in Prince George's County, and a very successful wholesale and tail-gate market, Mountain Fresh Producers, ended its second season in Garrett

Maryland producers pioneered last year a unique type of marketing with a test of the new "Maryland With Pride" Farm Market aimed at interstate highway travelers on the Kennedy Expressway (I-95) in Cecil County

Export efforts have been stepped up by many companies finding new global markets for such items as Christmas trees, seafood, spices and fresh produce. Maryland now has a very active marketing effort underway for agricultural products in Canada

All of these activities offer benefits to Maryland farmers by helping the state diversify its agricultural base, reduce the 'middleman bite" on the food dollar, increase sales of valueadded items, give farmers and processors a wider choice of market outlets, and help retain a strong agribusiness support

Another new wrinkle in farmers' markets was added in 1989 and will be continued this year. It involves a coupon program to acquaint welfare recipients in the federal WIC (Women, Infants and Children) program with the quality and appeal of buying at farmers' markets. Program participants in Baltimore and five Maryland counties (including Garrett) were issued coupons which could be used to make purchases of fresh produce at cooperating markets. The trend to more direct marketing and increased exports by Maryland farmers and food processors fits in well with the theme of this year's National Agriculture Week theme - "Honoring America's

The Soviet counterpart institutions are VASKNIL and V.V. Dokuchaev Soil Institute.

Governor Schaefer will be visiting Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union May 5 to 17. One of the major purposes of the trip will be to increase the types of exchanges taking place this summer between Maryland and Armenia.

All I Ever Really Needed To Know I Learned In Kindergarten

Editor's Note: Robert Fulghum, a well-known writer and convention speaker, wrote the following essay, "All I Ever Really Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten." The essay, which has become quite popular for the truth it relays, was repeated by speaker Richard McFerson at the 1989 Maryland Farm Bureau Convention last December, and was repeated by speaker Brooks Hamilton at the March 1 Agronomy Meeting in Bittinger. I feel it worth repeating again, and I hope you all enjoy it.

"Most of what I really need to know about how to live, and what to do, and how to be, I learned in kindergarten. Wisdom was not at the top of the graduate school mountain, but there in the sandbox at nursery school.

'These are the things I learned: Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess. Don't take things that aren't yours. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody. Wash your hands before you eat. Flush. Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you. Live a balanced life. Learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work everyday some.

'Take a nap every afternoon. When you go out into the world, watch for traffic, hold hands and stick together. Be aware of wonder. Remember the little seed in the plastic cup. The roots go down and the plant goes up and nobody really knows how or why, but we are all like that

'Goldfish and hampsters and white mice and even the little seed in the plastic cup - they all die. So do we.

"And then remember the book about Dick and Jane and the first word you learned, the biggest word of all: LOOK. Everythin you need to know is in there somewhere. The Golden Rule and love and basic sanitation. Ecology and politics and sane living.

"Think of what a better world it would be if we all - the whole world - had cookies and milk about 3 o'clock every afternoon and then lay down with our blankets for a nap. Or if we had a basic policy in our nation and other nations to always put things back where we found them and cleaned up our own messes. And it is still true, no matter how old you are, when you go out into the world, it is best to hold hands and stick together."

Mountain Fresh Producers Association The Mountain Fresh Producers Association has been meeting on a regular basis to plan its 1990 market season. In 1989 the association's market coordinator helped members direct market their produce to several local restaurants and grocery stores, directed buyers to farms offering pick-your-own and bulk sales, and organized a seasonal Saturday morning tailgate market in the Oakland town parking lot.

The Association's 1990 program includes expanding the tailgate market to two days a week, Saturday morning beginnning at 10:00 a.m. and Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. The market will run from August to mid-October. Increased sales to local restaurants are also anticipated. Mountain Fresh members include producers from Garrett County, Md., and Tucker and Preston Counties, W.Va. Members marketed not only vegetables and fruits, but crafts, maple products, honey, flowers,

The association is looking for new members. There is no membership fee for anyone applying before June 1, 1990, the regular $10.00 fee will be assessed after that date. Membership in the association includes use of the Mountain Fresh name and logo, reduced set-up fee at the tailgate market and services of the association's market coordinator for restaurant sales.

Anyone interested may contact the Garrett County Extension Office at 334-1990, or any of the association's board members: Jim Fearer, Ed Grose, Barb Sanders, Bob Cooper, Elmer Maust, Vicki Weeks, and Robert Jones. The next meeting is scheduled for April 5, 1990 at the Extension Office at 7:00 p.m.

by Karen F. Spiker Last week the men's basketball team sponsored by A&A Realty/Better Homes & Gardens won the championship in the Mt. Top Basketball League. Those team members include the following individuals: Kevin Liller, Steve Liller, Kenny Niner, Bill Weissgerber Jr., Ted Raynovich, Greg Shockey, Jim Bosley, Dave Shotwell.

It is worth noting that each of these individuals apply the same hard work and energy to their daily lives and careers that they put forth on the basketball court. Each of them are adamant advocates of "SAY NO TO DRUGS" and live that example every day.

I am proud to have been a sponsor of this team and of many other teams throughout Garrett County including: Volleyball, Little League Baseball (boys), Little League Softball (girls), Mens' Softball League, Over 30 Basketball League, High School Band Programs, High School Athletic Programs, Wisp Ski Racing, Canaan Valley Ski Racing, Aerobic Diehards, Garrett Gymnastics.

As parents and members of the community, let us all join together to continue to support these teams and extra-curricular activities. By providing many wholesome activities for participation by our young people, their lives will hopefully be too full for drug use to even be considered. And as they grow older, they can set the example for the future generations just as our team members listed above have done throughout the years.

We salute our Championship winners not only for playing winning basketball, but also for setting a shining example for our youth. THANKS TEAM!

YES, HE IS WATER SKIING, and yes, that is snow you see in the lower right of the photo. The snow skiing season ended just a little too abruptly for several local young men, so they donned wet suits, fired up the motorboat, and turned to water skiing this past Sunday on Deep Creek Lake, despite the fact that the air temperature was 33 degrees and the water temperture was a "refreshing" 43

Oakland Firm Returns Per Day

Maryland State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein says The Data Entry Company (TDEC) of Oakland has helped process over 60,000 Maryland income tax returns since the firm began providing data entry services to the state income tax division in late February. "They've been averaging 5,000 returns a day, which is a great rate," the comptroller said.

TDEC employees use up to 92 computer terminals during one and one-half shifts each day to enter specific information from state income tax returns onto computer tapes which are promptly returned to the State Comptroller's Office for processing. The tax forms include the short Form 503, long Form 502, and nonresident Forms 505 and 515.

The large number of Maryland income tax returns that are received during the January to April filing season sometimes makes it necessary for the state to contract with private firms to help enter the data provided by taxpayers onto computer tapes for processing. The data entry function is the most time consuming of the processing steps.

"TDEC's speed and accuracy in entering the data onto computer tapes has helped our office mail state refund checks back to taxpayers more quickly than ever this year. That's why we've proud to have them on the team." Goldstein said.

Maryland State Police are in- Swanton, with one passenger, vestigating an apparent head- Dennis Glenn Miller, 18, Swanon collision which occurred ton, was slowing to a stop Tuesday afternoon between a behind Jackson's vehicle in a school bus and a GMC truck.

Brian James Miller, 24, Jones Mills. Pa., was northbound in a GMC truck on Piney Run Road, approximately three and a half iles north of alternate U.S. Rt. 40, when his vehicle apparently collided head-on with a school bus headed southbound on Piney Run Road.

Charlotte Mae Spiker, 31, Frostburg, was operating the schoolbus, with one passenger, 16- year-old boy. Spiker and the boy were uninjured in the accident

Miller apparently had to be extricated from the wreckage by Frostburg firefighters, with a "jaws of life" tool. Miller apparently sustained a broken leg and facial injuries in the accident and was listed in stable condition this morning at Hospital. Memorial Cumberland.

According to Tpr. S.H. Anderson, the incident is still under investigation. It is unclear at this time which vehicle crossed the center line, causing the col-

10 Years For Child Sex Abuse

An Oakland man was sentenced to 10 years in prison for child abuse and sexual offenses during a trial held last Thursday in Garrett County Circuit Court.

Jackie Kenerson Glaze, 59, Oakland, was sentenced to 10 years in the Maryland Department of Corrections after he was found guilty of seven counts of child abuse and sexual offenses at his February 8 trial. #### Garrett County Extension Office Documents Over 150 Antique Quilts

OVER ONE AND A HALF CENTURIES OLD, this quilt bearing "The Rambler Rose" pargern is the oldest of more than 150 locally owned quilts documented recently by the Garrett County branch of the Maryland Extension Homemakers Council. The state-funded project is part of a statewide effort to photograph and record the history of Maryland quilts made between 1634 and 1934. Elizabeth Suter, wife of McHenry area farmer Noah Pysell, made the above quilt, which measures 80 by 83 inches, entirely by hand in 1824. The French couple belonged to the United Brethren Church and are buried in the Pysell Cemelery in Fiatwoods. Merrell Wilburn, of Accident, owner of the guilt, inherited it from his mother, Rebecca Wilburn, in 1970. The local Homemakers Council is planning a public slide presentation of all quilts recorded during the project, carried out in Accident, Grantsville, Oakland, Swanton and Gortner. The quilts were photographed by Elizabeth Fife and analyzed by Earleena Tressler, both of Grantsville. Photo by Elizabeth Fife.

More than 150 local quilts made before 1948, one of them 166 years old, have been documented recently by the Garrett County branch of the Maryland Extension Homesimilar efforts statewide finished or unfinished, has a unique story to tell," either through its present owner, fabric, batting, pattern or finish, said area project supervisor Earleena Tressler, of Grantsville, president of the county Homemakers Council. "Regardless of (each quilt's) condition, the historic value of these heirlooms has been permanently preserved by identifying the quilt maker, materials used, construction, history of the quilt and the owner," she said.

Using state grants, each Maryland county has duplicated the comprehensive undertaking. Originally, state specifications limited the project to quilting between 1634 and 1934, but Garrett County extended the latter date to 1948.

Locally, the oldest quilt identified was made entirely by hand in 1824 by one Elizabeth Suter, wife of a McHenry area farmer Noah Pysell. The couple, who were of French ancestry, belonged to the United Brethren Church and are buried in the Pysell Cemetery in Flatwoods. Merrell Wilburn, Accident, owner of the quilt, inherited it from his mother, Rebecca Wilburn, in 1970.

Documentation included photographing each quilt with three varying exposures of color print film ("bracketing") and two exposures of color slide film. Members of the various Homemakers Clubs assisted the work at Accident, Grantsville, Oakland, Swanton, and Gortner. Elizabeth Anne Fife, of Grantsville, donated equipment and labor for the actual photography.

The county is seeking grants to publish its resultant records and photographs in book form. A public slide presentation is CATCHING UP IS HARD TO DO when there just isn't enough money to make ends meet on a monthly basis, explains Linda Moon, an Oakland resident and the mother of four young children, who is caught in a situation of trying to feed and clothe her family on a very small budget. Although there doesn't seem to be a lack of love and affection in this family, there may very soon be a lack of heat in the house. Linda has accumulated a large gas bill and has little hope of making a sufficient payment by this weekend to keep the service connected. 'Why is this our problem? -We have our own problems and bills to pay and mouths to feed.

As she talked, however, it became less difficult to cast her as "one of those." Her clean, neat appearance was shared by her son, a well-behaved, brighteyed, loved child, who did not cling desperately to his mother and, likewise, was not oblivious to her or those around him.

As his mother absentmindedly stroked his hair, she continued with her story.

"I was dumb when I got my divorce," she said. It seemed that everything her husband and she owned, had been, at his urging, put into her name only. So when the split came, she alone was responsible for paying off the bills they had incurred together. "I just couldn't keep up," she said.

Can middle- and upper-class Americans set themselves completely apart from a woman who trusted that her way of life - the raising of children with a husband - was a good way of life? The trust of those who love. The trust of those who assume an interdependent relationship with a spouse. The disillusionment of those who discover too late the ultimate responsibility in caring for oneself and four children.

In his book, The New American Poverty, Michael Harrington states, "In the sixties there was economic growth, political and social movement, hope. What was shocking was that poverty existed at all, and the very fact that it did was an incitement to abolish it. Even then...suburbanization was removing the middle class from daily contact with the poor. In our geography, as in our social structure, we were becoming two nations." So, if there is one lucky break for Linda Moon, it is that she ended up in Garrett County where urbanization is certainly not to be blamed for a lack of caring or concern, where the numbers of people are small enough that it is not easy to look the other way or to be easily anesthetized to those who have fallen through the cracks of

Harrington goes on to say that "...where the sixties spoke of possiblilities, the eighties were forced to become aware of limits, which, some assumed, wrongly, were ugly necessities to be imposed on those at the bottom of the society. In the process, America has lost its own generous vision of what it might be."

Harrington also points out that, while the word "poor" has good connotations, "welfare" is a bad word associated with a lazy, cheating element of society. While social scientists will concede that there is certainly a percentage of welfare recipients who fit the stereotypical mold, one quite often finds a much higher percentage of those who don't.

Linda Moon fails to fit the stereotype of the welfare recipient. She did not bear four children to be financilly rewarded (as if that renumeration could possibly provide a comfortable life for either her or them). She does not live in waste among material trappings - her meagerly-furnished apartment is tidy and clean. She does not use drugs or alcohol. If she did, her chances of receiving help would be greatly improved. She does not let her children "run the streets." They have a schedule that includes the homework-before-play rule.

And she does not let her pitifully poor allowance slip through her fingers. (She knows exactly how much money she has, what is spent for each and every bill and how long - most of the time - it will last.

She is careful. She is prudent. But she is a victim.

She does not appear to blame the system and she does not argue or find fault with the gas company for expecting payment. She has neither the time nor the energy for such musings...she's struggling in a hopeless situation to keep her head above water and her children warm comfortable.

***** Incidently, Linda realizes that her gas payment is far too high for her current budget and, in order to correct that problem, has applied to Habitat for Humanity for housing that would make more efficient use of the heating source. She learned, however, this week that she does not meet the income guidelines required for

and Lisa, 10-year-old twins, "TC," Linda's 14-month-old (who seems to be ahead of the game in writing skills), and eight-yearold Jessica. An unpaid gas bill looms over the household as Linda spends sleepless nights wondering if a miracle will happen to keep the heat from being turned off

Linda also called this week to Matthew Cathell say that she had applied for a job that she thinks she may be able to handle because of the hours. Unfortunately, the pay WVU Auditions she would receive is just slightly higher than her welfare payments, so the extra money the gas bill. Linda's deadline for payment is April 1, at which time the gas company will be forced to disconnect her service. After April 1, the company is not obligated to keep the gas on for heating purposes because, of course, it is assumed that the weather is sufficiently warm after that time. However, that is not usually the case in Garrett County, and Linda's water is also heated with gas. It is, indeed, a chilling prospect to conceive of a cold-water bath this

In Dire Straits . . .

We have a somewhat unique feature article this week in The Republican, one that we believe should be accompanied by some editorial comment. The story concerns an Oakland woman who is in a desperate financial situation that could result in the termination of gas service to her apartment within just a few days. Having explored all of the avenues and agencies known to her for assistance and coming away empty-handed, she stopped by our office to ask if, as a last resort, we might be able to help her write a letter to the editor explaining her problem.

We made the decision to do a full story about this mother of four young children (see page 3-A) in an attempt to locate some kind of help for her, from where and from whom we really do not know. When we made this decision, we realized that we might be accused of sensationalism. We realized that we would be running the risk of being inundated with calls from many other persons in similar situations. Yet, after listening to her story, we felt an overwhelming compulsion to try to DO something to help.

We know that Linda Moon is only one of many victims who for various reasons have fallen through the cracks of our society, despite the existence of so many agencies that are designed to provide relief. Our hope is that by telling her story we will spark a response from more fortunate people to come not only to her rescue, but also to the rescue of so many other desperate souls out there

If Mrs. Moon and her children were burned out of her home, she would be overwhelmed with clothing, furniture, and money by friends, neighbors, and many local folks who do not know her. If her gas is turned off next week, she and her children will be unable to stay in her apartment and will have nowhere to go.

Garrett County takes great pride in, and has the track record to back up, the fact that it is a caring community that comes to the aid of those in need. We hope that there is a response to this woman and her family, from churches, clubs, service organizations, businesses, and individuals. Further, we hope that the assistance extends beyond this family to others who, through no fault of their own, are in such dire straits.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: Does anyone enjoy the WOODED peacefulness of skiing, hiking and bike riding rington Manor State Park? Is this an area for wildlife to be observed and an attraction for out-of-town visitors to enjoy some of Garrett County's uniqueness? This area is about to be changed. The Forestry Division of the DNR has decided to "selectively" log this area that is criss-crossed by trails. This will denude the area, the trails will be disturbed, wildlife disrupted and the area will be left with piles of tree tops that are useless to a logger and stumps left protruding from the ground. All this will be in an area immediately adjacent to a State Park This land has been in recreational use for many years and should not be subjected to logging as is done with other state forest lands. A lot of time and money has been invested by the State and by private interested citizens to create this recreational area. If you want to join our effort to stop this logging of a recreational area please contact a member of the Herrington Manor State Park Advisory Committee to lend your support to helping preserve this recreational area. Scott Hollingsworth Sharon Teets Roger Strouse Wendy Bauer Peg Kaiser Larry Burch Rhonda Short

To the Editor:

Members of the Garrett County Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse have encountered a number of people, some of them in positions of authority, who state they are not aware that Garrett County has a drug

It is difficult to determine whether these people believe what they are saying or merely hoping to ignore the problems that do exist until they go away.

In an effort to assist them in one area, we have published a "box score" of alcohol and drug abuse violators. The court actions are already printed in The Republican. We only condensed them to stimulate awareness. Please note that under DWI cases, a few are found not guilty. We do not have room for all statistics. In other cases, the judges of both courts may order sentence investigation and no sentence is imposed until after the investigation is complete. That sentence will appear in the following publication. That alone may lead one to believe that someone was found guilty, but not sentenced. This may not be true. Look for the results in the next report.

On the other hand, a jail sentence may be for 48 hours or two years. We do not differentiate. A jail sentence after conviction

To the Editor: Apparently Governor Schaefer is just another phony politician. He talks incessantly about a caring, people oriented administration, but when he was given a clear-cut example of bureaucratic oppression of a small community, he didn't even have the civility to respond to our letters requesting his assistance. Instead he callously threw us to the very wolves we were attempting to call to his attention.

On Tuesday of this week, the Department of the Environment spent thousands of taxpayer's dollars to destroy the old, fully functional, town water system of the small un-incorporated town of Shallmar. The fact that the system was prudently used as a back-up to the new "imposed" water system (which some of the residents can barely afford - a 6000 gal min. allowance per quarter is in place, the lowest min. allowance in the county, in one of its poorest communities) probably had more to do with the Department of the Environment's Gestapo like actions than their weak, and mostly unsupported lament portraying a constantly used, 70-year-old water system with never a harmful result, as "serious threat to public health and safety." Residents of

is a graphic example of your State Bureaucracy in action.

Closer to home, I suggest the voters of Garrett County ask their elected county commissioner why they allow the County Sanitary District to impose a paltry 6,000 gal. min. allowance on the impoverished townspeople of Shallmar, while the residents of Kitzmiller, for whom the system was originally intended, are afforded 10,000 gallons at an identical min. rate? To add insult to un-affordable injury. the water bills Shallmar residents receive do not reflect true meter readings. It is not at all uncommon for the actual metered usage to read less than the reading on the bill two weeks after the period being billed. The combination of an unusually low min. allowance and a cavalier handling of the meter readings has pushed some people over the min. allowance in quarters they were actually under the min.

In one recent instance, a retired couple supposedly used 28,000 gals. in the three month period ending February 28, yet the meter had not even reached the amount indicated for the period ending 2/28 two weeks later, or 3/14. When asked how this could be, the Sanitary District office responded, "The meters were actually read on 3/11 for the period ending 2/28, and they round-off to the nearest hundred." Think about that for a moment. Aside from the fact that they are arbitrarily adding 11 days usage on people who begin with only a 6,000 gal. allowance, the retired couple using water at a rate in excess of 300 gal. per day (28,000 gal. in 90 days - says the meter) had still not reached the billed amount three days after the meter reading on 3/11. They must round them off to the near-

What's that you say . . couldn't happen to you? My friend, when the people in charge allow such things to happen to those who can least afford it, it's already happening to you . . . you just don't know where or when. Let's get the broom out in November!

This is for Mr. Kitchens (Smithsburg High School coach): We no longer have children in Northern High School and have nothing in the problems of the basketball team or coach. Neither has Mr. Kitchens. We are certainly fortunate we never had him as a coach or teacher when our children were in school. He seems to have been taught bad manners and ignorance as displayed by his remarks to the Northern athletes. These young people work very hard. Mr. Kitchens should be taught constructive criticism if he wants to say anything, not derogatory remarks. Perhaps he should "shut up" until he has been taught good manners.

To the Editor: I am writing concerning last week's letter written by George Garrett Jr. In a way, I sincerely believe that the laws of Maryland are unfair and are not legally enforced. It was my daughter who was removed from the home because of some allegations against my husband. The day that the investigator from the Garrett County Sheriff's Department came to my house and told me of the allegations was the first I had heard about this and he told me that my husband and I had to be day. When I had heard what was said in court. I was very confused and upset and didn't know what to do. I thought that everyone was just trying to hurt me by taking my daughter away from me.

The Garrett County Sheriff's Department arrested my husband on February 13, for the following charges: third degree sex offense, assault and battery, and child abuse. He was placed on $2500 bond and was out of jail in 10 days on 10% of the bond. On March 1 he went for a preliminary hearing in District Court and his bond remained the same.

I guess that the state's attorney and the investigator didn't have enough solid evidence to find him guilty of the charges, so now they want him to plead guilty on a lesser charge. The lesser charge is fourth degree sex offense. The state's attorney told me that if he pleads guilty to the lesser charge, he will only have to serve an approximate time of six months in the Garrett County jail. I've been going through a lot of pain without my daughter being with me. The Protective Service Agency placed my daughter with my mother. I know that my daughter is receiving very good care and she loves her grandmother very much.

I love my daughter with all my heart and I would never hurt her in any way at all. If for some reason the Circuit Court judge feels that she shouldn't come home yet, I hope he decides to let her stay with my mother. My mother loves her with all her heart and at least I know that she will be safe and taken care of. She is really happy and comfortable staying with my mother and if for some reason the judge would consider letting my first husband keep her, then I feel that it would be a big mistake. He doesn't have a telephone or reasonable transportation in case my daughter would get sick and need medical attention. He isn't the type of person to sit at home with a really sick child. She needs someone who cares and loves her very much - someone to tuck her into bed at night and kiss and hug her good night. She needs a mother figure, and if she can't be with me then I pray

I am trying to get my life back together and it is very hard for me to do. I am attending the Diesel Institute of America and, as soon as I graduate on May 24, I have a job lined up. It will take me a while to get my life back on track, but if I don't get my daughter back on the 29th of this month, I will never stop fighting for her because she is my life. A very painful situation, what would you call the Maryland State Lottery? Are the business people of Garrett and Allegany counties doing anything more severe than the State of Maryland? Percentage wise, how many people play a poker machine versus the Maryland State Lottery? How many of these people playing the Maryland State Lottery are receiving public assistance, spending their last dollar to purchase a ticket, thinking that by morning thev may be instant millionaires? I believe the State must have blindfolds or when I see such people purchase State Lotto tickets. How can some organizations hold events like Las Vega Night, playing black jack and numerous games of gambling, and was there a federal stamp purchased for their gambling night? Also, how could any organization hold such functions with no gambling allowed in our county? I, too, wonder how many of our leaders in this county attended and participated in these affairs? .

Garrett County is the poorest county in the state, tariff wise, and many of our small business places subsidize income from these poker machines to pay electric bills and etc., to provide for their families and to remain

We also have no Sunday sales of alcohol in this county, which I feel should be opened and brought up to vote. How many out-of-state vacationers own property in our county yet bring their own liquor across state lines into our county, taking away our revenue? All other counties have Sunday sales. Why not reap from this county rather than our surrounding counties and neighboring states reaping benefits which would help to lower our taxes? Getting back to the matter of poker machines; I feel it's a shame that our good, decent hard working citizens of Garrett County are being punished for trying to make a living and are not breaking the law any more than the State of Maryland is doing. So, therefore I ask . what is gambling

Who's right and who's wrong As I see it, gambling is gambling, as Webster's Dic tionary definition states; unless, of course, the State of Maryland has a definition of their own.

Abortion Issue Dead In Assembly. But FSU Funding Threats Remain

According to District 1-A Delegate George C. Edwards, the House of Delegates were faced with doing one of two things, killing both the bills or Gambling according to passing both of them. As it was, he said, the two bills sent to the House by the Senate, one expressing anti-abortion views, the other, pro-choice, were both "very confusing and both contained questions of constitutionality. The abortion issue apparently brought out other issues, including the threat of funding for the Performing Arts Center at Frostburg State University, which the Allegany and Garrett County delegations have worked hard to obtain. It was reported during the end of the filibuster that District One Senator John N. Bambacus was considered an important "swing vote" on the issue, meaning that if the prochoice side could obtain his

The unusual ending to the eight-day abortion filibuster would have required the House of Delegates to pass two measures, one permitting abortion to remain widely available in Maryland and the other to restrict abortions in most cases. If the House had voted passage of both bills, the issue would then have gone to the voters.

Sheriff's Dept. Arrests Oakland Man For Theft

The Garrett County Sheriff's Department arrested an Oakland man on theft and vandalism charges last Friday.

Samuel Pheo Polce, 19, was picked up a short distance from the scene of the alleged crimes by Deputy J.D. Murphy, assisted by a Maryland State Police K-9 Unit.

Polce was charged with felony theft, misdemeanor theft, felony breaking and entering, two counts of conspiracy, and two counts of destruction of property.

Police allegedly broke into buildings owned by C.W. Builders and the Potomac Edison Company, Oakland.

He is currently being housed in the Garrett County Jail in lieu of $25,000.

In a separate case, Lonnie Clifton Bucy, 27, Frostburg, was arrested March 21 on a warrant and charged with distribution of marijuana, possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia. The arrest was the result of an undercover investigation conducted by the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force. According to a spokesperson for the Task Force, more arrests are pending. Bucy was later released from police custody on $2,500

Dannie Stemple, 35, Mountain Lake Park, was arrested March 21 on the strength of a bench warrant charging him with violation of probation. Deputy Murphy made the arrest. Stemple was later released on $2,000 unsecured bond.

Gary Eugene Feller, 22, Mountain Lake Park, was arrested Tuesday and charged with trespassing on Southern High School grounds. According to the arresting officer Deputy C.P. Nolan, Feller was apprehended when he drove his 1976 jeep onto the school parking lot after being told to keep off of school grounds. He was later released on $300 bond. Baltimore, was arrested Sunday and charged with driving while intoxicated. Deputy Murphy made the arrest along Route 219 North at Glendale Road. Barker was also charged with driving with a suspended license. He was released after posting $300 bond. Kelly J. Sorenson, 20 and Mark Blake, 23, both of Morgantown, W.Va., were each arrested Tuesday and charged with possession of marijuana and possession of paraphernalia. Deputy Murphy made the arrest after stopping the pair along Route 219 for a routine traffic violation. Both men were released from police custody after posting $250 bond.

GLAF Program To Focus Upon Creative Women

The next Garrett Lakes Arts Festival program in the Arts and Humanities series "America: Cultural Roots and Offshoots" will be a presentation by Dr. Ellen Grolman Schlegel and Susan Allen of Frostburg State University on "The Creative Woman in Music and Literature." This program will be presented at the Friendsville Elementary School on Friday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m. It is open to the public, free of charge. The discussion will begin with a consideration of barriers creative women have faced in expressing their artistic talents frequent discouragement, denial of formal training, lack of opportunity to perform and to publish, and, most importantly, the lack of recognition by the art establishment of the value of works by women artists and

"bland pages" that should have been filled by women, the discussion will move to focus on the hard-won changes that have broken down some of the barriers to women's creativity. and to some of the sources of inspiration women artists and writers have found. The presenters will consider the detection of differences in the compositional style and pacing in the works of women writers and musicians, and the possibility of the existence of a distinct creative process for

The program will include a discussion of important women working today in the music and literary worlds - the strategies they employ and the subjects and genres that compel them. Excerpts and tapes of their works will be heard.

This program is being made possible with funding from a grant by the Maryland Humanities Council, an affiliate of the National Endowment for Humanities. Dr. Gail Herman is project director.

Building Trades Class Underway At GCC Campus

Building Trades classes are now underway at Garrett Community College, according to Sandy Major, GCC program coordinator.

Students in the class begin their studies by learning basic math for carpenters, building trade terms, blueprint reading, and retail selling fundamentals. They just completed "hands learning in frame carpentry and are now specializing in either masonry or electrical and finish carpentry. Throughout the 15-week, 600-hour training program, they have been learning building techniques by constructing a small building.

Once students have demonstrated competencies in all areas, they will be ready to join the local work force as carpenter helpers, masonry helpers, or electrician helpers. They also are prepared to function in retail sales associated with the building trades and in the manufacturing of building materials, as well as in service, remodeling, and maintenance positions. "A number of extremely well qualified applicants will soon be seeking employment," Ms. Major said. Employers who would like to review resumes and learn more about the students capabilities are encouraged to contact Sue or Sandy at 337-6666, ext. 169.

The first meeting of the new mayor, William J. White, and two new council persons, Crystal Shaffer and Frank Reel, met Monday evening for discussions concerning Kitzmiller's Community Park.

The town will be building men's and women's restrooms and a tiny tot play area near the pavilion in the park, which should be completed this spring. Funding for the Kitzmiller Community Park, located near the Kitzmiller Elementary School, has come through Program Open Space and must be used by June 31.

The Mayor and town council also reviewed rules and regulations for use of the park, which are: no public use of the pavilion during school hours, reservations for use of the pavilion must be made 24 hours in advance and there is no charge, no bicycles or skateboards in the pavilion, no alcoholic beverages, and litter must be disposed of properly. For more information on the use of the pavilion or reservations, contact the Kitzmiller

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my son "Dink" who died on Good Friday, April 1, 1983. It is lonely here without you, so sad along life's way. Life does not seem the same to me, since you were called away. It broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone, for part of me went with you that day God called you home They say time heals all sorrow and helps us to forget, but time so far has only proved how much I miss you yet. Dearly loved, fondly remembered and sadly missed

Mr. Johnson was born in Hazleton, Luzerne County, Pa., on September 17, 1910, the son of Howard Bevan and Anna Catherine (Wolfe) Johnson. In 1929, after completing high school with honors, he entered Pennsylvania State College where he majored in forestry and graduated in June 1933, with outstanding accomplishments in both athletics and

In 1933 he was appointed a junior forester with the U.S. Forest Service and was assigned duty in several Civilian Conservation Corps camps in Pennsylvania. In 1936 he accepted a position as CCC Camp Forester in Maryland at Swallow Falls in Garrett County. On December 1, 1941, Mr. Johnson was promoted within the Maryland Department of Forest and Parks to District Forester at Cumberland for District One which included the four western counties. In 1947 he was transferred in the same capacity to Bel Air for the fivecounty Northeastern District. He returned to Cumberland as District Forester in 1950 and remained there until 1960 when he was transferred to Annapolis as Chief of Forest Fire Control. In 1963 Mr. Johnson was promoted to Superintendent of State Parks, and in 1973 he became the Administrative Officer for the Maryland Park Service under the reorganized Department of Natural Resources.

Mr. Johnson dedicated his life to conservation of natural resources, especially in the areas of timber, watersheds, wildlife, parks, and outdoor recreation. He was involved in both the post depression recovery and reforestation efforts, as well as the post Korean War economic boom when Maryland began its accelerated expansion of state park development. The state's first modern camping area, located at Swallow Falls State Park, is named in his honor. In addition to Herrington Manor, Swallow Falls and New Germany, he was involved in the very early planning and development at Rocky Gap State Park, and assisted with major improvements at Deep Creek Lake, Greenbrier and

Cunningham Falls State Park. Mr. Johnson was also active in the Maryland Civil Defense Organization, especially in fire services, and while in Cumberland, he was involved with Troop 13 of the Boy Scouts of America. He was a long-time member of the Society of American Foresters, the Azalea Lodge No. 687, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons at Hazleton, Pa., and a past president of the Kiwanis Club of Cumberiand. He served as both deacon and ruling elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland, and Woods Memorial Presbyterian Church,

Math, Science Teachers Attend State Conference

The Maryland State Department of Education sponsored a Quantitative Literacy Conference last week for elementary, middle, and senior high school mathematics and science teachers. Held on March 22 and 23 at the Sheraton Hotel in Towson, the program was funded through the Dwight David Eisenhower Mathematics and Science Education Act with contributions from local business and industry.

Attended by approximately 300 mathematics and science teachers from 23 counties in Maryland, the conference was designed to provide a practical. in-service program on the instruction of statistical and probabilistic concepts, emphasizing both content and instructional techniques.

Teachers attending from Garrett County were: Holly Diehl, Friendsville Elementary School; Jim Hart, director of the planetarium; Maxine Miller, Accident Elementary School; Von Mosser, Northern Middle School; Joanne Rebele, Dennett Road Elementary School; and James Zimmerman, Southern High School.

Rams Roll Past Hampshire, 12-3 To Win Opener

The Southern High School varsity baseball team opened its 1990 campaign on a successful note Monday afternoon by rolling over the Hampshire High Trojans, 12-3, in Romney. The Potomac Valley Conference win kicked off an 18-game season for Coach Jim Bosley and the Rams, who hope to improve on their 8-7 finish last season.

The contest against Hampshire was called after the seventh inning because of darkness

The Rams took a 3-0 lead in the top of the third inning on a Trojan error and singles by Dave Upole, Marshall Pike, and Brett Rice.

Hampshire came back with three runs in the bottom of that same frame, as Steven Davis led off with a single, was driven home by Kevin Combs, and then Combs and Roger Barnes were brought home on a double by Bill Casto. That was to be all of the scoring by the Trojans on the afternoon

The Rams took the lead for good in the fifth, scoring two runs on a walk, two infield errors, and two passed balls.

Southern made it 8-3 in the sixth with an RBI single by Upole and a two-run double by Shawn Ryan.

Three bases-loaded walks and one hit by the Rams in the seventh inning accounted for the final four runs of the game, as Rice was credited with the win on the mound over Combs. Rice allowed six hits, yielded seven walks, and struck out five year. in six innings.

Combs, a senior for Coach for the Rams is senior Kevin Don Davis's Trojans, fanned nine batters and yielded just home runs (3) and RBI's (19). one walk and one earned run in five innings of work.

World Series last season. recorded four runs in the fourth inning on two errors, a passed ball, and a three-run double by Bob Sutton.

Carman Moon, who was relieved by Mark Rohrbaugh in the fourth, took the loss on the mound for the Lakers.

A two-run double by Tony Warner in the bottom of the seventh inning against Wabash in Friday's re-match gave the Lakers their 5-4 revenge.

Wabash took a 1-0 lead in the top of the fourth, but the Lakers tied it in the bottom of that frame when Warner led off with a single and scored on a two-out single by Harbaugh.

After another single run by Wabash, the Lakers took a 3-2 advantage in the fourth when Staley and Chapman singled, advanced on a sacrifice by Chris Miller, and came home on a two-run single by Dwayne Woodring. Wabash, ranked 15th in the nation in a pre-season poll, knotted the score with a single run in the sixth and went on top 4-3 in the seventh when Washington tripled and then scored on a single by Craig. A single by Staley and a walk by Chapman, followed by another sacrifice by Miller, set up Warner's winning double in the bottom of the seventh.

Warner led the Lakers with a double and two singles, Leichliter rapped a double and a single, Staley recorded two singles, and Woodring added a two-run single. Chapman, who walked seven and struck out five, recorded his second win in three starts for the Lakers.

Mick Bayle's hitting performance highlighted the win over Columbus State in Friday's second game, as he entered the smack a home run, two doubles, and a single, plus score four

Harbaugh added two doubles and three RBI, Steve Ujcic 9-11. finished with a double and a single, and Irvin Johnson added two singles in the Lakers' 13-hit

Four walks and an infield error by the Lakers in the bottom Hoyes, and Karen Spiker, of the third inning resulted in Oakland and Deep Creek Lake, seven runs and a 7-6 lead for Columbus State. RBI doubles by Bayle and Harbaugh in the fourth gave the Lakers the lead

After Laker starter Scott Lohr got into trouble in the third, Mark Rohrbaugh took the mound and gave up only one hit the rest of the way to up his record to 2-0 and keep his ERA to under 2.00.

In the first game on Saturday, the Laker bats were nearly silent, as two Normandale pitchers allowed only two hits.

The Lions scored all the runs they would need in the second inning by recording two on three singles and an error. Four hits and a pair of walks in the third resulted in their other five runs, putting the Lakers behind

Garrett averted the shutout by scoring one run in the fifth on three walks and two steals and then added their final two scores in the seventh on a triple by Leichliter.

Mike Berlin took the loss on the mound. The final contest of the series Saturday afternoon against CCAC-South was a see-saw affair that saw the Lakers race to a 5-0 lead in the first inning, only to have South come back for four runs in the second, two in the fourth, one in the fifth, and three in the sixth, before GCC recorded seven in the bottom of the sixth to secure the 12-11 win. A double by Bayle in the first inning sent home Johnson for the first run of the game, which was followed by a two-run double by Woodring and a two-run single by Scooter Browning that scored Woodring and Ujcic. A two-run double by Lovas highlighted CCAC's four-run second inning and Bradley knocked home two South runs in the fourth to give them a 6-5 lead.

The Tigers scored another run in the fifth and then went on top 10-5 with three runs in the sixth behind another two-run double by Bradley.

Johnson started the rally for the Lakers in the bottom of the sixth by smacking a three-run triple that scored Woodring, Browning, and Chapman. After an RBI single by Warner and a bunt single by Weichliter, Bayle rapped another two-run triple and then scored on a throwing

Carmen Moon, who pitched just the final two innings and gave up one final Tiger run in the seventh, was credited with

> by Tracy Teats NHS Student

You've seen the big-time, hot shot professional wrestlers on television, right? Have you ever wondered where they started their careers? Well, now's your chance to find out where the inspiration develops.

That's right coming to you, live, from the Northern High School gymnasium, it's -JELL-O WRESTLING!

Wednesday night, April 11, is the moment of truth! This is where many will find if they have true wrestling talent or not! The action starts at 7:30 p.m. and will continue throughout the evening, as participants get gooey, sticky, and slimy as they attempt to pin their opponent in the squared circle filled with Jello. There will be grudge matches, tag team events, and yes, even Northern's own lovely lady wrestlers will enter the ring in the struggle to become champion! Important community leaders will also be there to get in on the action, as well as some members from Northern's wrestling team.

So what are you waiting for? Tickets are only three dollars per student and four dollars per adult in advance, and five dollars at the door. What better way to spend an otherwise boring Wednesday night? Come on out and help Northern High School's junior class raise money for the prom. It will be a night you'll never forget! Tickets are available at Marvin's Men's Wear, Oakland: Old Mill Restaurant. Friendsville; or from any member of NHS junior class.

Girls' Softball

Tryouts Slated

Tryouts for Oakland Girls Little League Softball will be held Saturday, March 31, at 3 p.m. at Broad Ford Elementary School fields.

Girls ages nine to 12 are eligible to participate in this league.

people can take advantage of these loans. McCain stated that people wanting to apply will also be helped with completing the applications.

Don Friend, CAC Housing Services director, said that there are three or four loan programs available to help cover the cost of connecting to the sewer systems. Depending on income, some of these loans have interest rates as low as zero percent and, in some cases, can be deferred, Friend stated. A household of four members can have an income up to $33,900 and qualify for a seven percent loan. Friend also noted that there is financial assistance available to owners of rental properties, if the majority of tenants qualify under the income guidelines, and added that certain commercial properties are also eligible.

DID YOU KNOW?

by Karen F. Spiker The Better Homes & Gardens Real Estate Service has designated March 26 · April 8 for "CELEBRATION OF THE AMERICAN HOME."

Locally, we will be participating in this celebration by holding two "OPEN HOUSE" weekends. On this Sunday, April 1, several homes in the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park residential communities will be held 'OPEN" from 2:00-4:00 p.m. And the following Sunday, April 8, is the date we have set aside for properties in the general Deep Creek Lake area.

You and your family are cordially invited to visit any or all of these homes whether or not you are actively in the market for a new home. It's a great time to take advantage of the opportunity to see these homes with absolutely no obligation and with no appointment. While you're there, ask for some FREE brochures on the new Better Homes & Gardens Home Merchandising System -- ways to improve your home and enjoy it even more while you're living in it.

Come and celebrate with us. Remember, owning your own home is still the "Great American Dream".

BANANA PUDDING

3 tablespoons cornstarch

1/4 cup water

2 eggs, separated

1 teaspoon vanilla extract 18 to 24 vanilla wafers

2 medium bananas, sliced

1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar

2 tablespoons sugar

Combine 3/2 cup sugar and cornstarch in a heavy saucepan, mix well. Stir in water, mix well. Beat egg yolks, add milk, mixing well. Gradually add milk mixture to cornstarch mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture boils. Boil 1 minute, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from heat; stir in vanilla. Cool slightly. Arrange half of vanilla wafers in the bottom of a 1½ quart baking dish, spread with half of pudding. Top with banana slices. Arrange remaining wafers around the outside edge of dish. Spread with remaining pudding. Combine egg whites (at room temperature) and cream of tartar, beat at high speed of an electric mixer until foamy. Gradually add 2 tablespoons sugar, beating until stiff peaks form. Spread meringue over pudding, sealing to edge of dish. Bake at 400° for 8 to 10 minutes or until brown. Serve warm or at room temperature. Yield: 6 servings.

BANANA PIE WITH HOT BUTTERED RUM SAUCE

Pastry for double-crust 9-inch pie 7 to 8 bananas, cut into 1/8-inch slices

2 tablespoons lemon juice 1/2 cup sugar

2 tablespoons all purpose flour

½ teaspoon ground cinnamon

2 tablespoons butter or margarine Dash of ground nutmeg

Vanilla ice cream

Hot Buttered Rum Sauce Roll half of pastry to 1/8-inch thickness on a lightly floured surface. Place in a 9-inch pieplate, trim off excess pastry along edges. Combine bananas and lemon juice, tossing gently to coat bananas. Combine sugar, flour and cinnamon, mixing well, add to bananas, stirring gently. Spoon bananas into pastry shell. Dot with butter, and sprinkle with nutmeg. Roll remaining pastry to 1/8-inch thickness, transfer to top of pie. Trim of excess pastry along edges. Fold edges under, and flute. Cut slits in top of excess to stop of pie. crust for steam to escape. Bake at 450° for 30 minutes or until pie is golden brown. Serve with a scoop of vanilla ice cream and Hot Buttered Rum Sauce.

Yield: one 9-inch pie. HOT BUTTERED RUM SAUCE

1 cup sugar

2 tablespoons all purpose flour 1 cup water

1/4 cup butter or margarine

2 oranges, unpeeled and sliced 2 teaspoons rum extract

Combine sugar and flour in a saucepan, add water and butter. Bring to a boil over medium heat. Reduce heat, add orange slices, and simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove orange slices, add rum extract, stirring well. Yield: 1% cups.

BANANA-BERRY FLIP

1 cup strawberry flavored carbonated beverage 1 cup vanilla ice cream

1 medium size ripe banana, quartered 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Combine all ingredients in container of an electric blender, process mixture until smooth. Serve immediately. Yield: about 31/2 cups.

GELATIN BANANA SPLITS

8 bananas

1 3-ounce box lime gelatin ½ gallon vanilla ice cream

Whipped topping 1/4 cup nuts (chopped)

Mix gelatins according to directions on package and chill in separate dishes. When gelatin is firm, dice in little pieces. Peel bananas, slice in half and put in bottom of banana split dishes. Put a scoop of vanilla ice cream in center of banana in dish. Spoon orange gelatin on one side of ice cream and spoon lime gelatin on the other side. Put a little whipped topping over the middle of all this and sprinkle with nuts. Makes 8 servings.

BANANA SPLIT CAKE

1 cup margarine

2 cups graham crackers (crushed)

2 cups confectioners sugar

2 eggs

1 20 ounce can crushed pineapple (drained) 3 or 4 large bananas

191/2 ounce container whipped topping

3/4 cup nuts (chopped) ½ cup maraschino cherries (cut up)

Melt 1/2 cup margarine and mix with graham crackers. Spread in 13x9x2 inch pan. Chill. Cream ½ cup softened margarine, sugar and eggs at high speed in mixer and spread over first layer. Spread pineapple over second layer. Slice bananas over pineapple. Spread topping over the bananas and garnish with nuts and cherries. Chill 2 to 3 hours.

BANANA CREAM CHEESECAKE

1 box banana supreme cake mix

3 tablespoons oil

1/3 cup plus 1/2 cup brown sugar

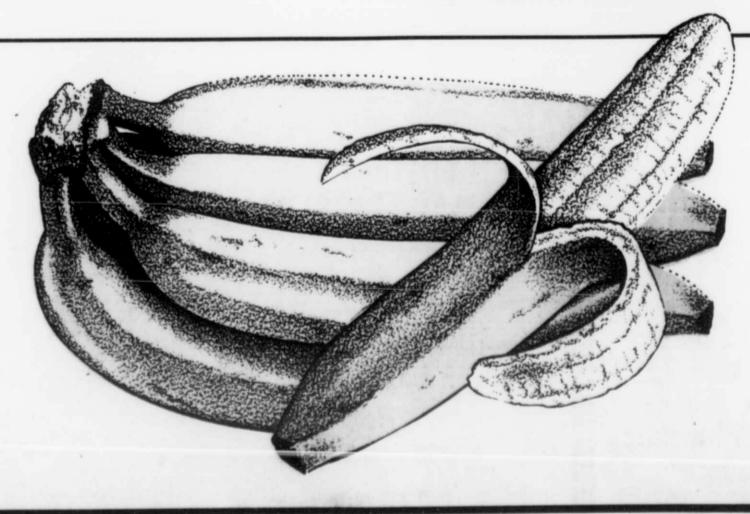

2 medium bananas (peeled and sliced) 2 8 ounce packages cream cheese (softened)

1½ cups milk

2 tablespoons lemon juice 1 (11/2-ounces) envelope whipped topping mix

Preheat oven to 300°. Reserve 1 cup of dry cake mix. Combine remaining cake mix, 1 egg, oil and 1/3 cup brown sugar in a large mixer bowl. (Mixture will be crumbly). Press crust mixture evenly into bottom and three quarters of the way up the sides of a greased 13x9x2 inch pan. (Can also be baked in two 9 inch pans for 40 to 50 minutes). Arrange banana slices on crust. In same bowl, blend cream cheese with ½-cup brown sugar. Add three eggs and reserved cake mix, beat 1 minute at medium speed. At low speed, slowly add milk and lemon juice, mix until smooth. Pour into crust. Bake at 300° for 45 to 55 minutes, or until center is firm. When cool, spread topping over cheesecake, chill before serving. Store in refrigerator or freeze covered with foil.

THE WORLD GOD MADE Peace . . . without stillness. One of the marks of the world God made Small avalanches rumble in the distant mountains as the spring thaw advances. Every hemlock sprig is bursting with new growth. In the sky as in the river there is life and motion, restlessness and questing. Peace . . . without stillness. Doesn't that tell us something about our own quest in the world God made? Peace without stillness is one of the supreme longings of mankind. It seems to happen when every thing or person realizes his mission and pursues it. This week you will have a precious opportunity to join others at the church or synagogue of your choice. WHAT IS TRUTH? April 1, 1990

Background Scripture: John 18:28 through 19:16.

Three weeks ago I said that sometimes the Christian has to play by different rules than those popularly established in the world. I could have just as easily said that we sometimes have to "march to a different drummer," but that quotation from Thoreau has been overquoted, it seems.

Our model for this kind of "difference," of course, is Jesus himself. Have you ever noticed how often Jesus seems to be playing by different rules than the rest of society? No matter what his contemporaries did or said, he refused to be compelled to play the game their way. We've already noted his different way of handling the arrest party in the Garden of Gethsemane. These people had the power of the sword to enforce their authority, but, despite his physical defenselessness, it is Jesus who seems strangely in charge of the situation.

WHO'S IN CHARGE?

This is also apparent in Jesus' appearances before Pontius Pilate, the supreme secular authority in the land. At one point, Pilate says to Jesus: "You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?" (19:10). The very fact that Pilate felt it necessary to say this indicates that he did not feel in control of the situation. Somehow that he could not fathom it was apparent that this defenseless man from Nazareth was in charge, not

Replying to Pilate's question, Jesus said: "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above" (19:11). He is saying that while Pilate has jurisdiction over the physical body of Jesus, he has no authority over his spirit. That which is really im-

A DIFFERENT KINGSHIP

when he tells Pilate, "My kingship is not of this world; if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the Jews" (18: 36). Once again, Jesus indicates that he is not playing by the same rules as Pilate and the world. His is a kingship of people's hearts and minds, a kingdom not of physical power, but spiritual power. This is something that Christians and churches sometimes forget. Apparently, however, Pilate doesn't really understand this concept and he asks. "So you are a king?" And Jesus answers, "You say that I am a king." This is your term, not mine. Then Jesus uses terminology that is more suited to his own self-understanding: "For this I was born, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth, hears my voice" (18: 37). If Pilate is "of the truth," he will understand what Jesus is saying But instead, Pilate asks that perennial question: "What is truth?" Actually, Jesus had already indicated the answer to the question, indicating that he was dealing with ultimate issues, not temporal. So the truth to which he was sent to bear witness is nothing less than the truth about ultimate reality: God. Thus, Jesus was able to say, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

'Mean Season' a taut thriller

By Steven Alan McGaw The Mean Season (1985)

I watched this again just the other night and I still get caught up in the story. Kurt Russell stars as Malcolm, a star crime reporter for the Miami Journal who's feeling burned out by the numbing horror and despair of his beat. He returns from vacation determined to tender his resignation and accept a managing editor's berth with a small paper in Colorado. That plan is aborted when Mal is quickly dispatched to the scene of a young woman's brutal murder. Just another day's work, right' Yes, but things take a turn for the weird when Mal receives a phone call from the killer, complimenting him on his work! After the killer imparts data which only he and the police could know, the reporter knows he's got a tiger and, perhaps, a Pulitzer, by the "tale." Mal gets a taste of his own profession when he becomes a reluctant celebrity for his unique relationship with the killer, and that notoriety accounts for the bitter turn their relationship soon takes. It seems the killer resents Mal's sudden fame, feeling cheated out of the rewards for which he's "doing all the work." From that point on the pace accelerates relentlessly, heading toward a desperate, brutal climax.

Mariel Hemingway gives a fine performance as Mal's schoolteacher girlfriend who longs for the peace and safety of Colorado. Andy Garcia is a likable, intense young detective and Richard Bradford excels as his edgy older partner. The film's most arresting performance, however, comes from Richard Jordan as the killer. On the whole. The Mean Season is a taut thriller which also raises an interesting question about journalists' ethics.

Bob Newhart will say goodbye to Vermont after eight seasons as innkeeper and talk show host Dick Loudon on the Newhart show. The series will end production in April with the filming of its 184th episode "I'll enjoy several months of rest and playing stand-up performances around the country, and then I'll be anxious to develop another project that brings me back to television," he said

Arnold the Pig returns to television in Return to Green Acres, a made for-television movie now in production. Arnold has two trainers, Brian McMillan in Los Angeles and Len Brooks for location filming in New York. He needs them, as there are four Arnolds. "Each pig is trained to perform a different stunt." explains McMillan. "For example, one can go up and down stairs, one can sit up, one can be picked up and one can wear clothes.

Let others read the funnies on Sunday, Richard Kline has his own way to relax "On Sunday mornings, I paint over the graffiti in my neighborhood," he says. He adds that although he may be considered a hero where he lives, he'd rather not divulge the location, fearing spraycan reprisals.

Actor relates to 'Marshall Chronicles'

New series reflects on high school life By Mary Ann Townsend

The concept of having a young boy narrate his thoughts and feelings has worked well this year for ABC, so much so that the network is trying the technique on yet another show. However there are big differences between the Fred Savage series that reminisces about suburban life in the '60s from a junior high student's perspective and The Marshall Chronicles. which features a high school senior dealing with growing up in urban New York.

The new series, premiering Wednesday, stars Joshua Rifkind as a high school student who envisions himself an outcast, one who is more intellectually mature than his classmates. Rather than verbalizing his impressions of high school life as the action is happening in the show, as is done in The Wonder Years, Marshall Brighton gives a monologue describing the events about o happen to him, his family friends and other acquaintances in each episode.

The 24-year-old actor said playing a 17-year-old high school senior is not that difficult for him because of his youthful looks and also because he remembers quite well many of the incidents his character experiences.

"Marshall feels, I think, very out of place in high school," Rifkind said. "A lot of my friends teased me about growing up too fast and being older than I was supposed to be when I was in high school."

He said, too, that his interpersonal experiences were similar. "My own experiences in high school. I don't feel, are that much different on a personal level in terms of the other kids that I was relating to and my parents and the people that I didn't relate to.

One difference between the Beverly Hills High School graduate and the character he plays from inner city New York, however, is the learning environment. "Marshall didn't have a waiter at a dim sum child going through high

Dear Candace: I have been watching Santa Barbara for a long time and I have loved it until now! The storyline about Eden (Marcy Walker) and Robert Barr (Roscoe Borne) was the best storyline they ever had. I never missed a day with Robert on it. I realize that Eden and Cruz had to get back together. because they're the number one soap couple of the year but I wish Eden and Robert could have had more time together. #### Benji Gregory, Max Wright Maureen McCormick not ready to commit to weekly series

By Polly Vonetes Q: I watched The Bradys and enjoyed it. I was wondering what happened to Maureen McCormick? Why didn't she return? -A.L., Amsterdam, N.Y. and W. Coleman, Columbus, Miss. A: Even though Maureen

McCormick returned to film the movie A Very Brady Christmas, she was not ready to confine herself to a weekly series. She has recently married and works occasion-

Q: I've been watching the old Batman series on FOX and I was wondering whatever happened to Yvonne Craig (Batgirl), Burt Ward (Robin) and Adam West (Batman). What are they up to now? How old are each of them and when and where were they born? -Courtney H., Eagle River, Alaska.

A: Yvonne Craig was born in 1941, in Talorville, III. She is currently a real estate broker living in Santa Monica, Calif., with second husband Kenneth Aldrich. She recently hosted a British TV pilot about health care. If it works out for her, that's good, but her greatest treasure will always be Batman. Burt Ward was born July 6, 1945, in Los Angeles, Calif. and was an unknown with no acting experience when hired to play Robin. The end of the Batman series also marked the end of his acting career. He is currently a producer of children's educational videos. Adam West was born in Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 19. 1928. He fought for years to dispell the Batman image. grabbing any acting offer. When he is not working he can be found in Ketchum.

Q: How many children does Burt Lancaster have and what are their names? I have seen a lot of actors who favor

Maureen McCormick

him. Also did Tryon Powell have any children? He used to live here in Morehead City with his mother, and we lost track of him after he left. -Deanie Jones, Morehead City, N.C. A: Burt Lancaster has five children. They are: William am sorry I haven't any information on Tryon Powell. Was he an actor? Q: Thank you for the opportunity of asking a question concerning a TV personality of long ago. I have always wondered what happened to Rochester of the Jack Benny Show. Did he leave the show

son, Rainsville, Ala. A: Eddie Anderson, who played Rochester, was with The Jack Benny Show throughout its television run. Born in 1905, he retired in 1963, attempted a comeback in 1972, but had to resign for health reasons. He was devastated by Benny's death in 1974. Anderson, at the age of 71, died of congestive heart failure on Feb. 28, 1977.

'Crusoe' star Aidan Quinn uses few words to tell story

By Shelia Odak

There is something very special about stumbling onto a really good film that is centered around a wonderful performance. That doesn't mean one that has been hyped at the box office and had an ad campaign that ran into the millions. I'm talking about watching a small low-budget film that almost no one has ever heard of, and discovering a little piece of movie magic that seems to be yours alone. That is the feeling that a film called Crusoc gives.

Crusoe is a version of the famous Robinson Crusoc story. A young slave trader (portrayed by Aidan Quinn) is shipwrecked on a seemingly deserted island, with only a small dog to keep him company. The film is the story of his journey on the island, his journey into himself and ultimately how he perceives others, especially the black men he once bought and sold with such casc What makes this film special is that it essentially tells a very simple story, but does it with such beauty and depth that its simplicity becomes something wonderful. Quinn. who created memorable characters in the feature films Desperately Seeking Susan and his newest work The Handmaiden's Tale, has a difficult task in the lead role. He must communicate all the emotions and thoughts of this man using very few words. However, the story he was presented with made the job

"It wasn't hard because there was a lack of words. If something is structured well enough and lit well enough and is a good enough story. you can do something with remarkably few words or

is so obviously away from the main stream of movie making. Quinn has never let such factors weigh into his career decisions however When most of Hollywood was terrified to play a gay character. Quinn jumped at the chance and gave a stellar performance as a young lawyer dying of AIDS in the television film An Early

Frost Though he has been poised on the brink of stardom several times. Quinn has not yet achieved the status to which his acting talent would seem to lend itself. He has no regrets about missing out on the trappings of being such a celebrity, but does miss the wider variety of offers that comes to a person in that position. Finding a story and a character that appeals is something that has proven difficult for him

"This kind of business is a very fickle business. After a while, after about four months of unemployment you look for just the best role possible. I don't get to pick and choose like a lot of actors, you know. Hopefully that restraint will go away by doing some piece of work or getting to a new level. It's a fickle business."

From politics to picnics, PBS shows offer new ideas

By Paula Vincent On Monday, April 2, PBS presents Richard Nixon: Personal Reflections. The former president recalls his extraordinary career through footage from the Nixon archives and his private residence, and exclusive interviews conducted by American Interests host Morton Kondracke. Highlights include Nixon's views on domestic politics from Presidents Eisenhower to Bush, and the Communist world's past, present and delicious recipes for coffee future.

is for do-it-yourselfers who Saturday until Sept. 29. don't always know what they're doing. This Saturday, April 7, "The Garden" gives tips for the beginning gardener, and for building a greenhouse window. Other programs in the series include "Great Outdoors" (April 14), which will reveal great on-the-go picnics for backpackers, cyclists and busy people. Also, you will see how to build a redwood picnic table that converts to two benches. On "Covering Up" (April 21), learn how to lay sod, and how to follow drinks. "Creative/Shape Also this week, the series (April 28) directs you in Make Yourself At Home flower arranging and bread starts over, in case you sculpting. Further episodes missed it the first time on cooking, gardening and around. This lifestyle series home repair follow every

Additional Home Heating Assistance Funds Available

The Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has allocated an additional $4.7 million to the Maryland Energy Recently she spoke at the Assistance Program (MEAP) Nebraska Conference on Glodal to help people, who are eligible with their heating cost. The last day to apply is March 31.

The additional money, combined with the $17.6 million already budgeted, increased the overall MEAP average benefit amount to clients from $234 to $274.

With the extra money, our clients will be able to purchase more fuel for their homes," said Carolyn W. Colvin, secretary, Department of Human Resources "For those people who have already received their grants, the money can be used to pay off any additional heating expenses they have incurred.

By the end of the home heating season, 75,000 households will be served.

"We are encouraging households to have oil delivered to their homes before May 15," said Sandra E. Brown, director of the Maryland Energy Assistance Program. "If the benefits to households using oil, propane, wood or coal are not used before May 15 by the vendor, the money will be returned to the Maryland Energy Assistance Program," she said.

The Maryland Energy Assistance Program (MEAP) provides assistance with heating bills to low-income families. For additional information, persons may contact the local energy assistance office or call toll-free 1-800-352-1446.

Currently in it second year of operation, HCOP is designed to help high school seniors from 22 high schools in the tri-state region learn more about health career opportunities in the region, gain exposure to working health professionals, and to help them select and graduate from health education training

According to Sue Davis, the HCOP program coordinator, recruitment efforts for academic year 1990 are being "aided tremendously by the extensive contribution of time made by the staffs at Memorial Hospital and Sacred Heart Hospital in Cumberland." From and while being informed about October through January, Sue Dotson, the HCOP careers edu-sions, they also experienced the cation specialist, arranged for work environment and asked

The tours stops included a variety of departments such ology, respiratory therapy, physical therapy, emergency department, occupational therapy, cardiac laboratory, Intensive care unit, nursery, pharmacy, dialysis, and dietetics.

Health professionals at the hospitals took the time to provide touring students with detailed explanations of the responsibilities and the training required for their health career field. Debbie Bradley, health careers counselor, and Ms. Dotson are visiting the high schools to talk to students about educational and employment opportunities in the health care field, and to interview applicants for the HCOP program. During the next phase of the HCOP effort, about 100 regional students will participate in the Healthsite Experiences Program. This program provides students with the opportunity to gain additional exposure to health careers in hospitals, in area nursing homes, and with individual health professionals. Thirty students will be chosen by mid April to participate in the six-week residential Preliminary Education Seminar to be held at Frostburg State University (FSU) this summer from June 23 through August 4.

HEAD START SEEKS ENROLLEES

The Garrett County Head Start Program is currently recruiting three and four-year-old children for enrollment for children from families who fall within federal income eligibility guidelines.

Head Start has six major components: education, health, nutrition, parent involvement, social services and handicap. The education program is designed to meet each child's individual need. Every child receives a variety of learning experiences to foster intellectual, social and emotional growth. Children participate in indoor and outdoor play and are introduced to concepts of words and numbers. They are also encouraged to express their feelings and develop self-confidence and the ability to get along with

Children with handicapping conditions participate with other enrolled children and receive all the same services, plus services for their individual special needs.

Head Start provides each child with comprehensive health and nutritional services. Children are served two hot meals every day in order to meet at least two-thirds of their daily nutritional requirements.

Parents are the most important influence on a child's development and an essential part of every Head Start project is the involvement of parents in all aspects of the program. Many parents volunteer in the classroom, participate in decision making and in training sessions provided by Head Start. They learn about educational activities that can be implemented at home.

"Skip" Schwing Earns Doctorate In Oceanography

Franklin B. (Skip) Schwing, a former local resident, has recently been awarded a doctor of philosophy degree in physical oceanography from Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. His thesis research dealt with how the ocean adjacent to Nova Scotia is influenced by the severe winter storms that cross the region, and frequently feature hurricane-force winds and large amounts of rain and snow. He reports that this research will help to reduce the hazard these storms pose to commercial fisherman and oil and gas workers who make their living in these waters. His studies in Canada culminated in the successful oral presentation and defense of his thesis before several of the most prominent oceanographers in North America. Born in Fairmont, W.Va., Schwing grew up in Garrett County and graduated from Northern High School in 1974, receiving the Danforth "I Dare You" Award as the outstanding male student of that class. After attending West Virginia University for two years, he transferred to the University of South Carolina where he received B.S. and M.S. degrees in marine science. He worked for four years at Skidaway Institute of Oceanography, in Savannah, Ga., before returning to his education in 1985 Schwing has been working for the National Marine Fisheries Service in Monterey, Calif., since December 1988, trying to understand how environmental changes affect commercial fish stocks along the U.S. West Coast. He has authored nearly 20 articles and book chapters on a range of oceanographic topics. His most recent work was a study of the tidal waves produced by last fall's earthquake in Northern California, a subject that, quite literally, hit close to home.

Bloodmobile Visit To NHS Termed Success

by Tarin Towers NHS Student

Northern High School hosted a blood drive on Friday, March 2. The Student Council set a goal of 85 units of blood and a total of 84 units of blood were collected.

Ninety-nine students and staff signed up to donate, and 15 tried but were unable to give blood. Of the 84 persons who gave blood, 27 had given blood before.

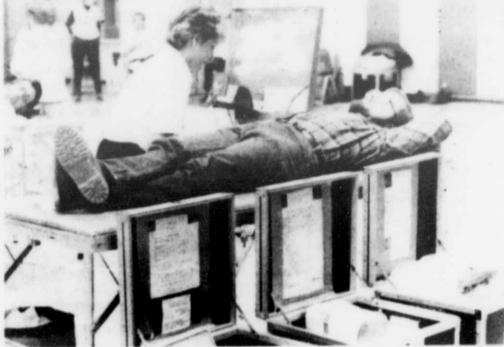

Thanks are in order to the people who gave another chance to a needy individual. Also, both the Red Cross and the Student Council should be commended for the great job they did in making the blood drive run smoothly. Also, IGA and Foodland helped greatly by donating juice for the canteen.

The council would also like to extend appreciation to Mrs. Candy Downton for taking time away from her busy schedule at the Board office to support the American Red Cross and the Northern Student Council.

Avoid the scratchy itchy, coughing, sneezing feeling when you build.

Minibonds Sell Out; Additional Ones Available

State Treasurer Lucille Maurer has announced that the Maryland Minibond Program has received orders for the entire $10 million sale authorized by the State Board of Public Works. Pleased by the overwhelming response, the treasurer said she has consulted with the governor and comptroller, and that the Board of Public Works at its meeting next Wednesday will increase the amount of minibonds authorized to be sold.

Without the increase, the Treasurer's Office would be forced to select buyers at the random basis in order to limit the sale to $10 million. The Treasurer's Office will continue to accept applications received through the U.S. Mail until the end of the day on Friday, March 30, when the sale concludes as scheduled.

The Board of Public Works, composed of Governor William Donald Schaefer, Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein, and Treasurer Maurer, approved the sale of the first $10 million on February 28, 1990. The rates for the triple tax-exempt, capital appreciation bonds were set at 6.1 percent for the five year maturities, and 6.6 percent for the 10 year maturities. The bonds, which are available in

St. Paul's UMC Choir To Present "The Crucifixion"

The Chancel Choir of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Oakland, under the direction of Caroline Lambert Wilt, will present "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer, at a special service on Palm Sunday, April 8, at 5 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church, Third and Oak streets. "The Crucifixion," an oratorio on the Sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer which traces the agony of Jesus Christ from the long night in the Garden of Gethsemane to the final moments on the cross, was written by Sir John Stainer who was born in London in 1840. He entered the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral at the age of 7 when he was already a remarkable player and sight singer. While there he learned harmony and counterpoint from Bayley, master of the St. Paul's boys. He received his music degree at Cambridge when he was 12 years old, and his M.A. degree in 1866 at the age of 26. He was organist at the University of Oxford and conductor of the College Musical Society, and later organist at St. Paul's Cathedral where he raised their performance to a high degree of excellence. A KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS were crowned recently at Cuppett and Weeks Nursing Home in Oakland, after it was determined who gave the most hugs during the month of February. "Give a hug and get a heart" was the slogan for the month, and every hug given was worth one vote to become the King or Queen of Hearts. Alice Henderson and Thomas Blucker, pictured above, won the contest, while Georgianna Hebb and Albert Fleegle, pictured below with Tana Guthrie, assistant activities director, were named runners-up. Ms. Henderson is a native of Magnolia, W.Va., and a former resident of Cumberland. She enjoys crocheting and visiting with the other residents and staff. King Blucker is a former resident of Midland. Records Management

Managing the various records required for starting a new business can be a real challenge for the new owner or manager. A new class scheduled to begin at Garrett Community College on April 2 is designed to help business owners learn the basics of handling records. The class will focus on inventory, receipts, personnel, disbursements and federal, state and local tax forms. This is part of a series of classes which address the issues vital to starting a small business being held this spring at GCC. These classes are especially designed for those who are now starting or considering starting a business. Topics covered in the series include: developing a business plan, and small business finance. Participants may register for any or all of the classes.

"Records Management for Small Business" will meet April 2 and 9 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at the McHenry Campus. The classes are co-sponsored by the Continuing Education Division of GCC, the Small Business Administration, and the Western Maryland Small Business Development Center. Anyone wishing to register for this course or obtain additional information, should call Sandy Major at the Continuing Education Division of the college at 387-6666, ext. 169.

Ms. Zimmerman CAC Employee Of The Week

The Garrett Transportation Program of Community Action has named Bonnie Zimmerman as Employee of the Week.

Mrs. Zimmerman has been employed as transportation coordinator since 1984. Prior to her association with Community Action, she was employed as the director for

Complete Line of-

Garrett Bus Service. She is CPR certified and she maintains credentials in basic first aid and passenger assistance. In addition, she is a member of the Transportation Association of Maryland.

When notified of her selection as Employee of the Week, Mrs. Zimmerman commented, "I have always worked in the transportation field. It is what I enjoy doing. Every aspect of the job, from driving to administration, is a challlenge. I recognized the public service value of providing transportation early on in my career. Many who travel about daily in their private vehicles may not be aware of that portion of the county's population that is dependent on a program such as ours. We are the source of travel for clients going for vital medical treatments, or travelling to educational institutions. Our senior citizens know that they can depend on us during inclement weather or when driving is no longer feasible for them. We deliver hot meals and we take children to Head Start. This represents only a small specimen of our daily program. There is a

demand for what we do, and I am glad to be a supplier of a commodity as necessary as transportation."

Linda Green, program director, added, "I can always depend on Bonnie. She is a hard worker. She has worked her way up through the ranks of the transportation business, and as a result she has gained insight into the wide scope of programming effectively. She can associate with driver's road problems and identify areas of concern to our effort. I have appreciated her experience and I am able to count on her, and that is a help to me in my director's position."

Mrs. Zimmerman is a sports enthusiast. She plays softball for Tomanetti's Pizza, bowls on the Women's Classic Bowling League in Cumberland, and she has a keen interest in kite construction and flight. She is also a collector of eagles. She has done volunteer work for the Family Crisis Center, and enjoys her membership with the Fraternal Order of the Eagles in Cresaptown. Mrs. Zimmerman's church affiliation is with the Rosedale Faith Chapel.

She is the mother of one son and one daughter and resides in Oakland.

Area Assemblies Declare April Revival Month

Rev. Ken Burtram

For the past two months, four area Assembly of God churches - Crellin, Lake Side, Mt. Top, and Rocky Drean, have been holding united weekly prayer services. The emphasis of these services has been international, national, and local in concept, according to a church spokesman.

The spokesman said that the international office of the Assemblies of God has declared the 90's as a decade of harvest, recognizing that the last decade of this century can and should be a time of world-wide spiritual awakening among the Christian community. One of the national goals of the decade of harvest for the Assemblies of God is to start 5,000 new churches. The denomination presently has over 10,000 churches across the nation, with a constituency of over two million people.

"The local emphasis of the prayer services has been specifically described as a time to pray for spiritual revival in our churches and community," stated the Rev. Ray Beahm, pastor of Crellin Assembly, adding that, "the pastors of these four churches recognize that a spiritual revival of any significance must reach across denominational barriers. "Our prayer emphasis has been therefore for all churches that serve our community," he

Revival services have been scheduled in these churches during April. Crellin Assembly of God will be hosting Evangelist Mark Murihead April 1-4, Lake Side Assembly will host Evangelist Dave

23-24 united services will be held at Mt. Top Christian Assembly of God, where the speaker will be Ken Burtram. Rev. Burtram is the local district director of the Decade of Harvest for the Assemblies of God Churches. The district he heads includes over 300 churches and covers most of Virginia, half of West Virginia,

State Crime Rate Drops Slightly In 1989, Garrett's Up 11 Percent

Crime in Maryland decreased one percent, according to a preliminary review of the 1989 Uniform Crime Report released by the Maryland State Police Central Records Division. The nnual crime report lists 261,468 ffenses reported by law enforcement agencies statewide compared with 264,762 offenses reported during 1988.

Garrett County's crime rate. however, increased 11 percent last year, according to the

"The violent crimes of murder, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault as a group increased seven percent in Maryland," said John Vespa of the Uniform Crime Reporting Section. Appearing on the Maryland State Police Radio Program, a weekly public service radio broadcast, Vespa said the increase in violent crime was offset by a decrease in property crime. "The property offenses of breaking or entering, larceny and motor vehicle theft decreased three percent," Vespa added. The most significant change in the preliminary crime totals was recorded in the category of murder

"There were 543 murders in Maryland in 1969, representing a 21 percent increase over the 450 murders committed the year before," Vespa stated. Murder increased in all five regions statewide," Vespa noted. According to crime data recorded by law enforcement agencies in Baltimore and Maryland's 23 counties, Baltimore City led the state in the number of murders. There were 259 murders reported during 1989. Crime data submitted for the first nine months of 1989 shows 34 percent of the murders were reported as being drug related. In Prince George's County, there were 123 murders reported during 1989. Approximately 46 percent of the murders committed in Prince George's County during the first nine months of 1989 were reported as being drug related. The 1989 Annual Uniform Crime Report includes statistics listing county crime index trends. The most significant changes were noted in two Eastern Shore counties. The crime index total for Talbot County registered a 22 percent ncrease, while law enforcement authorities in Somerset County recorded a 20 percent decrease in the index crime

The crime index total for Garrett County in 1989 was 676, compared to 610 for 1988. The categories showing an increase were: forcible rape, from three to eight cases; aggravated assault, from 67 to 117 cases; breaking or entering, from 184 to 192 cases; motor vehicle theft, from 29 to 53 cases; and arson, from five to seven cases. Those showing a decrease were: robbery, from two to one case; and larceny/theft, from 324 to 304 cases. The one crime index that remained the same was murder, for which there was one case each year.

The Maryland State Police Central Records Division serves as the central clearinghouse for statewide crime data. The Uniform Crime Reporting Section notes that any crime figure comparisons should not be made without first considering the individual crime factors in each region and county. The Maryland State Police Radio Program is a weekly public service radio broadcast carried on approximately 50 radio stations in Maryland and the District of Columbia. The program is supported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and the Maryland Department of Transportation.

NHS Theatre Students Learn From Professional: Slate Performances

by Tarin Towers

The theatre department at Northern High School has been busy planning the spring play season. The students in Ms. Sharon Rotruck's theatre classes have been studying mime, improvisation, and the American musical in preparation for the plays to be performed this spring.

Mark Baker, a renowned actor whose credits include a Tony nomination for his per-

"Candide," served as an artistin-residence for the theatre classes. Mark used both vocal and physical exercises to emphasize the importance of "doing." In activities which ranged from singing to gravedigging (sometimes simultaneously), students learned that actions really do speak louder than words.

The week of April 2, theatre students will be producing a children's improvisational play. The play has been adapted formance as the title role in from the story "The Plain

FIRST UNITED RECOGNIZES STUDENTS — Several Southern High School students were recognized this week by First United National Bank & Trust for obtaining perfect scores on the Maryland Functional Citizenship Test. The test is one of four functional tests that must be passed before a Maryland high school diploma is awarded. The Citizenship Test covers three areas: Constitutional Government; Principles, Rights, and Responsibilities; and Politics and Political Behavior. Pictured left to right, front row, are Dave Beard, SHS history teacher; and students Judy Steyer, Ingrid Carlson, Diana Hetrick, Maria Massi, and LaDonna Wolfe; and Jeanette Fitzwater, director of marketing for First United. In the second row, same order, are students Brian Parrish, Luther Groves, Jason Groves, Tiffany Powers, Chester Stacy, and Todd Shaffer. Each student was presented a hard-back thesaurus, compliments of First United.

Princess," a fairy tale of sorts. The cast will feature a narrator and a troupe of actors whose roles depend upon audience participation. Local elementary school students will ride buses to Northern High School to watch the play. This year's main production at Northern will be a play with music "Spoon River Anthology." The play is a modern adaptation of the poetical work by Edgar Lee Masters. Master's poems remain intact, with the addition of folk songs from the 1890's, when Masters wrote the work. The anthology consists of over 100 characters' lives, and can be performed by any number of actors, from four on up. Any Northern student with drive, motivation, and potential (not necessarily experience) is asked to audition. The director of this play will also be a student, with Ms. Rotruck serving as producer. This play will be performed in May, and will have a night performance which the public is encouraged to attend.

Delmarva Broiler

Industry Sets All Time Record

The Delmarva poultry industry recently set an all-time record when growers placed 10,964,000 baby chicks in growout houses during the week ending March 10. The previous chick placement weekly total high was 10,876,000 birds, which took place the week of July 14, 1989. In noting this new milestone for the Delmarva poultry industry, Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Wayne A. Cawley Jr. said, "Poultry is our largest agricultural business in Maryland and on Delmarva. High production rates not only benefit poultry producers and the poultry integrator companies but are a great market for grain producers in the regions as

"If all the 10.9 million birds placed in this one week live out through the normal grow out cycle, they will consume over 87 million pounds of grain which amounts to a lot of corn and soybeans which make up the bulk of poultry feed.

"The consumer benefits as well because today's chicken is in tune with the times both as a value-packed food and as a perfect diet partner for today's leaner diets.

"Production rates on Delmarva have been running at very high levels this year. For the first 10 weeks of this year, an average of 10.4 million chicks have been placed each week," Mr. Cawley noted.

Poultry production figures are compiled each week by the Maryland-Delaware Agricultural Statistics Service, a U.S. Department of Agriculture agency which works with the Maryland Department of Agriculture.

Ag Land Program Expects Banner Year In 1990

The Maryland Agricultural Land Preservation Foundation (MALPF) expects 1990 to see the highest level of activity since the program began in 1977 thanks to its new, Two-cycle Easement Offer Program and bid consideration.

Prior to this year, MALPF considered easement sales applications once a year. According to Leonard Lowry, the foundation's new chairman, 'we are seeing a major increase in applications so far this year and expect our biggest

Lowry recently became chairman of MALPF. He has a long background in Maryland's agricultural land preservation efforts having served as a member of the original (1973) "Committee to Study the Preservation of Agricultural Land." He joined MALPF's board in

For many years he operated a dairy farm in Fairview-Cearfoss area near Hagerstown and has served as a district supervisor of the Washington County Soil Conservation District. He also is a past president of the Washington County Farm Bureau and the Hagerstown-Washington County Chamber of Commerce.

Moving up to take Lowry's post as vice chairman of MALPF, is Dan C. Shortall Jr. of Queen Anne, in Queen Anne's County. Shortall raises broiler chickens and operates a 700-acre grain farm. He is serving his second term on the MALPF board and was one of the founding members of the Queen Anne's Ag Land Preser- vation Foundation.

As of March this year, a total of 1.254 agricultural preservation districts had been formed throughout the 23 counties of Maryland encompassing 175,942 acres. By the end of FY'89 some 534 easements had been purchased covering 79,482 acres.

In 1989, some 69 easements had been purchased on 9,987 acres of farmland.

In order for a landowner to participate in the program, he/she must establish an agricultural land preservation district. If the property meets the minimum criteria established by the Agricultural Land Preservation Foundation, the landowners sign a voluntary district agreement which simply states that the land will be maintained in agricultural use for a minimum of five years. The agreement further states that the land will not be subdivided for residential, commercial or industrial use while

Stripcropping Eliminates Soil Erosion, Runoff

It's spring and Garrett County farmers are busy preparing their land for another crop. Prior to plowing this year, some farmers have added one more step to protect their land from erosion.

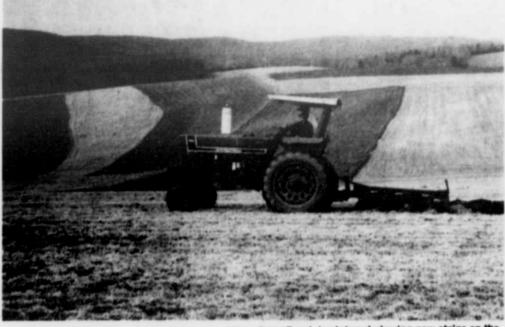

According to Garrett District Conservationist Garry Morfoot, there are a lot of farmers interested in improving the soil protection on their land this spring. Plans have already been made to layout stripcropping systems on several farms totalling several hundred acres that will have better runoff control in the future. "Stripcropping continues to be one of the most cost effective practices" says Morfoot, "and the cost to the landowner is a small amount of time and effort, rather than dollars."

And is stripcropping worth the effort? "You bet," says Chuck Hayes, Garrett Soil Conservation Planner. "It's amazing how strips alone, without any engineered practices such as diversions, can eliminate gullies in crop fields and help solve runoff problems downslope of the cropland."

There are some important points to keep in mind when considering a strip system. "Contour strips provide the best runoff control. If your farm can easily be contoured, go for it. However," Hayes said, "it might not be practical to contour every acre on your farm. Some fields have irregular slopes to the degree that contouring isn't reasonable, but even width strips would work. On some farms, a combination of contoured and even width strips are both used, sometimes in the same field. Strip width is important too

"Give it some thought! If you feel the runoff from your cropland could be reduced and you would like a second opinion, contact the Garrett Soil Conservation District office, 334-1900."

In 1900 one farm worker supported himself and one city supports more than 80 city dwellers

Farm Bureau And Conservation: "Complete What's Already Underway"

Congress could greatly bene-only 36,000 staff years available fit conservation efforts "by simply completing the job we started in the 1985 Food Security Act before we jump into new programs and funding initiatives," the American Farm Bureau Federation pointed out to House Agriculture Committee members recently.

Testifying on what the nation's largest general farm organization considers "one of the major provisions" in 1990 farm legislation, Nebraska Farm Bureau President Bryce Neidig reminded the conservation, credit and rural development panel "Farm Bureau supported the conservation compliance provisions in the 1985 Food Security Act."

AFBF also adopted policy at its January annual meeting which indicates our support for farmers meeting their compliance plans by the 1995 deadline," said Neidig. "However, we have serious reservations about whether this is possible if money and technical assistance are shifted out of the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) in order to implement for the 1990 farm bill." SCS figures show there are

In keeping with the department credo "Serving People and Maryland's Number One Industry - Agriculture," Secretary Cawley has set the pace in an ambitious outreach campaign. During 1989, either Cawley or a ranking departmental representative has visited every county in the state, plus Baltimore City, to listen and learn from citizens

Beef Management Tip

Mineral Mixes with Selenium and Magnesium - Spring time is grass tetany time so be sure that you are keeping a mineral mix before brood cows that has a significant amount of magnesium in it. Commercial mixes are available, but be sure they contain at least 8% magnesium. The old standby homemade mix containing magnesium is equal parts by weight dicalcium phosphate, magnesium oxide, trace mineralized salt, and a palatable materia! such as dried molasses, soybean meal or ground shelled

Spring Deworming Stockers - Serious Business - April is the time when practically every young grazing beef animal whether a stocker steer or heifer or replacement heifer should be dewormed and dewormed properly. Proper sequential deworming strategy used in the early grazing season appears to be the very best method of reducing the buildup of brown stomach worm larvae on pastures that occurs in early to mid-summer and greatly reduces grain in parasitized cattle. Cattle should be dewormed at turnout time or at the time where they are making

Take your choice of Levasole, Tramisol, Safe-Guard or Tramisol used as directed can work extremely well on pasture cattle without handling the cattle. Cattle properly dewormed in early season should not need to be wormed again throughout the duration of the pasture season. Our research on various groups of cattle have shown proper deworming to add 25 to 50 lbs. more weight per head.

Vaccinate Open Cows - Just as a reminder that the time to vaccinate your cow herd on an annual basis is when they are open and before the breeding season starts again. Most programs will call for vaccination for IBR, P13, BVD, five strains of Leptospirosis, and Vibriosis. There are several combination vaccine products on the market that work well. Don't forget to vaccinate the virgin heifers that are to be bred for the first time.

WVU Researchers Strengthen Basic Animal Studies

Four scientists who joined the Animal and Veterinary Sciences faculty at West Virginia University during the past two years are opening new lines of research with both basic science and applied potential. 'These new faculties are introducing students to modern research concepts and techniques for biological sciences through graduate research training and in the undergraduate classroom," says Paul Lewis, director of animal and veterinary sciences at WVU.

Steve Lerner wants to make it easier for swine growers to select the most promising young pigs for breeding. "The classical method of determining whether or not a sow has the desirable traits for reproductive efficiency involves raising the animal to maturity and observing two or three litters of its offspring," Dr. Lerner says. 'That's quite an investment in time, feed, and space for each animal. We're interested in using immunoassay techniques to determine if the animal has the desired genotype for the traits the grower is interested

If the research is successful, a 50-cent blood test will determine whether or not a piglet should be fattened for market or raised for breeding. "This research is applicable on the farm in fact it's being carried out on a commercial pig farm in "One of the classic symptoms of diabetes is the presence of high levels of glucose in the body," Dr. Klandorf says. "These bind to proteins - in the eyes, the nerves, and other places - which can lead to blindness and premature aging."

Another link being studied is between diet and calcium retention. Klandorf is studying the shell gland, which produces eggshells. The thickness and strength of shells declines with the age of the bird, eventually to the point where the eggs are too fragile for transport to market. This may be linked to the pyenomenon of osteoporosis in older women.

Researchers have noted that vegetarian women are unlikely lating that higher levels of boron in their diets aid in calcium retention. Klandorf is studying the shell gland to see if boron plays a role in the calcifi-and Rutgers University. He was on the faculty of the UCLA Department of Medicine before coming to WVU.

Thomas Oscar wants to build a leaner chicken, cell by cell. "If we want to reduce fat accretion in meat animals, we have to understand how fat cells work and what regulates their growth," Dr. Oscar says.

Consumers want leaner meat. But simply changing the diet of an animal doesn't alter its basic pattern of fat production. Oscar is isolating fat cells alive in culture tubes, and exposing them to hormones which may be the key to the natural regulation of fat production in the birds' bodies. Identifying the hormones which control fat is just the first step in a long process of study, Oscar says. "You can't just inject a chicken with hormones. That doesn't work." Cells exposed to an overabundance of a particular hormone shut down their response mechanisms to that substance, rendering it

"We need to understand the cellular-level mechanisms which regulate growth." If these can be revealed. Oscar says, the genetic information which controls the cells' reactions to hormones can be studied and, perhaps, the fatmaking process can be altered through genetic manipulation. He's not anticipating any quick results. "This could be my entire research career," he says of the fat-cell study 'There is a lot we don't understand yet about how cells

Oscar is a graduate of the University of Delaware, with graduate degrees from Penn State and North Carolina State University.

Richard Russell wants to know what happens to food inside an animal's cells. "Each type of cell is different, not only in foundation, but in the way nutrients are transported into the cell," he says. The patterns of nutrient uptake for various types of tissue are determined by the animal's genetic pattern.

Dr. Russell believes that it may be possible to measure the activity of the transporter function and relate it to genetic material. Possible applications may lie in activating transporter mechanisms which are present within cells, but not

"There are limits, and dangers, to this," he acknowledges. "If a cell expresses the wrong transporter, it may become cancerous."

Another possible path for this research is in the development of a blood test to analyze an individual animal's nutrient requirements. "If we could look at profiles of metabolites and hormones in the bloodstream, and knew the kinetic functions of all the transporters, we could determine if the lack of a particular nutrient is limiting production." Russell says. An animal's diet could then be supplemented to the point where it was reaching its full

Russell, a graduate of Delaware Valley College, completed graduate and post-doctoral programs at North Carolina State University and Iowa State. He was on the faculty of Auburn University before being hired by WVU.

Each of the researchers' work is important to the future of the College, and of the meat industry in West Virginia, says Dr. Lewis. "The Division is expanding its research emphasis in poultry to better

he adds. "Studying the genetic control and regulation of nutrient transport, reproduction, fat accretion and mineral metabolism at the cellular level will enhance the effectiveness of our research to solve problems important to the industries. These activities will also make the Division more competitive basque waist and swept into a chapel train hemmed in a Chantilly lace ruffle. To complete her bridal attire, she selected a tiara of silk Venise lace, adorned with crystal loops and pearl edged scalloped finger-tip veiling, featuring lace

The bride's jewelry was a pair of fresh water pearl tear drop and diamond earrings, a gift of the groom, and a cultured pearl necklace, a gift of her parents. The bride also chose to wear a carved cameo pin of flowers, belonging to her late grandmother, Pearl A. Wiley.

The bride carried a bouquet white silk roses accented with blue miniature rose buds and peach anemone silk flowers, along with sprays of white seed pearls adorned the bouquet, with satin blue and peach ribbons cascading from the bouquet.

Debbie Minnick, Grantsville, friend of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Connie Davis, Salisbury, Pa., friend of the bride, and Rosemary Clark, Cumberland, sister of the groom. Teresa Davis, Salisbury, was flower girl and Ben Sweitzer, Grantsville, was ring bearer. Both were friends of the bride and groom. Cheryl Sweitzer, Grantsville, registered the

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Grantsville American Legion Post 214. A blue and peach color scheme was used in the decorations. Sharon Garlitz catered the reception, and baked and decorated the ninetier wedding cake, featuring a lighted fountain, with peach and blue silk flower accents, with cascading stairs to the side tier cakes along with two heartshaped cakes in the front connected with a bridge joining the two cakes with a Precious Moments music box nestled between the two heartshaped

Two surprise showers honored the bride, one hosted by friends and co-workers and the other hosted by members of the bride's bowling league, The Alley Cats. The bride and groom were also honored with a shower given by the women of St. Paul's United Methodist

GARRETT NATIONAL BANK CONDUCTS SEMINAR FOR COUNTY TEACHERS - On March 21 a total of 11 teachers from Northern High School, Southern High School and Southern Middle School attended a seminar at Garrett National Bank from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m. to study "The Business of Banking." The program was given in cooperation with the Garrett County Board of Education and the National Americans for the Competitive Enterprise System (ACES). Various other local businesses have scheduled similar programs for teachers in the future. Shown in the above

James M. Raley Is Appointed To Central Committee

The Republican Central Committee recently met and appointed James M. Raley, Frostburg, to fulfill the unexpired term that was vacated by the resignation of David Martin.

Raley is employed by the Garrett County Board of Education as an industrial arts teacher at Southern Middle School.

Currently he is president of the Garrett County Teachers Association, treasurer and deputy fire chief for Eastern Garrett County Volunteer Fire Company, and a member of the legislative committee for the Maryland State Firearms Association and the Maryland State Teachers Association.

He received his bachelor of science degree from California University of Pennsylvania and his master of education degree from Frostburg State University. He is married to the former Susan Rush and has one daughter, Sharee.

BLOOMINGTON SCHOOL CELEBRATES BEAR WEEK -Students, staff and parents celebrated literacy last week with a special project called "Be Excited About Reading," or BEAR Week. Students participated in many projects using bears as the theme, including making bear t-shirts; writing and presenting their own original bear books; cutting, pasting and discussing model bears; seeing bear films; reading books aloud; discussing authors and favorite books; participating in read-ins; taking a trip to the Westernport Library; borrowing bear books from the Allegany and Garrett county bookmobiles; dressing up as a favorite book character; and finishing with a RIF book distribution. RIF, or Reading Is Fundamental, is a federal program sponsored locally by the Bloomington School Parent-Teacher Association. The PTA donales 25 percent of the money which is matched by the Federal RIF Program at 75 percent. Book companies give a special discount to purchase books which can be given to the children. CARD PARTIES The annual 500 card parties in Grantsville to benefit the American Heart Association were a great success. A total of $783.00 was raised during the events, which are held each year at the American Legion, Post 214, in Grantsville. Various local individuals and organizations donated prizes for high

This year the dates of the card parties were February 17, Scott Pope. March 3, and March 17. Top scorers for these nights were Bob Jenkins, Stanley Finzel and Tom Bender, all from Grantsville. A $50.00 U.S. Savings Bond was donated by the American Legion, Post 214, and given to the individual that had the highest score for all evenings added together. The high scorer this year was Tom Bender

Refreshments are served after playing cards each evening by Grantsville area organizations. This year the hosts were the Grantsville Rotary Club. Casselman Valley Homemakers, and Broadwater Towing/Fuel City. Also donating a very large amount of personal time and help to make this year's card parties successful was Shelby Diehl.

Raffled items this year were won by: Tom Bender, a silk flower arrangement donated by Flowers and Things; Odie Jenkins, a customized cake donated by Bill & Sharon's; Grace Braskey, a picture and place mats donated by Sebold Trucking; Maxine Broadwater, Tiara glassware and flowers donated by JoAnn Kamp: Nancy Malloy, a homemade cake donated by Shelby Diehl; Earl Haenftling, a variety of fresh vegetables donated by Hilltop Fruit Market; and Tom Bender, a variety of fresh fruits donated by Hillton Fruit Market, A homemade cake was donated by Grace Shunk, but the winner could not be determined, so everyone present shared her ordinated by Judy Sebold. She has helped to raise over $3,800 in the past six years for the Heart Association. She expressed to the many people who have assisted her. She also expressed her hopes that everyone will continue to support the American Heart Association, either individually or through a business or organization.

HOSPICE BENEFIT

On Saturday, March 31, at 7:30 a 500 Card Party will be held at the Grantsville American Legion Post No. 214 for the Hospice of Garrett County. Prizes and refreshments will be served by the Bittinger Firemen's Auxiliary. Ruth DiPaolo and Betty Jo Swauger are chairing this project.

POSTER CONTEST

The National Pike Festival Committee recently voted to have a poster contest for children in grades 1-5 prior to the National Pike Festival on May 19-20. Mary Margaret Ward, Judith McKenzie, Esther Bender, and Maxine Broadwater met to discuss plans for the contest. Children who would like to enter a poster in the contest are encouraged to begin thinking about an interesting theme for their poster. As soon as final rules and dates are decided, they will be published.

Maxine Broadwater is making plans for a Saturday evening program to be held May 19 near the Casselman River Stone Bridge. The program will include music and stories.

A big event for the Festival will be the wagon train which will traverse the entire section of the National Road which lies within Garrett County.

GARRETT COUNTY WRITING COMPETITION WINNER — Shown above is Mary Evans, center, a Kitzmiller Elementary School student who not only placed first in the K-2 competition, but was also declared the winner for Garrett County. The theme of the contest was "Maryland You Are Beautiful," wherein students were asked to write about something they did that demonstrated their caring and kindness toward others. Also pictured, above left, is Brenda McCartney, principal at Kitzmiller Elementary, presenting Mary with her certificate, and at right is Christle Kinser, first place winner at Kitzmiller in the grade three through five category. Mary Evan's composition is

On the bus Jenny said that nobody liked her. She was crying. I said that I liked her.

She said, "You are making that up."

Brandy said she was mad at her. I said, "Calm down." She stopped crying. "I like you, Jenny," I said. I comforted Jenny when Brandy said she was mad at her.

She said, "I like you and you like me. Is that right?" "Yes, it is, Jenny," I said.

Leitzel To Share Slide Tour Of France On Sunday

Lowell Leitzel, who is an instructor in French at Southern High School, spent last year in the French Alps and Lake in Bourges, France as a Annecy Fulbright Scholar in their teacher exchange program. William the Conqueror is next Leitzel's presentation this Sunday, April 1, at 12:30 p.m., will feature slides of many of the villages and cities he visited while he was in France. Anyone who is interested in seeing these slides and hearing about these places is welcome to attend St. Mark's Lutheran Church at Second and Center Streets in Oakland on Sunday.

Leitzel's "tour de France" began in the heart of France, in Bourges, where St. Stephen's Cathedral stands. It continued in the Loire Valley, also known as the garden of France, where many of the castles or chateaux of France are found. The tour went on to the Rhineland country of Alsace for a look at typical villages, like Strasbourg, and then to Savoie

State, County Jobless Rates Up In January

The unemployment rate in Maryland during January was the lowest on record for January since the 3.3 percent recorded in 1970, according to statistics released by the Maryland Department of Economic and Employment Development (DEED). The state's jobless rate in January rose to a seasonal 4.1 percent from December's 3.2 percent. January's rate is below the January 1989 rate of 4.2 percent.

Garrett County's jobless rate increased significantly, from 6.0 percent in December to 9.5 percent in January, however, the figures are somewhat misleading since there were actually more persons employed in January than in December. The December workforce was 12,663 with 11,899 of them employed, while the January workforce was 13,262 with 11,996 employed.

The upturn in Maryland's jobless rate followed the national pattern, which showed unemployment during the month rising from 5.1 percent in December to 5.9 percent.

"While January's unemployment increase follows normal seasonal trends, the increase also underscores the importance of an economic development program that builds on Maryland's strengths, including technology and international trade. The rate increase illustrates the need to continue to protect against any future downturn in the economy by ensuring that our firms and workers remain competitive," said J. Randall Evans, secretary of DEED. The increase in the state's politan area, unemployment rose from 3.3 to 4.5 percent, reflecting the seasonal changes evident throughout the state. The area's upturn was caused, in part, by the temporary layoff of General Motors workers, many of whom live in Harford County. All of the metro area's jurisdictions showed increased unemployment, with rates ranging from a low of 1.8 percent in Howard County to a high of 6.7 percent in Baltimore City. In the Maryland suburbs of the Washington, D.C. metro area, about 3,700 workers were added to the jobless rolls, causing an increase in the unemployment rate to 2.7 percent in January, up from 2.3 percent in December

The unemployment rate in Western Maryland was the highest in the state at 7.9 percent, an increase of 2.4 percentage points over the month. An expansion in the labor force was the primary reason for the rise. Nearly 75 percent of the regional labor force increase was in Allegany County, pushing that jurisdiction's jobless rate up from 5.5 to 9.4 percent.

Joblessness in the Southern Maryland and Eastern Shore areas (balance of state) rose from 5.4 percent in December to 6.8 percent in January. The number of unemployed persons increased in all counties in the area, with the exception of St. Mary's, Talbot and Wicomico

Locally, unemployment rates in January ranged from a low of 1.8 percent in Howard County to Worcester County's 12.6

What's new, from paint to paper

By Alison Ashton Copley News Service

Imagine a bare room - no furniture, no accessories. Walls can frame a room, giving it definition before you put in a sofa or hang the first picture.

Concentrating on walls is also ideal for the do-it-yourselfer or anyone who has a limited decorating budget.

The latest treatments range from wallpaper and borders to creative painting techniques. Special finishing kits and coordinated wallpaper themes make walls an easy project for the beginning doit-yourselfer to tackle.

The Complete Book of Decorating Techniques" by Linda Gray with Jocasta Innes (Little, Brown) offers a rundown of painting and paper ideas, along with the howtos and what materials to buy.

While you're deciding whether to paper or paint those walls, consider adding architectural details, such as molding or friezes. They help break up large expanses and further define the boundaries of the room.

PAPER

Wallpaper dresses up plain walls," say Gray and Innes. "You can add pattern, texture, or both, in a variety of materials which range from hard-wearing vinyl to delicate grasscloth and silk.

Current trends in wallpaper still reflect our interest in country-style interiors. Laura Ashley has a beautiful selection of its trademark florals and Greeff has a series of "Country House" pat-terns. Most manufacturers offer wall coverings with coordinating borders and fabric.

Colors are soft; parchment, indigo, rose and muted coral create a pretty setting. Flowers and fruit

If you absolutely fall in love with a pattern but can't afford to paper an entire room, try an old decorator's trick: paper one wall

Another idea is to use wallpaper borders to dress up a wall. Use them on a large expanse, in place of moldings. Or frame a doorway or windows with a subtle floral pattern.

Wallpapering is easier than ever to do yourself. However, wallpaper can be costly and you should start with a small or relatively easy space for your first project. For trickier projects, such as wallpapering along a stairway or matching an intricate pattern, employ the services of a professional.

Gray and Innes also suggest cutting wallpaper into panels. Combine your panels with one of the new paint techniques and boring rooms become beautiful.

For some reason, subdividing blank walls into panels makes a room look satisfyingly composed," they note. Moreover, "it can add color and pattern in manageable doses - useful at the early stage of homemaking when most people are short of pictures and decorative bits and pieces to fill up bare spaces."

Paper is not the only wall covering. Other ways to lend walls texture and visual interest include wood paneling, cork, burlap and

Wood panels can be expensive and, unless you are very handy, should be tackled only by a pro. Paneling can be installed to cover up inferior walls or original paneling can be restained (usually to a lighter shade) to make it more contemporary.

Cork is also an expensive option. But, according to Gray and Innes, it offers some insulation in addition to its warm look.

Tile is another wall (or floor covering). While its tremendous durability has always made it a popular candidate for bathrooms, it also works well in kitchens, particularly for easy cleanup on walls around the stove and sink (a must for cooks who splatter).

and paint the rest of the room in a coordinating color. This is also a good idea for a bolder pattern that might overwhelm a small room.

Look for contrasting tiles and grout, as well as patterned and textured looks. Another option, for home owners who are going topdrawer all the way, is to have your tiles custom designed.

"Paint is a favorite with do-ityourself decorators - and no wonder," say Gray and Innes. "It's relatively cheap, quick and easy to challenging. Rodger Woods, a California housepainter who has created murals for Clint Eastwood, says there is a trend toward faux finishes on walls, woodwork and furniture. Having a professional create a trompe l'oeil, for example, can be as expensive as good wallpaper. However, many of the techniques can be applied yourself. Most require little more than rags, a natural sponge or a scrub brush to create a softly textured effect.

Ragging is one of the more popular methods and can look quite soft, when you use two shades of the same color, or crisp, when the

SMALL-SPACE DESIGN

How to make every inch count

By Nanette Wiser Copley News Service

Whether you rent or own, there is probably a corner in your home you can't quite figure out what to do with. It's tiny but appealing and could be a haven from the hustlebustle you tussle with daily.

Perhaps, like many families, your home has to house special gear for an at-home business, an elderly live-in parent, children from multiple marriages or returning adult children.

No matter what the reason, small can be both beautiful and functional. A closet can become an office; a butler's pantry can be transformed into a teen-ager's music and study room with the help of space-saving ideas and furnishings.

Rose Bennett Gilbert, a syndicated design writer, offers some ideas for maximizing small spaces. Light colors, she reminds, always make a room look larger, as do mirrors that stretch the space.

If a room has height, take advantage of the high ceiling by lifting a bed off the floor with a ladder and building a desk and lounge area under the sleeping loft.

Keep furnishings simple, such as white wicker, or make every furnishing count as two. A louvered kitchen table hinged to a wall with wings that flip up can double as a work station and a dining area. A coffee table can be adjusted up or down and serve as a dining table by adding cushions, if necessary.

Modular furnishings for multiple use can be found in department stores, home supply centers, Pier One, Conran's, Scandia Interiors, The Door Store and others. Or hire a local craftsman to build the small-space saver of your dreams, such as a versatile room divider that separates a kitchen and living room and holds linens, dishes and art on one side, books, television, stereo and knickknacks on the Gear your storage system to the ge, possessions and abilities of the user and to the activities that will be conducted in that area. A 7-year-old's possessions are different from a 27-year-old's, with coordination, height and self-control all important considerations.

Gilbert describes one successful remodel, highlighting the details that make it work. A tiny bedroom becomes a teen's palace by moving a bed off the ground and illuminating it by a wall lamp. Add shallow bookshelves built into the back of the sleeping loft and storage shelves behind louvered doors to whisk away clutter.

Narrow navy-blue blinds on the window provide color and privacy while white-painted walls and light-colored furniture that is sleek and narrow make the room look larger. The finishing touch? Accents of red, white and blue on the bedding and a taupe-toned plush rug that stretches the floor space.

In another remodel of a tiny kitchen in 1,001 Home Ideas, a wall was removed and a skylight and dining/cooking island added to erase that cramped feeling. Cabinets were painted soft white, and matching ceramic tile enhanced the feeling of light, as did the coordinated kitchen appli-

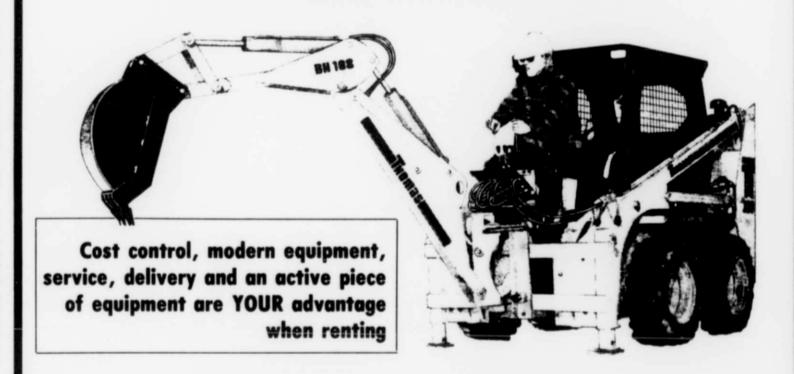

A mirrored backsplash is both eye-catching and provides a visual room-extender. Storage solutions are unique: An ironing board tucks away into a drawer, and spacesaving sliding bins, trays and lazy Susans eliminate searching and

To accent part of a wall, try one of the bolder techniques, such as combing, marbling, tortoiseshell or a faux metallic finish.

If you're feeling artistic, stenciling a pattern is an easy way to give walls a border. You can create your own pattern with tissue paper and stencil board or patterns are available at home improvement stores.

Murals and trompe l'oeil paintings are more ambitious, but will make a wall truly unique. The realistic effects of trompe l'oeil are especially good, say Gray and Innes, when you can't afford to add architectural features, such as a cornice or frieze stress. Storage systems are the buzzword of the '90s, and closet organizers and specialty stores make this a pleasure to incorporate into your home design. According to Judith Miley of Clairson International and the Center for Home Organization and Interior Space Efficiency (CHOISE), "Today's remodelers are more than doubling a home's accessible storage ca-

creasing the square footage devoted to such utilitarian spaces as closets, pantries and utility rooms."

For example, by designing a bedroom closet's vertical space better, items once stored in bulky bedroom dressers or chests can be consolidated into coated wire mesh drawer systems right in the closet. The closet organizers are tiered for storing linens, blankets and boxed items and offer easyopen ventilated drawers for intimate wear, knits and other items.

Miley suggests that remodelers use vertical spaces as storage spaces. For example, you can attach shoe organizers to the back of closet doors or tier racks of hooks on the back of children's room

In homes with high ceilings, position minilofts of extra shelving about 18 inches from the ceiling for seasonal items that can be reached by a step stool. Look around the house for other vertical spaces that can be converted into storage, such as understairwell areas (for bookcases) or hanging pot racks over kitchen islands to free up storage space.

Bathrooms are expected to accommodate more than one person and activity at a time. The bathroom frequently features fitness equipment, a dozen skin and haircare appliances, double sinks, magazine racks and display shelves.

Fabulous floors

By Laurie McCaughin Copley News Service

Thinking about remodeling? A great way to give your home a finished, "decorator" look is to utilize floor coverings in a dramatic, yet practical, way.

Chosen carefully, today's floor coverings should do two things: graciously expand upon the theme you wish to create and provide a durable, low-maintenance stomping ground for everyone in your family.

The most popular floor covering is carpeting. Its advantages are that it lends a warm, cozy atmosphere and provides the best protection to family members, especially children, should they fall. These days manufacturers are producing quality carpeting that is at once plush and stain-resistant a must for many busy families. Color trends for carpeting reflect our current love for muted shades, such as rose, buff, soft indigo, slate and - the current rage - all shades of green, from deep hunter to delicate seafoam. Carpeting can also be installed with custom patterns and bevels to frame a room.

In addition to warming up tile and hardwood floors in coolweather months, area rugs are a wonderful way to carry out a room's theme. Try an elegant Oriental rug in a traditional room or continue a Southwest theme with a durable Navajo-style rug or a dhurrie. For safety's sake, put a rug liner under area rugs to prevent skidding.

Ceramic tile is a durable, easyto-maintain floor covering. Today, ceramic tile comes in a variety of stylish colors and patterns, and it is suitable to any room, not just the kitchen and bathroom.

Do-it-yourselfers will be happy to learn that ceramic tile is relatively easy to install - just be sure the underlayment is smooth and securely fastened to the subfloor. Check the manufacturer's instructions or check with a tile outlet for further details.

clean with a damp mop. For a Southwest or country decor, consider terra-cotta tile. Other options include geometric patterns, bold colors and contrast-

should be regularly swept clean of dirt and grit so it will remain

ing grout to make your tile distinctive.

Hardwood floors (particularly with a light stain or bleached look) and parquet wood are considered an asset in any home. If your hardwood floors are looking a little worse for wear, it could be time to have them refinished.

Another way to add pizzazz to hardwood floors is the rout-andstain method. Starting with an unfinished hardwood floor, use a router to create a checkerboard effect. Then paint or stain the squares contrasting colors. The colors you choose will

example, black and white is striking and sophisticated, or use yellow and gray for a softer look.

Patios, decks, accessories and more

By Sharon Williams Copley News Service

Some homeowners rate an entertainment space by its television, videocassette recorder and gallery of games.

But then, they haven't looked outside lately. Because if they had, they'd see that the party has clearly moved onto the deck or patio.

Maybe the crowd is barbecuing burgers or unwinding in the Jacuzzi. Stretched out on chaise lounges that look as though they belong, well, indoors, a more intimate grouping might engage in spirited debate over a bottle of wine.

Even solo activities such as gardening, reading or feet-up contemplation become celebrations in such positively scenic surroundings.

But the fireworks can't begin until the decisions are made, the cement is dry and the plants are all in place.

With so many shapes, designs, materials and furnishings available, and at least a dozen different ways to construct either a deck or patio, it's no wonder many homeowners find acquiring and furnishing one is, in itself, something of a Most start with a plan they've found in a home improvement magazine, manual or book requested through mail order or dreamed up alone or with the help of an architect or contractor. Consider these trends:

• Bi-level decks: The ultimate in open-air living, double-decker decks create separate outdoor rooms. With such a setup, the chef never has to step over sunbathers when it's time to start dinner.

• The instant deck: Thanks to today's modular components, superfast electric hammers and power saws, all you need are a few neighbors and a free weekend to build a moderate-size deck. Once the lumber is cut to size, finishing is similar to assembling a gigantic puzzle.

 The canopied deck: Some homeowners don't want their decks on full display, but feel an enclosed porch is too claustrophobic. One popular solution: Surround part or the entire deck with a latticework arbor. Its walls offer the perfect spot for training roses and, when constructed around a hot tub, give bathers much-appreciated privacy.

 The poolside patio: To keep the pool and spa from looking like overgrown bathtubs, many designers now plan patios in conjunction with water areas. Repetition in curves, materials, landscaping and color helps create a unified outdoor living area that's aesthetically pleasing.

 A patio by the brick: Bricks are a patio builder's blocks and a level bed of sand his play area. Choose a pattern or create your own, pick your bricks and border and you're ready for assembly. The bonus? You won't need a single trowel of mortar.

And, while decks are either rigid rectangles or squares, there aren't any written-in-stone rules for patios. Keep an open mind when considering shapes and materials, which can be anything from terrazzo to stream-smoothed pebbles.

Then, there's the matter of construction. You can do it yourself with a kit or prefabricated supplies from the hardware store, or leave the work to an architect or contractor. Either can custom-design a patio or deck that fits right in with your home's period or styling.

Once you've built your outdoor floor, deck out your deck with casual, comfortable furniture. From rugged or art deco to the newest modern twists, today's garden furniture is truly carefree, thanks to the new finishes that protect and preserve it.

• Tubular steel: Let it rain, let it pour. Chairs and tables made of tubular steel and their accompanying cushions — some styles reversible — can take almost anything man or Mother Nature can dish up. A permanent finish and fabric that shed water like a duck help these pieces remain unscathed.

• Teak: Teak benches and swings are mainstays in any grand garden and work equally well on a deck. Teak ages gracefully and can survive both sun and storm year after year.

Wrought iron and wicker: Victorian-ize your deck or patio with wrought iron or wicker — both classics that have been improved with 20th-century technology. Super frames and finishes ensure you'll be able to pass today's takeoffs down to the grandchildren.

 Molded plastic: Some of the most versatile outdoor furnishings are constructed of molded or extruded plastic that has been coated with resin for protection. Look for comfortable ottomans and dining tables with leaves.

Beef up the surroundings: Landscaping, reflecting pools, lawn ornaments, pathways, fountains, gates and artistic illumination with outdoor lighting can only improve the view from the deck or patio.

Moving Tips

By Monica Perez Copley News Service

Really, it's an adventure: trashing the things you don't need, paring down to bare essentials for a while, "camping" out. You actually can have fun moving if you've planned ahead and organized the ordeal. Here are some tips:

ONE MONTH BEFORE

 Fill out change-of-address cards for friends, relatives, creditors, publications (usually not forwarded by the post office), clubs and organizations.

 If you're moving out of town, get copies of medical and dental records, including pets'.

 Close out your safety deposit box and organize all personal records: birth and marriage certificates, mortgage records, insurance papers. Gather children's school records.

 Reserve your time with your moving company or the truck rental if you're moving yourself. (Note that midweek moving can be less expensive than weekend, as can moving in non-peak fall-tospring months.)

Have a garage sale. Be ruthless in culling items you'll no longer need. Arrange beforehand to have a charity organization pick up leftover items the following

 Drain gasoline and oil from power equipment such as weed whips and clean them.

 Organize a box with jewelry and important papers that you want to keep at hand during the move.

 Prepare artwork by taping the glass to the frame, putting on cardboard corner protectors (moving companies offer them) and wrapping in bubble wrap.
 Place in a box vertically.

 Give away or sell potted plants if the move is greater than a oneday distance.

 Separate those items you'll need to get through the moving process. Start packing the rest, or at least organize it for the packers.

 Get in touch with your bank and find out the best procedure for transferring your accounts.

THREE DAYS AHEAD

 Disconnect the refrigerator and freezer, unload, defrost and clean. Let them air out. Yes, it's takeout food from here on in.

 Disconnect and drain the washing machine; pack linens in the washer and dryer for the move.

 Tie down, tape or otherwise stabilize parts of appliances small and large — that nave moving parts.

 Call to confirm your truck rental, and find out how much cash, if any, will be needed for the

REAL ESTATE REASONABLE

How to buy or sell a home

By Monica Perez Copley News Service

The faster real estate moves, the more money you make. The figures are enough to frighten even those snug in their own homes, let alone the rest who are salting away every cent for a down payment: The National Association of Home Builders estimates that during the next four years, less than half of the approximately 59 million Americans who pass through the 25- to 34-year-old age category will be able to buy a house.

Are you looking to buy or sell a piece of property right now? It's quite a time to be in the market. Following are some tips, tidbits and trivia to help your purchase or sale decision.

TIME TO BUY

First, get your expectations in line. Talk to a banker, find out how much house you can afford. Settle for less of a house than you'd hoped, if you must — just get into the market now.

Look into financing options above and beyond standard loans. This includes help from your parents. Pride isn't such an issue here, since Mom and Dad benefit, too, in terms of tax deductions and appreciation on an investment.

Investigate equity-sharing, which pairs a potential homeowner with an investor. The investor gets a tax deduction for depreciation and mortgage interest on his or her share of the home, and the homeowner gets a place to live and a deduction on half the loan. Upon sale of the house, the equity is split. Look for a broker who specializes in putting such teams together.

Talk to a broker about possibly qualifying for a loan insured by the Federal Housing Administration, which has a lower down payment requirement and more affordable interest rates.

Look for a house that comes with an assumable mortgage; benefits include a lower interest rate. (This is usually true, since the loan was purchased years before.) Other benefits are a small assumption fee of around $50 instead of a larger loan-origination fee, no credit qualification on most mortgages, shorter closing time and the bonus of being able to offer an assumable loan when you sell.

If you're having trouble qualifying for a loan because you haven't enough for a 20 percent down payment, look into private mortgage insurance. Insurance premiums are tacked onto the borrower's monthly mortgage payment. With PMI, borrowers can qualify for a mortgage with as little as 5 percent down, qualify for mortgages earlier, and/or upgrade their selection in terms of size or location.

Maybe you can get the seller to subsidize your mortgage for a couple of years. The seller gets a monthly check, and you have an easier time qualifying for a loan. Some mortgage companies even promote the idea through their agents; ask a lender to explain the details to you.

NOW TO THE HUNT

Considering a brand-new home? Realize that a developer has probably been required to pay for improvements such as roads, sewer, traffic lights, even schools, and that the costs — called impact fees — will be passed on to you. A NAHB survey of 1,300 California builders in 1987 came up with a tack-on fee of almost $19,000 per

Thousands of Americans are realizing that "sweat equity" today can mean an older house, a longer commute to work or buying in a less-desirable neighborhood (but one with hopes for renewal).

Some cities even offer incer

tives to move into areas that are in line for gentrification. Though many programs are targeted to the poor, there are those that are attracting middle-income buyers. too. A real estate agent with a downtown beat can help you explore these options.

Consider a condo. Now, we know you want a yard and a dog and all, but realize that a condominium or town house might not only be more affordable, but better located than an equal-cost house. Two-income households without children, eyes set on careers for now, might find the low maintenance, pools and tennis courts far better suited to their current lifestyle.

No, you say, you want a house. Are you any good with a hammer? More Americans are taking the building or remodeling of their homes back into their own hands, saving thousands. Contact your community college for classes on owner-building or designing.

Do like the Europeans: Co-housing, in which common areas such as kitchens and family rooms are shared between two or more families, are becoming increasingly similar in an existing apartment building or downtown loft space? On a simpler scale, a very large house could easily be divided between two families. Don't overlook manufactured houses (formerly known as mobile homes). Their mass-produced features make them more affordable than site-built houses. Prefab and kit houses - manufactured elsewhere and "put together" on-site, are less costly for the same rea-

Check out foreclosed properties. Banks don't like to hang onto repossessed property, and the deals often are phenomenal.

Finally, if you're shopping the classifieds yourself rather than letting an agent find you a home. look for certain key phrases: must sell, transferred, owner will carry, foreclosure, will trade, desperate, nothing down, flexible terms, death in the family. All indicate a seller who needs to move the property fast - and probably for an affordable amount. "No agents" indicates a "For Sale by Owner"; in this deal, you save the agent's commission costs, which you can bet would otherwise be built into the selling price.

A guide to lighting your home

By Monica Perez Copley News Service

You can't touch or feel light, but it makes a major impact on your home environment.

Lighting lends comfort, convenience, safety and drama. It also creates a mood.

Obviously, something so important should be carefully planned and the key to planning is to deter-mine the kind of lighting that most suits your lifestyle.

Factors to consider include the size of the room; the look you want; and, most important, the activities that take place in that area.

According to the American Home Lighting Institute, "Different surroundings make different demands. A room with dark walls and floors will absorb light; one with light colors will reflect light."

Interior designers and contractors who specialize in lighting think in terms of three basic sources: general, task and accent.

General lighting provides over-all illumination and radiates a comfortable level of brightness; think of it as a replacement for sunlight. Sources include chandeliers, ceiling or wall-mounted fixtures, and recessed or track lights. Task lighting illuminates your work: reading, sewing, cooking, homework, hobbies, games, balancing your checkbook. It should be free of glare and cast no

Accent lighting adds drama to your interiors. Think of it as part of your decorating scheme, and use it to spotlight houseplants, paintings, sculpture or other prized possessions. It should be at least three times as bright as the general lighting around it. The best sources of accent lighting are track, recessed or wall-mounted fixtures.

WHICH FIXTURE?

see an amazing variety of fixtures.

Come armed with a clear idea of what you plan to use the lighting for - and what type of fixture is most likely to meet your needs. Your options include:

 Decorative chandeliers. You'll probably want one of these over your dining table to provide a combination of general as well as task lighting. Other places include bedrooms and foyers, and over a grand piano or living room grouping. Request a dimmer control to let you alter the intensity of the light, to create a mood or suit an activity.

THE DREAM OF RUNNING YOUR OWN BUSINESS

The neighborhood hardware store. The corner grocery. For most of us, these are cherished childhood images. But in an age of chain stores and international corporate mergers, it's easy to assume that there's no longer a place for the small neighborhood business. First Federal Savings Bank thinks differently-in fact, we believe that economic recovers in our region will be a result of the energies of entrepreneurs and individuals who believe in the dream of running their own business · Pendant lighting. Smaller than chandeliers, pendant light fixtures are hung from the ceiling, usually by a chain or cord. These are shaded to reduce glare, and can provide both task and general lighting. You may want to use pendant lighting instead of a table lamp to save valuable space.

· Wall-mounted fixtures also can provide accent, task and general lighting. Use them to add dramatic highlights or fill a living room, bedroom or hallway with a warm glow.

· Bath or vanity strip lighting will give you effective task lighting through the soft glow of bare bulbs, similar to a theater dressing room. This is usually a supplement to general lighting provided by a ceiling fixture.

· Fluorescent fixtures are energy-saving sources of general lighting. Consider fluorescent for your kitchen, bath, family room, laundry or workshop. New warm-tone fluorescents have color fidelity comparable to incandescents and now smaller fixtures offer the energy-saving benefits of new compact fluorescent bulbs.

· Track lighting will give you flexibility, versatility and change when you want it. It can be dramatic accent lighting, practical task lighting, and overall general lighting - all at once. If you decide to rearrange your furnishing or accessories, you can easily reaim the track fixtures. The tracks can be horizontal or vertical on a wall, or run from wall to ceiling.

· Recessed fixtures are inconspicuous sources of the three types of lighting. They combine reflectors, baffles, diffusers and apertures to direct light downward, shield the light source and avoid

· Undercabinet/undershelf fixtures are slim, compact, miniaturized sources of task or accent lighting. Use them in the kitchen or workshop under cabinets to light countertops, or in display cabinets to highlight your prized

· Portable floor and table lamps are practical, attractive home furnishings. They give you the flexibility of being able to move the light wherever you want it. LIGHT STYLE

No matter what kind of furnishings you choose for your home, you will be able to select lighting fixtures that will either blend in or add a design statement.

For a traditional interior. choose lamps with classic styling. The high end of these are made by Stiffel; their brass bases are combined with simple, elegant shades.

If your interior is Southwest, consider a floor or table lamp with a faux-stone base. Prefer a more romantic or Victorian look? Choose antique (or antique reproduction) lamps with floral-print shades and glass or ceramic bases. For a contemporary scheme, a high-tech halogen pendant or torchere will lend interest as well as drama.

Neon also is being used in homes to create a romantic atmosphere. Neon-lighted clocks and sculptures can be purchased at specialty shops and department stores.

Why not use the sun as your home lighting source? More and more home owners are discovering the advantages of sunrooms and skylights.

With a sunroom, you can make the outdoors an extension of your home's interior - and add more square feet to your living space. Consider a "sun dormer" for a second story; these are available in virtually any size and are an effective way of opening up a room to a view.

How to buy

yourself, without an agent? Remember, you haven't the access to the multiple listings, where thousands of agents might see your house and bring you potential

If you can answer "yes" to the following questions, it may be worthwhile to handle your own sale: Is the housing market strong? Are mortgage funds readily available? Are you in a good location? Is your house in salable condition? Do you have plenty of time and patience? Do you have a talent for selling?

Forget it, you say - list the house with an agent. OK, here are your options:

An open listing allows you to list your house with more than one agent; you pay whoever brings you a buyer or no one if you find one yourself.

An exclusive agency listing gives a specific agency the right to sell your house for a specific time period. Reserve your right to sell the house yourself, though.

An exclusive right to sell allows only a specific agent to sell your house for a set length of time. Even if you find a buyer, the fee must be paid to the agent.

A multiple listing allows any agent who belongs to the multiple listings service in a community to sell your house. The fee is split between the listing and selling

Ask your agent about the advantages of "carrying back paper" on the house. In other words, you're the second mortgagee for the buyer, you get a monthly check, they have an easier time qualifying for a loan. SPIFFING UP

Most buyers want a piece of property in "turn-key" condition: They want it livable from day one. It's to your advantage to do some cleaning up of the place before it goes on the market.

Getting a house ready to put on the market doesn't have to require a major renovation or rehab, according to the Society of Real Estate Appraisers. Their checklist of improvements:

· Clear out any clutter around the house, in the closets, under the staircase or in the garage. Overcrowded storage spaces make it appear as if the house doesn't have enough. Remove unnecessary furniture or gewgaws to make rooms appear larger. Mirrors on the wall have the same effect.

· Repair damaged doors, windows, fixtures, wiring problems and leaky faucets.

· Have heating and cooling systems in good working order.

· Create "curb appeal" by trimming overgrown shrubbery and trees, mowing and watering the lawn, repairing damaged gutters and replacing or removing old shutters and screens.

Don't do any major remodeling if you're planning to sell soon; most improvements don't give you the return you'd expect.

CRAFTY KITCHENS

Design trends for the heart of the home

By Alison Ashton Copley News Service

Think about how you use the kitchen in your house

If the kids do their homework at the counter while Mom cooks dinner, if you tack the monthly bills up on the refrigerator and if it's the place for family powwows, your kitchen is a lot more than a place to churn out dinner.

It's the center of your home. And if it's cramped, poorly lit and badly laid out, your kitchen is not serving your family's needs.

Taking the best of features of Eurostyle (smart use of space and improved storage) and combining them with cozier design elements, kitchens look less like high-tech laboratories and more like a place where a family might actually want to spend time. The look is clean, but with a more human touch

bers or guests. Cheerful colors reign, and so does plenty of bleached wood. The old-style glass-front cabinets people were tearing out a few years ago are in favor again. Dark wood cabinets and counters are being bleached and restained for a lighter look. For a more modern twist, designers are bleaching wood and staining it with a light wash of color, such as blue or purple.

Green is the newest color to return to the kitchen. Not the dull avocado green of the '70s, but rich shades of hunter, seafoam or bottle green to accent countertops, floors and tiles.

Much more than an afterthought, dining areas are also incorporated in kitchen design. Many new kitchens include a generous dining table and comfortable chairs, as well as counter seating.

Acknowledging that the kitchen is also a place for the family to congregate, designers are incorporating sitting areas, complete with rugs, big sofas and overstuffed chairs - even a cabinet for the kids' toys.

But despite the profusion of homey details, the emphasis is still on convenience and organization. Pots need not be lost in the never-never world of the bottom cabinet, and you don't have to root through the pantry for a jar of oregano. Cabinets and drawers with adjustable dividers, roll-out shelves and lazy Susans keep cooking utensils and food accessi-

You'll also find work spaces to accommodate more than one cook. Kitchen islands are still popular, and the coming trend is varying counter heights. For averagesize women, the average 36-inchhigh counter is ideal, but kids work better at 30 to 32 inches, and taller family members are more comfortable with counters that are 42 inches high.

CRAFTY KITCHENS - New kitchens have a sophisticated country look with work islands, efficient lighting and built-in appliances. Shown here: Appliances by KitchenAid, Inc.

Functional stainless steel is a pop-ular finish, but designers are also finishing dishwashers and refrigerators to blend in with the cabi-

Appliances will also be moved to more convenient spots. For example, one designer likes to put the dishwasher near the table, where plates can be scraped and loaded with a minimum of hassle.

Lighting is another element that used to be overlooked. Make the most of whatever natural light is available (you can even add a skylight or a garden window over the sink).

Then shed light on work areas. The idea is to install lighting to illuminate work areas, not the back of your head, which will cause you to work in your own shadow. Overhead lighting should be supplemented with task lighting that illuminates work stations.

Track lighting is an easy-to-install do-it-yourself remedy. Under-cabinet lighting illuminates countertops. Over-cabinet lighting and soffet lighting help improve light generally. And don't overlook sources such an exhaust hood over the cooking range.

SMART AND SAFE

Appliances, insurance security and more

By Alison Ashton Copley News Service

A great house not only looks good — it's smart and safe, too.

New, automated appliances save time and money. Small improvements make it safe for children and elderly residents, detectors sniff out environmental hazards and security measures and insurance protect your house and all it contains.

NEW APPLIANCES

When you think of automation, you probably think of the old "Jetsons" cartoons. Or perhaps you find yourself looking longingly at new episodes of "Star Trek: The Next Generation," in which the characters order gourmet dishes from food banks and the good ship Enterprise tells the crew exactly what to do.

Similar household automation will be a common feature in the not-so-distant future. And not just for its alluring conveniences, but to save precious fuel.

Some of the automated systems to look for include heating systems set on a timer. Although timers are nothing new, future systems will sense when people are in the house and continue to keep it warm, even when a conventional timer would turn the system off. Similarly, garage door openers will sense approaching cars.

Other appliances will be activated by phone, so dinner will start cooking and the hot tub will start heating up while you drive home.

Not only are automated appliances and home systems expected to save fuel and cut utility bills, but they will be user-friendly. Manufacturers, such as Honeywell, place an emphasis on adapting automation to suit the consumer's needs rather than the other way around.

SAFETY FIRST

If your house doesn't have smoke detectors, it should.

"People can cut their risk of dying in a fire in half by using smoke detectors," Jamie Haines, representative for the National Fire Protection Association told Parents magazine.

You probably have a smoke detector in your house. But are the batteries fresh? Should you install more detectors in strategic locations throughout the house?

Check the batteries once a

Who needs mortgage approval anxiety?

So very much hinges on the approval of a mortgage loan application. One family is wondering whether its new dream home will be possible. Another family might be awaiting the answer so it can buy the vacated home. And the realtor is anxious to "tie down the deal."

There's lots of anxiety. Certainly a lengthy wait for approval of the mortgage application should not be a factor.

The folks at Garrett National Bank are keenly aware of the need for fast turnaround. When you deal with Garrett National, you will find our service to be better and quicker because we're true experts at processing mortgage loans.

But fast processing is only half our story. Garrett National also has a commitment to a great combination of low rates and flexible terms. Both fixed and variable rates are available. Payback? Ten years, 15 years, 20 years. Other terms can be arranged. And we're committed to a low point schedule.

When important home-buying decisions are being made, it's in everyone's best interest to seek out the best deal. We feel both the best deal and best service will be found at Garrett National Bank. Visit any of our 10 convenient offices today and find out for yourself.

month and change them twice a year. Detectors should be placed in each bedroom and in hallways, as well as the kitchen and basement. Another fire prevention measure: a small fire extinguisher mounted on the kitchen wall to snuff out cooking fires.

Homes with very young or elderly residents have special safety needs. Curious children can find all kinds of trouble, while elderly residents need to reduce the chance of accidents.

The childproof house has tempered glass windows, fire-retardant drapes and locking devices on drawers and cabinets. Bathrooms should have locking medicine cabinets and a lock on the toilet (children, like pets, have been known to fall in and drown). Counters and tables should have rounded edges and corners.

Elderly homeowners should install banisters on both sides of any stairwells. Another key to comfortable living: accessibility. Kitchen cabinets shouldn't be too high for comfortable access, door handles and drawer pulls should be easy to grasp and faucet handles should be easy to grasp.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCARES

Your family can also fall prey to environmental hazards.

Radon has been grabbing the most headlines of late and for a good reason: It is the second leading cause of lung cancer after smoking, according to Consumer Reports.

"Radon doesn't come from industrial pollution; it's the gaseous by-product of the uranium that's ubiquitous in the earth's crust," says Consumer Reports. "Radon, being a gas, quickly dissipates in the open air. But if it seeps into a house, it can collect in dangerous concentrations."

Hardware stores and home-improvement centers seil radon detector kits. Short-term charcoal canister detectors collect readings for three to seven days, whereas alpha-track detectors track readings for up to a year. Consumer Reports judged both types to be affordable (about $25) and reliable.

Other hazards, particularly dangerous to young children, include lead poisoning from lead-based paints found on older houses and humidity trapped in houses, which can breed all kinds of bacteria.

SECURITY SYSTEMS

You don't have to live in a palace to attract burglars, and many homeowners who have alarm systems say that peace of mind is worth the expense.

"Statistics indicate that residences equipped with alarms are 15 times less likely to be burglarized than homes without them," says Bruce Peterson, marketing manager for Heath Zenith Reflex Brand Group, a manufacturer of home security systems.

tems that alert the police (and which cost thousands of dollars) to more affordable systems you install yourself to scare off burglars.

Do-it-yourself systems are available at most home-improvement stores. There are sound alarms that hang on doorknobs, as well as sliding door barriers that emit a loud warning.

Motion sensors can detect the heat and motion of approaching visitors (welcome and unwelcome).

If you decide to invest in a full alarm system, do your homework. Get estimates from several security systems companies. Ask for local references and make sure they have local personnel who will make repairs.

Pest control

By Sean Bourke Copley News Service

Along with spring come pests, those unwanted roommates that eat your food, clothes and even your house. In the ongoing battle to keep the bugs at bay, you must remember that what kills these critters is none too healthy for you, either.

While do-it-yourself methods — powders, foggers, sprays — do help keep the insect population down, they often are too localized. By failing to penetrate to where the insects hide, some are left alive to breed and quickly repopulate your home. Have a professional pest control company assess the problem and deal with it effectively.

Some companies use a solution of combined chemicals that is effective on a variety of common pests. Avoid this approach. Have them specify the type of infestation, then apply a pesticide that targets the existing species. By doing so you can avoid unnecessary exposure. If there is an infant or pregnant woman in the home, make sure to check with a doctor about the chemicals that will be used.

Some non-chemical alternatives have been developed, such as the use of low-frequency electricity or freezing with liquid nitrogen. Though they may seem a safe alternative to their chemical counterparts, be sure to verify their effectiveness before choosing one of these offbeat methods.

Cooling tips

By Sharon Williams Copley News Service

You don't have to move into an igloo to survive a severe summer. Stay cool as a cucumber by investing in one or more of the following:

Insulation: Beef up your home's capacity to stay cool by adding insulation. Areas to check include the attic, sidewalls, floor, garage, crawl spaces and heating/cooling ducts.

• Central air-conditioning: Buy a high-efficiency air-conditioning system if you want to keep the whole house cool. Check the Seasonal Energy Efficiency Rating before buying. Those over nine are excellent, while rankings of seven or less indicate the air conditioner consumes a greater amount of electricity and is thus more costly to operate.

• Fans: Today's fans are as fashionable and economical as they are famous. The gamut runs from colorful personal fans that can be clipped to a desktop to romantic ceiling fans that enhance room decor while generating a breeze. Whole-house fans draw fresh air through your entire dwelling.

· Room air conditioners: Need to cool only one or two rooms? Invest in a room air conditioner that's easy both to install and to maintain.

 Dehumidifiers: Home owners weary of sticky summer days can get relief with a dehumidifier.

ness, dehumidifiers remove the dampness from the air.

 Shades: Shut out the sun the old-fashioned way: Simply pull down the shades. Today's versions are super-energy efficient and right in step with interior design trends.

With curtains and windows thrown wide open, you beseech the rays of old El Sol. Not blinding glare, but gentle, lazy streams of light that warm both soul and soil.

What's more, you're willing to sacrifice plaster and lawn space for a breath of fresh air. Or for treelike shade that offers shelter amid the elements.

Welcome to the 1990s, a decade in which you can sun-worship from your sofa and garden high and dry in a downpour. Or swing in the shade on a scorching afternoon.

Solariums, porches, gazebos and greenhouses all but erase the dividing line that separates what's inside and what's out. Through architecture, they allow homeowners to commune with Mother Nature, while steering clear of her stormier side.

Acquiring such an addition doesn't mean you have to buy a new home, take on a night job or suffer through months of painful renovation.

Commission from an architect the simplest porch, and leave the construction to a contractor. Or hammer and nail your way to the perfect solarium, gazebo or greenhouse with detailed plans, prefabricated materials or do-it-your-self kits — some so simple that no tools are required.

And today, it's trendy - the perfect addition for the new breeds of couch potatoes and homebodies.

Because they offer a classic way to project the indoors while taming the out, porches are enjoying a mini-renaissance. A Builder magazine survey showed readers ranked the porch with the everpopular deck.

From Queen Anne wraparounds to plain farm platforms, porches are popping up on new homes, both spacious and simple, seaside and mountaintop vacation cottages and even existing dwellings that before had nothing but doorsteps fragile form, gazebos rank not only as the largest and most elaborate of garden ornaments, but they're almost as popular now as they were in Victorian times.

While its charm elevates it to focal-point status, the gazebo also provides shelter, a place for the homeowner to escape the April shower or harsh July sun. The gazebo can serve as a breakfast nook, napping spot, tearoom, library and lookout, all in the course of the same day.

Distinguished by up-curved eaves, latticework, turned finials or scrollwork brackets, these miniature buildings are still most famous for their shapes - either simply square or octagonal.

Most echo the Victorian era in styling, but there are countless designs available with the most modern featuring screens or shutters for protecting those withmanufacturer's study.

That's not to say that a sun space wouldn't work equally as well in a library, bathroom, home entertainment center or spa, all cited as other popular areas for sun-space additions.

Sun spaces boast both beauty and brains. Besides adding valuable square footage and cutting down on a home's heating bill, a solarium's unique curves, lines and materials make it a reflection of its owners' personal style. Thus it's no surprise that these sunniest of home improvements have home improvers investing $400 million annually.

Many green thumbs, meanwhile, are moving their plants from house to greenhouse, be it a simple lean-to, easy-to-install window box or full-blown structure complete with built-in cooling and irrigation systems.

Beautiful bath decor

Bathrooms used to be basic. A bath-and-tub combo, sink, medicine cabinet and toilet - all crammed into a space that was always too small.

How times have changed. Along with the kitchen, bathrooms have become the focus of innovative design. Now they are relaxing havens, offering escape from the madding crowds, complete with oversize tubs, mood lighting and plush carpeting.

"The bathroom will play a more significant role in the home of the future," says David L. Weiner, executive director of the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bu-

"Bathrooms are no longer being designed with function alone in mind, but with attention to the user's individual needs," says Weiner.

That means you can relax in a whirlpool tub and sit a sauna after a tough workout. Or spend the evening in a top-of-the-line loo with a fireplace, comfortable sitting area, stereo system - even a small refrigerator and mi-

"Spas, steam showers and exercise equipment are also moving into the bathroom, as the healthconscious bring their health clubs home," says Weiner.

Luxurious touches, such as marble counters, heat lamps and big tubs help re-create the splendor and ritual of Roman and Japanese baths (a big inspiration to many architects). Oversize tubs have been popular for the past few years, and industry consultant Don Arnold predicts that the focus will soon shift to the shower.

"The hot ideas in this category are free-standing round or spiral profile enclosures and the use of tempered safety glass rather than acrylic for the doors and panels."

clude pulsating shower heads lining the sides of the shower and large-diameter shower heads.

Lighting is another important element in bath design. Designers are using skylights, and glass blocks let in natural light while protecting privacy. Also look for sophisticated soffet lighting and theatrical lights around mirrors.

Spring In To Revco For Great Prices On Health Care Products

Summer Fitness Tips

As the weather gets warmer and the daylight lasts longer, more and more people get back to a great habit -Exercise

Of course, exercise takes on many forms depending on the individual. For some it's jogging or tennis, for others it's swimming or golf. There are many different types of exercises to choose from, especially as Summer allows extended outdoor activities.

One important point to remember - make sure the exercise program you choose is right for you. If you're like a lot of people, it's been months since you've physically exerted your body. Rushing into a rigorous regimen can lead to pulled muscles, hamstrings or at the very least, a great deal of stiffness.

Right now, you local Revco drug store has copies of the book "Get Fit For Summer!!" It contains helpful hints on how to get back into shape and it's yours FREE with your purchase of $15 or more.
